A SECRET FOR THE LADIES.—The great secret of beauty is pure blood. Eruptions and blotches that disfigure the face, may be quickly cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. Annie Heath, of Portland, certifies that she was cured by this remedy, after suffering for two years.

KIDNEY DISEASE.—Pain, Irritation, Retention, Incontinence, Deposits, Gravel, &c., cured by "Buchupaiba."

POPULARITY.—Why they are popular. The reason that National Pills are so universally popular is because they are certain in their action, mild and painless in their operation, and never leave the bowels constipated. They are sugar-coated, and contain no mineral poison.

THIS IS RELIABLE.—R. N. Wheeler, merchant, of Everton, was cured of a severe attack of inflammation of the lung by Hagar's Pectoral Balsam. This great throat and lung healer cures weak lungs, coughs, hoarseness, bronchitis, and all Pectoral complaints.

Hanchett & Carter, proprietors of the great 12th Street Livery, Chicago, in a letter dated Dec. 5, 1879, speak thus of Kendall's Spavin Cure: "It is several years since we bought the first of you, and we do not hesitate to say it is the very best article for spavins, ringbones, scratches, splints, etc., that we ever used. We would not be without it in our large livery for thousands of dollars. We pronounce it one of the greatest discoveries of the age. It stands without a peer in horse liniments." See advt.

A singular circumstance occurred at the Baptist chapel, Narbeth in Wales, a week or two since. A meeting was being held in connection with the Baptist total Abstinence Association. The Rev. W. L. Lang, addressed the assembly, at the close of which the pastor, the Rev. B. Thomas, who presided, called upon a member of the Wesleyan body, a well-known local preacher, who was present, to address the meeting. The latter, in the course of his speech, said that if he were a member of that church he would allow himself or others no rest until there was a Band of Hope in connection with the church. Mr. Thomas suggested that he could never be nearer than he was then of being a member, seeing that he was then standing over the baptistry. Referring to the appeal of the Rev. W. L. Lang, and a remarkable case of personal devotion and self-sacrifice cited by him, the Wesleyan offered that if the pastor would sign the pledge he would be immersed. The pastor then coolly signed the pledge amid the plaudits of a large audience. It then transpired that the pastor had for some time meditated the step, as had the Wesleyan that of baptism. The pastor's example was followed by about forty members of his congregation, and a second meeting was held in the British School-room on the following evening, when the pastor again presided. In addition to the Rev. W. L. Lang, the Rev. I. John, Congregational minister, of Templeton, took part in the meeting, at the close of which forty more signatures were taken. On the following Sunday, the Wesleyan friend was baptized by the pastor, after making a full statement from the baptistry. The chapel was crowded to excess.

Truth sanctifies the life by keeping us away from evil. That is a low idea which seeks only freedom from the consequence of sin, either here or hereafter. That is not the salvation Christ seeks to give. It is rather salvation from sinning. It is that upbuilding in the power of purity which shuts out temptation. It is protection against evil. When the heart finds such a shelter in the sanctifying power of truth, it has no cause for fear. It will abide in peace while it abides thus surrounded by truth. Christ did not pray that we might be taken out of the world, but that we might be kept from the evil in the world. "Sanctify them through thy truth."

He is the most practical politician who shows his fellow-citizen, as the wise old sailor told his shipmates, that "God has somehow fixed the world that a man can afford to do about right." —George W. Curtis.

Hope is like the sun, which, as we journey towards it, casts the shadow of our burden behind us. —Samuel Smiles.

A loving confidence in the God we have offended is the key to His heart, the key which unlocks the treasury of His grace. —Dr. E. M. Goulburn.

Miscellaneous. Christianity insists, first of all, on a real faith. Whatever else it has or lacks, the soul, to be saved, must obey an honest purpose. It must believe with the affections heartily. With the heart man believeth unto salvation before confession is made with the mouth.

The New York Independent tells us:—"Mr. Van Meter is very unfortunate. He gave up his mission at Rome, 'under the very eyes of the Pope,' to accept once more the superintendency of the Five Points Mission in this city. He has been here only about a year, when he finds that he is not as pleasantly situated as he would like, and he proposes to go back again to Rome, and he has a committee appointed to collect and receive funds for him. But the regular Baptist missionary organizations fight shy of him and have nothing to do with him. Dr. Samson, however, who has the faculty of easy faith, takes him up."

Just before the trial it was said Arab's guard are anxious about their prisoner and watch him for fear of suicide, though that is unlikely with a Moslem. He has sunk into a profound sadness, speaks only when strongly urged, and looks out aimlessly at the walls of the little back yard which is his only prospect, thinking perhaps of Tel-el-Kebr the impregnable, and that ride for life on horseback. His malady of body may increase his despondency of mind, but at present his condition is that of a profoundly hopeless and spiritless man.

CORRECTION.—Dear Brother, Will you kindly make a correction in the sketch published last week. Instead of "In May, 1869" Dr. Day, after having labored with the church for over a year, formally accepted a call to the pastorate. It should have been, "In April, 1868, Dr. Day, after having labored with the church for three months, accepted a call to the pastorate."

Yours truly, C. GOODSPEED.

THE PRESBYTERIAN WITNESS in its last issue had a word for "Buds & Blossoms." It is a good family magazine.

A Baptist Minister writes: "Buds & Blossoms is nearly perfect in get up, the quantity and price is also a great temptation and surprise. If known it must gain subscribers."

DEAR SIRS:—"I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorbent Pads and Plasters. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh. READ PROOF BELOW.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Fremont, Ohio, Jan. 25th, 1881.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for benefits and profits which I have derived from your invaluable and far famed Spavin Cure. My cousin and I had a valuable stallion worth $4000 which had a very bad spavin, and was pronounced by four eminent Veterinary Surgeons beyond any cure, and that the horse was done forever. As a last resort I advised my cousin to try a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. It had a magical effect, the third bottle cured it and the horse is as well as ever. Dr. Dick of Edinburgh, the eminent veterinary surgeon was an uncle of mine, and I take great interest in assisting his profession.

Yours truly, JAMES A. WILSON, Civil Engineer.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

West Enosburgh, Vt., Feb. 15th, 1881.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—Several months ago I injured my knee joint which caused an enlargement to grow the size of a large walnut and caused me very severe pain all the time for four or five weeks, when I began to use Kendall's Spavin Cure with the most satisfactory results. It has completely removed the enlargement and stopped the lameness and pain. I have long known it to be excellent for horses, but now I know it to be the best liniment for human flesh that I am acquainted with.

Yours truly, T. P. LAWRENCE.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

Is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargements, such as spavin splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings and any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or for rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for best as well as man.
