

cause of others doing unlawful acts. The court held that the police had arrested and the magistrates had committed the wrong parties, that no disposition of others to interfere with a lawful act can render that act unlawful, so the appeal was sustained and the order of the magistrates was set aside with costs.

weak, it shall suffice to pour water upon it, saying the aforesaid words, &c. Then again, the same thing is repeated in the Rubric, for the Public Baptism of such as are of Riper years—"and then shall dip him in the water, or pour water upon him" &c. Will your friend please give us the reason why the Priest is instructed to dip the persons in water. That of course has nothing to do with the mode, and sprinkling upon or pouring upon are only to be allowed by a certificate that the child is not able to endure it.

The Catholic Apostolic Church.

Revs. E. B. Smith and C. A. Brigham, representatives of this body, are in this city, and have been holding public meetings. According to their accounts the history of the organization with the above imposing title dates from the year 1835, about which time special manifestations of the Divine Spirit were received by persons in various parts of Great Britain, and upon coming together they organized by the appointment of twelve apostles, whom it was regarded were specially endowed with miraculous powers and called to restore the primitive construction of the Christian church.

WAR.

Latest telegrams announce that the complications in Egypt have been brought to an issue, and that the bombardment of the fortifications around Alexandria was commenced at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The immediate cause of hostilities was the construction of some earthworks by Arabi Pacha which Admiral Seymour alleged was a menace to the English fleet, and he demanded that the work should be stopped—which Arabi refused to do.

It is useless to speculate now upon the results of this conflict. It is well for us however to remember that "the Lord reigns," and that the nations of the earth are in His hands, and we must believe that He will guide and control the events to some good end and all for His glory.

P. E. Island has some strong advocates of the Scott Act. At a public tea meeting held at Hunter River, last Saturday, it was discovered that some persons were present who were under the influence of something stronger than tea.

Cramps and pains in the stomach or bowels, or in any part of the body, no matter how severe or what the cause, can be relieved by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment used internally and externally.

More than twenty years ago we had chills and fever, and the recollection of it makes us shiver even now. But this disease no longer terrifies us. Parson's Purgative Pills are a sure preventive.

The horrors of war are nothing to the horrors of Neuralgia. Immediate relief may be had by bathing the head with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment and snuffing it up the nostrils.

Parson's Purgative Pills are a priceless boon to the people of the South and South-west. They effectually prevent fever and ague and all malarious diseases, and cost only 25 cents a box.

The time never has been and never will be when the people of this or any other country can buy a gold dollar for seventy five cents. Neither can you, dear reader, purchase an organ worth three or four hundred dollars for $60. This is all nonsense. Still we have no objection to other people doing their business just as they see fit. We are selling a good, honest made Piano at from $185 to $275, and a good, honest Organ (not all stops) for from $48 to $475.

As a satire upon the present system of education in Texas, the Galveston News publishes the following conversation: "How is your son coming on?" "Oh, I am having a power of trouble with him." "What's the matter now?" "Well, you know, I couldn't send him to school, because, thanks to Governor Roberts, there are no free schools, and I could not afford to send him to a private school. So I sent him away from Galveston out to the frontier, and, as luck would have it, he was convicted of horse-stealing, and got five years in the penitentiary."
