A brief quotation from the last Annual Report of our Home Missionary Board will be a sufficient reply to your correspondent "C."

"Although aware of the general tendency to dissatisfaction in cases in which some missionaries are assisted and others refused, we have had no alternative but simply to exercise our best judgment in sending our funds where they seemed to be most imperatively demanded or where the interests of our cause might be best subserved."

If it were at all necessary we could give in detail the reasons for the course pursued by our Board in the case to which reference has been made. But the Union Convention is the proper place to deal with such matters, and anonymous correspondents should hardto their communications.

I have to record a very pleasing inter-view with the friends in New Glasgow

New Glasgow

At Windsor Forks, on the 27th ult.,

At Windsor Forks, on the 27th ult., the house of Bro. J. F. Morrow, where I was kindly entertained during the last fall and winter. About 5 o'clock it became evident that by some preconcerted arrangement we were to be taken by surprise. Mrs. Morrow's table was taken possession of, her usual preparations were interrupted, and a sumptuous tea was provided. Some time was spent in conversation and music, whereupon Deacon Olding on behalf of the friends assembled, addressed the writer in loving terms, and presented a sum of money, which was promptly handed over to Mrs. Freeman on my return home. Some of the amounts were contributed by members of the congregation. My intercourse with that people has been of the most pleasing character, and pleasant acquaintance has been formed with many friends in New Glasgow, the Mines, and other parts of Pictou County, who will be long re membered with gratitude. I hope they will soon enjoy the labors of a good pastor who can settle down permanently among them, and guide them by the "still waters," and that they will be cheered by the abiding presence of the Great Comforter. Both of these the need.

Yours fraternally, D. FREEMAN. Canning, June 13th, 1878.
