men, women or children. After driving ly and Epirus and possibly Crete. the Christians back the Turks closed their attention to the British vice consul, threatening his life, and pursuing him with knives, until he found shelter in the house of a brother consul. Turkish soldiers stood quietly by during all these outrages, perfectly inactive, not attempting to stop the riotous disturbances.

Later intelligence from Crete states. that two Turkish Envoys had a Conference with the Christian Chiefs, but, being unable to accept their proposals, the negotiations fell through.

General Gourko fought a severe battle on the 31st of December, at Tashesan, before securing Turkish entrenchments. The Russians lost 700 men killed and wounded. The Turks retired at night fall towards Sofia, pursued by cavalry.
After a halt for rest and reorganization Gourko resumed the advance upon Sofia.

A telegram received in Paris from Constantinople states that the Porte has asked for an armistice through England.

Russia.—The Journal de St. Petersburg says that Russia could not, in the interests of peace, itself do otherwise than refuse all intervention, and make it clearly understood that peace must be discussed between the belligerents.

It is stated that Russia repeatedly, before and since the conference, endeavored to negotiate secret terms of peace with Turkey, hostile to English interests, and it is thought that Russia will probably refuse to inform England her armistice condition.

Russia has refused the proffered mediation. Turkey's conditions for armistice have been forwarded to the Russian headquarters, and the Russian Com-manders have been instructed to receive any offers for a truce.

Ismael Hakki Pasha is in command of Erzeroum. The Russians have suspended concentration of troops against that place on account of the snow. They are making roads by tunnelling the

A St Petersburg special says Russia will probably consent to an armistice on the basis of the rectification of the Armenian frontier, guarantee of good administration in Belgrade and the independence of Roumania.

Despatches from Bucharest say that the army which was to cross the Shipka Pass and co operate with General Gourko against Adrianople, shows no sign of activity; and while the present weather continues such operations will be impossible. The deep snow offers almost insurmountable obstacles to waggons, and the Russians have no sleighs. Orders are now being issued for a supply of sledges, but by the time they are ready the snow will probably have disappeared, and the roads will be impassable from mud and water.

The Daily News correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs that be considers it improbable that Russia can reach Adrianople before May. It now appears that the Czarowitch will remain in Bulgaria with General Todleben as the real commander of his

It is reported that there are 26,000 sick in Bulgaria, and supplies are inadequate to the number. This prob ably includes the sick among the Turkish prisoners. It is rumored that the Turks have retreated from Sophia after burning it, and are marching towards Ihktoman defile to bar the Russian advance upon Tatar Bazardgik. After an exceedingly difficult passage over snow covered mountains and frozen footpaths, the vanguard of a Russian division has occupied the Balkan passes between Arabkanak and Sophia, and cavalry has already been stationed on the Sophia road. The Turks were taken by surprise, consequently the Russians lost only five wounded. Along the eastern front, namely, the River Lom, the Turks have withdrawn from all their positions leaving only small armed bodies composed of troops and inhabitants. The latter with their arms retired to the woods after burning their own Atkins. villages.

Russians continue concentrating troops on the plains of Erzeroum. The movements on the Deve Boyun heights are visible from the Turkish fortifications. Four Russian infantry battalions and a Miss Orinth A. Schurman, of the same regiment of dragoons occupied the place. village of Osein, near the road to Trebizond. Every preparation is made for a long siege.

SPAIN AND PORTUGAL.—Advice from the Azores report a deficiency in the Indian corn crop. Great scarcity is feared. The Azores newspapers advise the Government to permit free importation of cereals. The Madrid Epoca states that Don Carlos was expelled from France at the request of the Spanish Government. Ex-Queen Isabella has written to the Paris Figaro protesting against the expulsion of Don Carlos and repudiating the accusations that she was in conspiracy with him against King Alphonso. The Spanish Government is likely to take very serious steps to mark its dis-

> It is reported that the insurrection in Bosnia is reviving and gaining ground. The Servians captured at Perot 23 cannon, 1000 rifles and 50 prisoners.

EGYPT.—The Khedive of Egypt, presented Mr. Stanley with the decoration of Grand Officer of the Medjidie as an appreciation of his services. A banquet to Stanley was given by the Cairo Geo-graphical Society.

CHINA.—The Advertizer hears on reliable authority that official information has been received in St. Petersburg that the Chinese have masscred 15,000 men, women and children at the Kashgarean town of Manas, committing the most frightful atrocities.

South Africa.—Sir Bartle Frere, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Cape Colony, considered the situation on the Caffre frontier as extremely dangerous, Kreli Galeka, a chief at the head of his tribe, threatening state of relations with Cetewayo, chief of the Zulus. News has reached Natal that Cetewayo's army has occupied the disputed territory. Cetewayo is the most powerful of native chiefs contiguous to the British settlements. It is not believed that war with the Zulus will result.

The Earl of Carnarvon received a deputation of South Africa merchants, who expressed a wish that reinforcements should be sent to the Cape, fearing the colonists may be out-numbered, or, in the event of European complications, be left to their own re-

The Times' says "It is not pleasant to remember that Cetewayo, chief of th Zulus, according to those who know Zulu land well, can put 40,000 well armed men into the field, and that he may choose the moment for doing so when we have our hands more than full on the Caffrarian question."

Earl Carnarvon said to the deputation of South African merchants. I am glad to see that fresh colonial levies are being raised. They will render I have no doubt very valuable assistance. The ninteenth regiment and a battery of artillery will leave England within ten
