At Port Greville, Cumberland Co., Dec. 18th, Zechariah Tibbetts, aged 58 years. Mr. T. was baptized by the Rev. J. F. Kempton about four years ago. He had made a profession of faith in Christ for some time, and at quite a sacrifice yielded to the New Testament ordinance. He was always faithful to the best of his ability, and was willing to attempt for the Master, even beyond the best. Though he had many warnings of the approach of death, yet the summons came unex-pectedly. His loss will be especially felt by the struggling Baptist interest at the Port. May the good Shepherd sustain the sorrowing family and raise up others to make good his place in the church.-COM. BY REV. A. FREEMAN.

At Yarmouth, Nov. 29th, of diphtheria, Dora Marion, only child of George G. and Fannie F. Sanderson.

Dec. 8th, at Granville, Annapolis, Lizzie Weatherspoon, youngest daughter of J. Bath and Susan A. Troop, aged 26 years. At Blue Mountain, Nov. 8th, of diphtheria, Mr. Thomas Jarvis, aged 35 years, leaving a wife and four little children, and many friends to mourn their loss. Four children of Samuel Ruggles of Springfield, have died in a few days from diphtheria, Dec. 13th, Minnie, aged 2 years and 2 months; on Dec. 18th, Guilford, in the 11th year of his age; on the same day, Fremont, aged 12; on Dec. 22nd, Annie, aged 7 years. May God support our brother and sister in this severe affliction.-W. J. B. Manufacture those CELEBRATED CHIMES AND BELLS for CHURCHES, ACADEM-IES, &c. Price list and Circulars sent

At Lake George, Mr. Henry Durkee, free. in his 72nd year. He was baptized by the Rev. Henry Saunders about 32 years ago, and united with the Lake George Church at that time, and has walked as a consistent member until his death. His strength and confidence until the last, was in his Redeemer. He leaves a sorrowing widow, seven children and a large number of grandchildren. His children have all professed faith in the Redeemer, and unite with their mother in the hope of meeting him again.

At Chookston, on Friday, Nov. 3rd of typhpid fever, Mrs. Robert Chambers, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Robert Channel of aged 25 years. At a very early time of life she experienced religion and was baptized into the fellowship of the Bap-baptized into the fellowship of the Bap-Hants Co., N. S., and was still a member at the time of her death. She became the wife of Robert Chambers in February. 1878, whom she joined here in July last, he having been a resident of Crookston, and the west for more than two years. Thus only for a few short months was the happy union enjoyed. She has gone to her reward. He is left to mourn a great loss. She was a Christian woman, who needed only to be known to be respected and loved, and will be missed as much as an old resident. Her husband is gradually recovering from a long sick! ness; this affliction is a very heavy blow, and he is yet very feeble. At Seal Harbor, Dec. 13th, Susan Ann, beloved wife of Mr. Charles Crooks, in the 48th year of her age. Susan Ann Lathern was born at Sable River, Shelburne Co., in March, 1835. In early life she removed to Isaac Harbor, Guysboro' Co. A few vears afterward returning to her native place, she gave her heart to Jesus and was baptized by the late Rev. Wm. Hobbs. In 1857 being united in marriage to Mr. Charles Crooks, of Seal Harbor, Guysboro' Co., our sister removed her membership to the struggling little church in that place, where for 25 years she exercised an influence for good which will descend to children's children. Ministers whose duties called them along this shore will, with gratitude, remem-ber the hospitality of this Christian woman. Never did they approach her door too late, nor find her too weary to attend to their wants. When the children came one by one to receive the mother's dying charge, next to yielding their hearts to Christ, they were enjoined to treat his ministers with due respect and care. Because a faithful Christian, our sister was faithful in all other relations of life. Death was not unexpected. It came on Dec. 13th, 1882. And she triumphed in death as she had every day of her Christian life,—by "simply trusting, that is all." "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Husband, six children and many others mourn their loss.--L. M.W. On the 27th ult., at Montreal, Canada, Sarah A. Johnson, daughter of Robert Mills, Esq., of Granville Ferry. Dec. 29th, at Albany, Annapolis Co., William Wallace, son of George Gates, aged 18 years. Dec. 22nd, at Aylesford, Mrs. George
