THE ELEMENTS OF BONE, BRAIN, AND MUSCLE are derived from the blood, which is the grand natural source of vital energy, the motor of the bedily organs. When the circulation becomes impoverished in consequence of weak digestion and im-perfect assimilation of the food, which should enrich it, every bodily function flags and the system grows feeble and disordered. When the blood becomes impure either from the development of inherited seeds of disease, its contamination by bile, or other causes, serious maladies surely follow. A highly accredited remedy for these evils is NORTHEOP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY AND DYSPEPTIC CURE, which eradicates impurities of the blood and fertilizes it by promoting digestion and assimilation. Moreover, this fine alterative and stomachic exerts a specific action upon the liver, healthfully stimulating that organ and expelling from the system the acrid The wrapper bears a FAC-SIMILE of their signature. Marriages.

At Wolfville, May 31st, by Rev. S. W. deBlois, D. D., Rev. Maynard W. Brewn, A. B., of New Germany, Lunenburg Co., to Lucy A., daughter of Nelson Strong, Esq., of Somerset, Kings Co.

At Bear River, on the 31st ult., by the Rev. J. A. McLean, Mr. Burpe R. Balcom, of Paradise, Annapolis Co., to Mrs. Mary R. Rice, of the former place.

At Woodland, California, May 24th, by Elder Porter, E. B. McCabe, of Musquodoboit, N. S., to Mattie A. Jeans. At the Parsonage, Kingston, June 3rd. by Rev. F. Beattie, Mr. John W. C. Slocumb, of Middleton, to Miss Effie Bowers, of Kingston.

Deaths.

At Port Hawkesbury, on the morning of the 6th ult., Janet, wife of Mr. Thes. Heughen, peacefully fell asleep in Jesus, aged 28 years. She was a kind friend, a faithful wife, and one who always took an active part in the work connected with the church. Although she had never made a public profession of religion, there is reason to believe that she had been a Christian for some years. Her presence will be greatly missed in the church and in the community, but most of all in her home. She had a strong assurance of TOGRAPHS OF of entering upon the rest that remains for the people of God. Calmly she bade her friends "good-bye," requesting them to meet her in heaven. When the hope was expressed by the writer that she might yet be spared to us for many years, she confidently exclaimed, "How can I stay when God wants me?" She will join no more in the service of song in God's earthly sanctuary, but we believe she has joined the choir of the redeemed who shall ever sing praises to Him "who has loved them and given Himself for them."

George H. Dimock, of Berwick, aged 59 years, son of the late Rev. Geo. Dimock, of precious memory, died on the 7th of May, of inflamation of the lungs, leaving a wife and three sons, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Bro. D. He was a true Christian and friend. His city.

May God grant his special grace to all the sorrowing ones and bring us all to the land where the inhabitants never die, is the sincere prayer of yours &c. is the sincere prayer of, yours, &c.
J. C. BLEAKNEY.

At Williamsdale, May 24th, Cumberland Co., Gilbert Purdy, aged 85 years. Our Brother was baptized in the year, 1852, at Greenville, by Rev. Obed Chute. He was a very consistent earnest Christian, and was always ready to bear testimony to the truth. He was so well satisfied with ordinances, practices and doctrines of the denomination which he was identified that he longed to see his friends saiov by obedience, what it was his raise. enjoy by obedience, what it was his priv-flege to possess. His house was a home for many a servant of God. He was followed to the grave by a large congrega-tion, and has left nine children to mourn the loss of a kind affectionate father.

GEO. F. MILES. Very suddenly, at Lockeport, 18th May, Henry Chadsey, eldest surviving son of Deacon Joshua and Maria Chadsey, in the 19th year of his age. On 3rd inst., Katie, eldest daughter of Rev. John and Maggie Murray, Sydney, C. B., aged 6 years.

Con Friday, June 2nd, Michael Ellis, aged 79 years. On the 27th April, Caroline, widow of the late William Caldwell, of New Cornwall, aged 67 years. Deceased was the daughter of the late Thomas C. Hallamore. Of an amiable disposition, she was a kind friend, an obliging neighbour and Christian woman. She leaves two sons and two daughters and a large circle of friends to mourn her departure.

At Port Medway, May 23rd, after a long and painful sickness, Mary E. Atkins, aged 28 years, leaving an affectionate husband, one son, and numerous relatives and friends to unite with our Zion in mourning our heavy loss. Her sufferings were borne without a single murmur, and her end was as when a Christian falls
