News of the World.

THE WAR IN EGYPT .- The movements of the British Army on Friday and Saturday, indicated an early engagement, which it was supposed would be decisive. A general move to the front was ordered. The forces at Kassassin Lock, on Saturday were 15,000 men, with 50 guns. Only one correspondent at the front was allowed to each newspaper. Each telegram is limited to 500 words.

It is stated that Arabi receives stores by the way of Damietta. It is reported that some Turkish officers have joined the rebel forces via Damietta.

A shell burst in camp at Kassassin, on Friday. The explosion was caused by an Indian soldier building a fire over an unexploded shell. The soldier was blown to pieces.

Another engagement commenced on Saturday morning, at Kassassin. The following is the despatch to the Daily News : " After six o'clock this morning the Bengal Lancers and scouts came up with the news that the enemy was approaching in great force on the North side of the railway. Our army was a once put in motion, and by seven an artillery duel began. Arabi's troops of all arms are spread over the entire ridge and a mile and a half up the line. A train heavily armed has appeared close, to where I stand. Our forty pounder and Krupp guns are placed shelling the enemy's right. There is also a twenty five pounder a few hundred yards off, playing on the same position. We have the enemy's range exactly. One of our shells burst right over the enemy's ranks. The Egyptian artillery have got our distance very well and their shells are dropping steadily into our camp. We have horse artillery extended along the line a half mile in length on the north side of the railway. They are firing rapidly, and at present the Egyptians are slowly retiring. Up to this moment no casualities have occurred. Reinforcements are just coming up from Mahsameh. The Krupp gun recently captured from Arabi sent a shell nearly in front of his train. Our infantry are slowly advancing and the enemy is slowly

The London "Telegraph's" correspondent at Kassassin views Saturday's repulse of Arabi Pasha as a complete success for the English. Arabi left about 200 dead and wounded on the field. The enemy had altogether 15,-000 men. At daybreak Sunday morning the English began to throw up rifle pits around Kassassin in order to prevent Arabi Pasha from approaching near enough to shell their camp. The enemy threw many of their own woundded alive into the Canal. The Foot Guards have arrived at the front. Stores are coming up fast. The Engglish loss during the engagement was 50 wounded and none killed. Heavy cannonading was heard in the direction of Aboukir and Kiout.

The Sultan's proclamation to the Egyptians has been issued. It declares Arabi Pasha a rebel for disobeying orders of the Khedive and of Dervisch Pasha, thereby provoking the intervention of England. It states that the decoration conferred upon Arabi Pasha was bestowed upon Dervisch Pasha in consequence of Arabi Pasha's protestations of fidelity. In conclusion the proclamation expects all Egyytians to obey the Khedive.

The correspondent of the News at Alexandria has obtained from a most reliable source the exact strength of Arabi Pasha's army. The grand total is as follows: Infantry. 44,600; cavalry, 18,000; guns 143; rocket tubes, 18; Bedouins, 30,500.
