Fatal Quarrel.

Two boys, Emmanuel Edward Allison aged 15 years, and Rupert Lang aged 11 years were quarrelling on Wednesday afternoon in Brunswick Street. Lang was throwing burrs at Allison. From this it came to throwing stones, and subsequently to closer quarters and blows, when Lang opened his pocket knife and stabbed Allison in the side. On finding what had been done he ran to Dr. Somers's door, by whom he had been employed, to look after his horse. No sooner had he got there than he fell down and expired in a few minutes. Lang went off not knowing the extent of the injury he had inflicted but was subsequently arrested. An inquest was held on Thursday before Dr. Lawson, when the facts as here given in brief, were fully established. The post mortem examination showed that the knife penetrated only about an inch, but that it had gone between the ribs into the upper portion of the heart. The verdict of the jury was "That the deceased Emmanuel E. Allison came to his death by a stab wound entering the heart received at the hands of Rupert Lang."

ANOTHER COMMUNICATION from Mr. Geo. Sewell, dated Moncton, N. B., June 22, 1878.

J. H. Robinson, Esq.—Dear Sir—I wrote you in May last informing you of the wonderful cure your "Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lactophosphate of Lime" had made in my case, and, at the same time promising to write from time to time to let you know how I was getting along. I am much better in every way; am stronger; can walk a good long distance without getting tired. Sleep well and eat a hearty meal. In fact I am a new man in every respect, and those who saw me three months ago and see me now, can hardly believe that I am the same person.

The above are facts, and believing that ingratitude is one of the unpardonable sins, I feel it a duty to tell you of what, under a kind Providence, your preparation has done for me. Wishing you every success, &c., &c.

The amount of money required to complete the line along the shore of Lake Superior to Thunder Bay, and thence to Red River, is estimated at $18,000,000. Without the Imperial guarantee, a new loan may be obtained by the Canadian Government to complete the line; but it would add to the strength of the financial position if an Imperial commission took part in the administration of the lands or revenues upon which the loan may be based. The scheme has been represented as a great emigration scheme, in which the mother country is chiefly interested. Under those circumstances, the Canadian Ministers have asked for the appointment of an Imperial commissioner, whether the Government approve or continue to refuse the guarantee.

well, and altogether unexpected to her family, left her earthly tenement and went up to the "Palace of the King." This singular event occurred as follows: Our sister has been an invalid about a year, and at times patiently endured much suffering; but during the last few weeks was unusually well, and her friends fondly hoped she was indeed convalescent. Yesterday morning she was noticeably cheerful and active, assisting in household duties, and preparing for the ensuing Lord's day. After enjoying a hearty dinner she was left alone in her room to take her usual siesta. Had slept about an hour when some friends called on her; and on going in to disturb her, they found her reclining on her couch sweetly sleeping her last sleep, "from which she will not wake to weep." She evidently passed away without a struggle or a sigh. The angel took her up in his easy chariot, and we heard not the rumbling of its wheels. In early life she heard and obeyed the Divine call to follow the Saviour, was baptized by the late Father Harding, and united with the Baptist Church in Pugwash, where she was distinguished by constant acts of disinterested benevolence, exemplary piety, and devoted attachment to the church of Christ, for a period of 31 years. She left her native shores Dec. 1859, in the ship "George Henderson," with her husband and family, Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs, and several other friends to seek a home in New Zealand. On arriving in Auckland she and bro. Eaton, at once identified themselves with the Baptist Church here, of which she remained a consistent, working, useful member until called by her dear Lord and Master, to go up to her heavenly reward. She served God faithfully over 51 years, and then went to rest at the age of 66 years. The poor blest her, the church honored her, her husband safely trusted in her, her children dearly loved her, and her grandchildren revered her. Her neighbours praised her and her numerous acquaintances ever held her in the highest esteem. She has joined the blessed dead who have died in the Lord, and her works do follow her. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

NEW GLASGOW, August 17th, 1879.—During the past fortnight God has been pleased to make known his saving power in New Glasgow, and sinners have been led to Jesus. Yesterday morning two young men and a young lady were baptized in the presence of a large number of people on the banks of the river.

Many who do not see as we do in everything, are coming in to enjoy the meetings with us. Especially would we thank the young men who render valuable assistance in the meetings.

We were favored by a visit from Sau Ah Brah who also helped us very much in our meetings. The people of New Glasgow were delighted with his lectures. He spent one Sabbath with us and was kindly invited to address the Sunday Schools in St. Andrews's Church at 4 o'clock p. m.,

At the hour appointed that large and commodious church was thronged with people both old and young to hear the converted Karen. After good singing by the Choir, Sau Ah Brah spoke to the children who listened with great attention. We think they went away feeling very thankful that they were not born in a heathen land, and determined to do something to send the Bible to the poor heathen children that they may learn how to love and serve Jesus. We will all remember Sau Ah Brah's visit with pleasure.

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. LEVI W. EATON OF AUKLAND, NEW ZEALAND.

I wish to make a communication, which, I doubt not will interest a number of the readers of your valuable paper. I am aware that lengthy obituaries are not generally considered very acceptable reading, save to near relatives and friends, and I presume that they are more especially objectionable, coming from a far country. But the subject of the following notice was known, and loved by so many Baptists in Nova Scotia, and manifested in her life so much of the Spirit of Jesus, that a few narrated incidents concerning her, appearing in your columns, cannot detract very much from their general interest. Yesterday afternoon, sister Sarah Eaton, the beloved wife of L. W. Eaton, merchant of Auckland, without giving the slightest notice or the least expression of fare-

EAST POINT, P. E. I.—Dear Brother Selden.—The interest of our Zion is still advancing. Yesterday I had the pleasure of administering the ordinance of baptism in two different places; three were baptised in Dandas, five were added to this church during the last week. The Lord's Supper was administered in Souris, and we were much pleased to meet quite a number of strangers from Nova Scotia, members of churches of the same faith and order,
