

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—The offerings in St. Paul's Church, Chicago, on Easter Day, amounted to $10,000, and ensure the removal of the debt resting upon the Parish.

On Easter Monday the Hon. Geo. Heywood was elected a member of the vestry of St. Andrew's church, Mount Holly, N. J., for the sixtieth time consecutively.

It may be well for us to explain to our young friends that the side of the Messenger which contains the Youths' Department goes to press on Fridays. Last Friday being the 30th of April, of course we had not then the Word Question decided, and as there are about 160 competitors, we have not yet had time to examine all the lists of words, but shall be able to give attention to them for next week's paper.

The Prince Edward Island Government have appealed to the Home Government against the Dominion decision on the appropriation of the Fishery Award, and have sent addresses to the Queen from both branches of the Legislature.

THE FIRST RESURRECTION by Prof. Geo. G. B. Pepper, D. D., pp. 15 price 10 cents.

SWEDENBURG and his teachings by Rev. H. M. King, D. D., pp. 44.

These are two articles which have appeared in former numbers of the Baptist Review, now put up as separate pamphlets.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, FOR MAY, 1880, has six articles of varied merit:

- 1. General Grant and Strong Government by Judge J. S. Black.
2. The religion of all Sensible Men, by Leslie Stephen.
3. McClellan's Last Service to the Republic, by G. T. Curtis.
4. Ralph Waldo Emerson, by F. H. Underwood.
5. The Munroe Doctrine and the Isthmian Canal.
6. Recent History and Biography.
1. History of the Norman Conquest.
2. The Life of Gladstone.
3. Lamartine and his friends. By Axel Gustafson.

Judge Black's article is intended to show that the limitation of the tenure of office in the Presidency to two terms, is a fundamental principle of the U. S. form of Government, and that Grant's third candidature is actually a plot to revolutionize the republic and introduce a monarchy.

When Christian had grace of Christ. The writer is evidently in the dark as to the true blessedness of the religion of Christ, and aims to spread that darkness.

THE BAPTIST REVIEW, APRIL, MAY, JUNE, 1880, J. R. Baumes, D. D., Editor, pp. 151, price $2.50 a year, Cincinnati, Ohio.

It comprises six excellent articles: 1. A study of Elijah, by Rev. G. F. Fleming.

2. The fragment of Muratori and the origin of a collection of apostolic Catholic Scriptures, by Adolf Harnack, translated from the German by Rev. J. F. Morfon.

3. Paul's Doctrine of Sin by Prof. E. P. Gould.

4. Increased Harmony on Essential Doctrine among Evangelical Christians by J. L. Burrow, D.D.

The Design of the Ordinances. By Thos. S. Barbour.

6. The Rock that followed them. By Rev. H. A. Sawtelle, D.D.

Book-Reviews and Notices. Short comprehensive and lively, by the Editor, fill up the remaining 17 pages.

This is number six of the Review. It seems to improve each successive quarter. The denomination is greatly indebted to the enterprising editor and publisher for a Quarterly worthy of the body whose interests it seeks to serve.

The first article is a bold presentation of one of the finest characters that adorn the sacred volume.

The second is a review of a learned treatise on the canon of the New Testament. The third is a discussion of the relation to the law of God, and how it affects our relation to God. There can be no more important theme, except that which shows how we are delivered from its consequences.

The 4th indicates some of the influences that have been at work in removing the asperities which formerly existed between bodies of Christians.

The 5th, the design of the ordinances—very appropriately follows, and points out how needful it is that Christians should ever hold the sound form of words left by the Master. What is the true mission of Baptism and the Lord's Supper is ably discussed. It shows how logically one precedes and the other follows as the testimony of faith, and that any other order is plainly subversive of Christ's intention in their appointment.

Then in the 6th is given the substantial representation of the source of the Water of life, which was with the chosen tribes in their wilderness wanderings, and is still to be the foundation of all the believer's hopes.

STANDARD SERIES. J. K. Funk, & Co., 10 and 12 Day Street New York.

CARLYLE'S ESSAYS, 20 cents, Goethe, Burns, Luther's Psalm, Schiller, Memoirs of Mirabeau, Death of Goethe.

SELF-CULTURE, INTELLECTUAL, PHYSICAL AND MORAL. Price 10 cents, (usual price $1.) By John Stuart Blackie, Professor in the University of Edinburgh.

KNIGHT'S CELEBRATED POPULAR HISTORY OF ENGLAND. In eight parts, price 30 cents each part, or in two large volumes bound in cloth, $2.90, (former price $18.)

LETTERS TO WORKMEN AND LABOURERS BY JOHN RUSKIN. In two parts, price 15 cents, (usual price $2.)

IDYLS OF THE KING, BY ALFRED TENNYSON, Poet-Laureate of England, price 20 cents.

These are all truly standard works, of great value, and worthy a place in every family library, and should be read by every person of intelligence. They are here brought within the reach of those of the most moderate means, and may be obtained at the prices named, postage prepaid, (except Knight's England,) by sending direct to the publishers. The young men and women of today have here a fine opportunity of supplying themselves with popular and valuable reading, instead of the trashy sensational stuff that is sent abroad so industriously and largely from many United States publishing houses. The refined taste that must result from such reading as these works supply, will have the effect of producing changes in the mental habits and constitution of the readers and give them something worth treasuring up for future use and enjoyment.

ST. NICHOLAS FOR MAY, opens with an important "Talk with Girls and their Mothers," by Washington Gladden, and contains the first installment of Noah Brooks's new serial entitled "The Fairport Nine," finely illustrated.

Of complete short stories there are five, all with pictures. There are two Natural History articles. "Oriental Jugglery," an illustrated paper, tells of some wonderful tricks and feats by Hindoo jugglers. "A. D. 1695" explains, with the aid of pictures an interesting piece of history. "How to care for the sick" is a practical article, giving young folks clear and safe advice concerning nursing, how to act and what to do in the sick room.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS AND SINGERS should use GATES' INVIGORATING SYRUP to clear the VOICE. MESSRS. C. GATES SON & Co., GENTLEMEN:—I have been afflicted for a number of years with a sick headache (caused by a morbid state of the liver). About three years ago I was recommended by a friend to try your medicine. I did so and found great relief from using your No. 1 INVIGORATING SYRUP. I can cheerfully recommend it to others afflicted as I was, I can also recommend it highly for hoarseness, I use it constantly for my voice and believe that I derive more benefit from its use than any other medicine that I have taken.
