Peaths.

Mr. James Ford, of Milton, Queens Co., departed this life March 18th, 1883, in the 73rd year of his pilgrimage. This esteemed brother was a living epistle, known and read of all. He was baptized by Elder N. Vidito in 1842, and united with the church in this place, and was chosen deacon in 1863, which office he filled until his Saviour called him up higher. He lived in the affections of his brethren-and possessing an excellent gift in prayer and exhortation, he is very much missed in the meetings of the church. His health had been somewhat impaired yet he continued to attend his secular affairs until a few weeks before was not disappointed—he rests from his labours and his works they follow him, the large gathering at his funeral shewed the esteem in which he was held by the community. The Rev. Mr. Johnson, Congregationalist, and the Rev. J. W. mourning children. P. F. MURRAY.

At Port Medway, on the 16th ult., Carmen Marshall, son of John and Luzelle Beach, aged 8 months.

At Habitant, Cornwallis, April 27th, Mrs. Charlotte West, aged 86 years. Her end was peace.

At Pereaux, April 30, Charles Rufus, son of William F. and Drusilla Comstock, aged 19 years.

At the Ride, Wolfville, on the 26th ult., Keziah, widow of the late Jason Forsyth. At Beaver River, March 28th, of Gastric fever, Nora M., beloved daughter of Mrs. Augusta Perry, aged 11 years.

At Meadowvale, on the 27th Feb., the beloved wife of Deacon Jacob Neily, aged 67 years, she professed religion in the great revival of 1829, and for more than Silk Ribbons, Scarves, C half a century, has continued to be a bright and shining light in the family, in the neighborhood, and in the family, in the neighborhood, and in the church of God. She had a well balanced mind, and lived for both worlds, diligent in all the duties of this life, yet fervent in spirit. Like Anna of old she served God day and night. Her protracted illness was accompanied with much suffering, which she bore with great patience, fully realizing that it would be short, and work out for her an eternal weight of glory. Farewell blessed saint, you are not dead, only gone before, yet in heaven we hope to greet you. N. VIDITO. On the 21st April, Mrs. William Redden,

On the 29th April, Mrs. Thos. Fisher, of Upper Stewiacke, aged 72.
