

Here too is a specimen of the Star's "Hash":
Tutor.—"Your writing is so wretched, sir, that I can't make anything of it. How have you rendered Casar's bonae leges?" Sub-Freshman—"Why, the bony legs of Casar, I believe, sir."
Only think of it—the bony legs of Casar in "Hash."

THE "ACADIA ATHENAEUM"—Students of Acadia College, have made provision for a course of popular lectures during the season. They announce for November, Egbert M. Chesley, Boston, For December, Jas. D. Fletcher, of P. E. I. For January, Rev. James A. Strothard, Cornwallis. For February, J. W. Longley, Halifax.
They also expect to secure lectures from Wm. Elder, Editor of the Telegraph, St. John, and Rev. C. B. Pitblado, Halifax.

REV. E. J. GRANT wishes us to say that our mention of his being in Dartmouth might convey the impression that he purposed settling there. He wishes to say, that he is supplying for a few Sabbaths only, and that his being there need not prevent other brethren from corresponding with the church with a view to a settlement.

CHEAP FAMILY READING. Postage paid. The CHRISTIAN MESSENGER to New Subscribers to 31st Dec., 1880, for 25 cents.

MY CHILD-LIFE IN BURMAH.—By Miss O. Jennie Bixby. Cloth, Illustrated, 12mo. pages 72 Price, 75 cents.

This is a new Missionary Book. It is a description of places, persons, scenes, and incidents connected with the childhood of a missionary's daughter, and will give young people some such impressions of the various races of Burmah as one has who was born among them. Heathenism, Civilization, Christianity, are words of deep meaning to the author of this book.

The book will be found useful in Mission Circles, as well as in the family and in Sunday-School libraries, and will make an excellent holiday gift.

THE VINTONS AND THE KARENS.—By Mrs. C. Vinton Luther. Cloth, Illustrated, 12mo. pages 252, Price 1.00.

Another Missionary Book. It is a Biographical Sketch of Rev. Justus H. Vinton, and his wife, Calista Holman, embracing also a record of their missionary life in Burmah. It has been prepared by their daughter, Mrs. C. Vinton Luther, who was herself a missionary in Burmah for a number of years.

The book furnishes much information concerning that wonderful people, the Karens, among whom the Vintons labored. As interesting as a romance. Should be in every Baptist home.

W. G. CORTHELL, Publisher, Mission Rooms, Tremont Temple, Boston.

PIC-NICS AND PARTIES, OR AUNT SALLY'S EXPERIENCES. By Kate Nellie Hill, Philadelphia, Baptist Publication Society. Pp. 224. Price $1.00.

A lively and very life-like story of a family of young girls and their aunt. Telling all about the enjoyments and disappointments they had in these pleasant social summer gatherings. Our young lady readers who succeed in getting the book to read, will, we doubt not, rise from its perusal with the exclamation, "It is just lovely!"

FOUR FAMILIES may be supplied with the "Christian Messenger" from this date to Dec. 31st, 1880, for ONE DOLLAR.

READ CAREFULLY

SAMUEL OSBORNE, Sophiasburg, says: I was afflicted with Dyspepsia for nearly four years, my lungs becoming affected towards the last. I was induced to try the Shoshonee Remedy. After using three or four bottles I felt much better and gained strength rapidly, my health improved steadily and rapidly, and when I had taken three or four bottles more, I was quite restored to health and strength and have experienced better health than for forty years before. I had been under the treatment of a number of physicians before, but never received any material aid until I used your remedy.

A. McKAY, Truro, N. S., says: He was very bad with Liver Complaint, but used the Shoshonee Remedy, and in a month was as well as I had ever been in my life. I am now in business and wish you to send me three dozen by steamer.

A. WOOD, Consequon, says: That he has tried the Remedy for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia with great success. I have also used the Shoshonee Pills and find that they are as good as any I ever tried.

HENRY KING, Geneva, N. Y., says: My wife was intensely afflicted with dyspepsia for a long time. We consulted physicians of three different schools, and received no benefit. She has taken three bottles of the great Shoshonee Remedy and is now hearty and well.

Rev. JOHN SCOTT, says: Dr. McKenzie Botting suffered from an attack of Rheumatism, and was unable to move without help; but after taking a few bottles of the Shoshonee, was able to walk as well as ever. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles $1; Pills, 25 cents a box. Sold by all medicine dealers. March & April. eow.

At the residence of Mr. W. B. Freeman, Bridgewater, on the 11th inst., of consumption, Howard Freeman, aged 20 years. He died trusting in Jesus. On the occasion of his funeral, a sermon was preached by Rev. S. March, from Heb. xi. 13. May surviving friends be comforted by the hope of a happy re-union in the better land.

At St. Mary's Cross Roads, Sept. 11th, after a lingering and painful illness, Alexander McKean, aged 65 years. Mr. McKean united with the 2nd St. Mary's Baptist Church some 40 years ago, and has always been known for his quiet Christian walk and conversation. His was the faith that maintained its integrity—stood the test of severe trial and came out of the furnace purified as gold and silver. His character, marked for stability rather than activity, for calmness rather than bluster, has made its impression upon the community as well as upon his family, and was a fitting closeto the life,—quiet, serene: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. They rest from their labours and their works do follow them." He leaves a sorrowing widow and numerous family to mourn their loss. But in this case it can truly be said, "The righteous hath hope in his death."

At West Branch, River John, on Aug. 19th, Murdoch McFavish, aged 73 years.

At Windsor, on 22nd inst., Elisha Curry, aged 45 years. Deeply and deservedly respected as a man and a Christian.

At Wallace River, on 17th inst., Hanna, beloved wife of Mr. Cyprian Skerry, aged 40 years. Deceased was a consistent church member. In her hymn-book, she had written on the margin of the 1075 hymn, the following expression of her faith: "Please sing this hymn at my funeral. While you are singing below, I shall be singing with Jesus in heaven."

Suddenly, on Friday, the 22nd inst., at Auburn, California, Mr. James T. Maclean, son of the late Rev. John Maclean, of Pictou, and brother of J. S. Maclean, Esq., of this city.

Within a year of its first appearance, HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE has secured a leading place among the periodicals designed for juvenile readers. The object of those who have the paper in charge is to provide for boys and girls from the age of six to sixteen a weekly treat in the way of entertaining stories, poems, historical sketches, and other attractive reading matter, with profuse and beautiful illustrations, and at the same time to make its spirit and influence harmonize with the moral atmosphere which pervades every cultivated Christian household. This important design they endeavor to carry out by combining the best literary and artistic talent, so that fiction shall appear in bright and innocent colors, sober facts assume such a holiday dress as to be no longer dry or dull, and mental exercise, in the solution of puzzles, problems, and other devices, become a delight.
