WINTRY BLASTS ARE SPECIALLY FRUIT-FUL of coughs and colds. Children who romp out of doors during the cold season are very subject to them, and no household where there are children should be unprovided with an effectual safeguard against lung disease. Such a one is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophites of Lime and Soda, a preparation in which the former ingredient possesses the utmost purity, and where its well-known pulmonic properties are increased by the admixture of the lime and soda salts. Of these the basis is phosphorus, an essential consti- of Rev. D. W. Crandall, was baptized in tuent of the brain, the muscles and the blood, and long recognized by physicians as a strengthening and fortifying agent of surpassing efficacy. The waste of bodily tissue consequent upon lung, chest, and threat complaints is promptly checked by this time-honored remedy, and the irritation of the breathing organs arrested and overcome by it. The article has been pronounced by physicians the best preparation of its class, and this professional verdict has found an echo in the grateful acknowledgements of many who, despairing of aid from any source, have nevertheless sought and found relief from it. Persons whose chest and lungs are weak should use it as a preventive. Asthma, coughs, colds, spitting of blood, bronchitis and laryngitis are promptly remedied by it, and it also possesses properties as a blood purifier very manifest in various types of scrofula. Prepared only by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Canada.

Deaths.

At Bloomington, Nictaux, Feb. 23rd, Sister Mary Ann Jefferson, aged 62 years. Sister Jefferson united with the church over forty-two years ago. She was bap-tized by Elder I. E. Bill. When the message came for her to meet her judge she was ready and willing. Death had no sting, the grave had no terror; Christ her Redeemer gave her the victory. - W. J.B.

At Kennetcook, Hants Co., Sarah, wife of William Dill, aged 68 years. Our sister united with the Newport Baptist Church about 20 years ago, of which she remained a consistent member until her death. Having been born blind she never was permitted to look upon this beautiful world in which she so long lived, nor to see the faces of those among whom she so long dwelt; but, her faith having turned to sight, she now sees "the King in his beauty," and beholds "the land that is very far off." At her funeral a sermon was preached by the writer from York. Hand book about Patents sent A. H. W.

On the 2nd of February, in the city of Philadelphia, of consumption, James A. Parker, son of Geo. S. and Abby Parker, of Liverpool, N.S. His body was brought home for interment, and was buried in the Baptist burial ground, with Masonic henors, on Sunday, the 5th inst., a large number of the fraternity of which deceased was a member being in attendance. Ten years ago he willing to make herself generally useful left Liverpool with his young bride to preferred. Will be treated as a member take up his residence in the city of Philadelphia, where he continued to reside until his death. He leaves a widow and four children. A little less than two years ago a younger brother, Edwin C. Parker, died in the same city and of the same disease. His remains also were brought home for burial. Two sisters, also cut down in the bloom of youth by the same destroyer, lie beside their brothers in the family burial ground. We desire to tender our sincerest sympathy to our friends who have been called to suffer these repeated strokes.

At Westport, Digby Co., Feb. 23rd, Mrs. Lucy McDorman, in the 85th year of her age. This dear sister was one of the oldest members of the church at Westport, having been born again in early life she united with the people of God when there were but few in this community " who thought upon His name." Her life and conversation were such as become the gospel. Herclosing days, though marked by intense suffering, were brightened by the glorious gospel of God's grace, which had been her comfort and support through much domestic affliction. Of her ten children only three survive her. She leaves a large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren, whose loss is her gain. Her funeral was attended by a large number of sorrowing and sympathizing friends. Sermon by the pastor from Psalm xlviii. 14, "This God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death." A. E. I. At Dartmouth, March 6th, John V.

Just Published At Summerville, Hants Co., on the 18th of January, Annie M., daughter of Levi and Jane Burgess, aged 20 years and 2 months. Our sister was converted at the age of fourteen, and baptized by Rev. G. A. Weathers, united with the Baptist church at Kempt. Her pious mother early taught her to love the Lord, and her walk was "close with God." On reading one of Miss Hammond's letters, in which COPY BOOKS. was an appeal for aid in the Foreign Mission work, she said to her mother, "Cannot I do something? I will try." She made what she called her Silver Mis-A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF AMERICA."

ST. NICHOLAS.

This illustrated magazine for young folks has now attained a circulation larger, probably, than that of any other monthly magazine of its class. It has been called "a marvel of perfection, both as regards its literary excellence and its artistic merit." It was the first to give to boys and girls the very best illustrations that could be had, and has earned the name of " The Children's Art Magazine." The greatest living writers of Europ and America are among its Distinguished Contributors

Charles Dudley Warner, Henry W Longfellow, John G. Whittier, H. H. Boyesen, Saxe Holm, Bret Harte, Gail Hamilton, Thomas Hughes, Louisa M. Alcott, Donald G.
