This Society has for its object the supplying of weak and destitute churches with pastoral visitation, the securing of increased efficiency of the Laity, and to unite and harmonize those forces which are helping to extend the Redeemer's kingdom in these Counties. Saturday evening the Secretary preached a sermon from 6th verse 1 chap. of the Gospel by John.

Sunday morning, Rev. A. W. Barss occupied the pulpit, and delivered a stirring discourse upon "Character Building." The text upon which the sermon was based has unfortunately slipped the writer's memory. In the afternoon the Sabbath School was visited and addressed by several brethren. The Secretary's sermon in the evening brought a series of very pleasant and profitable meetings to a close.

Our meeting at Antigonishe being only a preliminary one, it was resolved (D. V.) to hold our first Quarterly Conference at an early date with the church at Canso, of which due notice will be

In Memoriam.

JOHN EDWARD ARMSTRONG,

beloved son of Whitman Armstrong, died at his father's residence, Granville, of Typhoid fever, after two weeks illness, September 1st, aged 28 years. Of a peculiarly sympathetic temperament, he "rejoiced with those who rejoiced and sorrowed with those whosorrowed." This disposition was conseccrated in boyhood by love to Christ. In April 1871 he was baptized by Rev. Isa. Wallace, commencing the vocation of teaching at the age of sixteen, he gained the esteem of his employers and the affection of his pupils, in Litchfied, Acadia Mines, Folly Villge, Upper Stewiacke, South Brookfield, and Lawrencetown, as well as at Bear River where he taught for a short time during College vacations. In Nov. 1871, he began his studies at Wolfville where he endeared himself to professors and fellow students. A living Christian, one who loved his fellowmen, an untiring Sabbath School worker, a diligent student, a conscientious teacher, an affectionate son, brother and friend. Many sad hearts mourn his early death. May God sustain and comfort his bereaved parent. A. R.
