Deaths.

At Little Bras d'Or, after a short illness, March 28th, Mrs. Annie Agnes, widow of the late John Stubbert, departed this life, aged 77 years and 7 months. She was a native of Cape Breton, born at Sydney Mines, August 11th, 1805. She experienced religion in early life, under the preaching of Rev. Hezekiah Hull, and was baptized by Rev. William Burton. Shortly after, she united with the North Sydney Baptist Church, of which she remained a consistent member until her death. For fifty-two years she was a faithful follower of her Saviour whom she loved, trusted and delighted to honor. Twenty one years ago she was called to mourn the loss of faithful, loving Christian husband. For about forty years they lived together in the bonds of Christian love, enjoying that happiness which is the peculiar portion of those who truly love God. They strove together to train up their large family of fourteen children in the love and fear of the Lord. Mrs. Stubbert leaves nine sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. They have the comforting assurance that their loss is her eternal gain. She bore her last illness with patient resignation to the divine will, and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. Her funeral was attended from her late residence, March 28th. The Rev.
