

As intimated in a recent issue of the MESSENGER a strong effort is being made by the Board of Governors to wipe out the present indebtedness of Acadia College, before the meeting of Convention. This debt consists, we understand of some $85,000—mortgage on buildings $28,000, and current expense account, &c., $7,000. At a recent meeting of the Board a Committee was appointed whose agents are now in the field soliciting pledges. All ready, we understand, a large portion of the amount required has been subscribed, and it is confidently expected that the whole amount will be raised within the time limited. We publish on our first page an appeal just issued by the Committee. The facts and figures speak for themselves, and speak loudly to every friend of Acadia.

Misled.
Dear Editor,
Having seen an article in the MESSENGER of the 20th inst., bearing my name with Revs. David MacKeen, E. C. Corey, and others, reflecting on Rev. D. G. MacDonald and his work in Sackville, permit me to say, through your paper, that the letter contains statements of which I was not aware when I subscribed my name to it. Permit me also hereby to express my confidence in Brother MacDonald as a Christian man and minister, and my full sympathy with his work in Sackville.
Yours, &c.,
D. S. CARPENTER.

A MARVELLOUS DUKE EGG.—Mr. D. B. Dimock, Urbana, Hants Co., writes:—"The other day my wife brought in a duck egg of such a size that I was struck with astonishment. I measured it around lengthwise and found it eleven inches, and around the girth eight and five-eighths inches. When broken and poured out there was another egg of an ordinary size inside all shelled over. Both shells are laid up, and can be seen at any time."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, the 23rd inst., a most horrifying accident (of which you have heard) occurred in this village, by which the eldest son of Alexander Wilson, Esq., Warden of the County, and grandson of the late Hon. H. G. Pineo, was killed. The heartrending event occurred in the following manner. The writer had just arrived in the town on business, and had passed Mr. Wilson's house on foot when he met the dear boy on his pony. He very politely bowed, and said "Good morning, Doctor." "I replied, "Good morning son, are you taking a ride this delightful morning?" "Yes drilling my pony, and taking some exercise," and as he passed me, I turned and admired the manner in which the manly little fellow was managing his pony, and said to myself "His parents ought to be proud of him, for there is the making of a bright man." I then walked along the road to where my son and nephew were hanging a gate, and a few moments later Mr. John Nicholson and Mr. Jimmeson from the Gulf passed with a double team and about one hundred yards from us met the dear lad returning. The pony at the time walking quite slowly, as he came near the team Mr. Nicholson stopped his horses seeing that he appeared somewhat restive, and in answer to some remarks made by the men, as to the necessity for his taking care that the pony did not throw him, he replied "Yes this would be a bad place to be thrown." Those were his last words for the next moment the brute kicked up forcing the dear boy's foot into the stirrup and then throwing him over his head he came madly dashing down the hill, the little fellow's left foot being fast in the stirrup.

The writer has witnessed many heart-rending scenes, but nothing so dreadful as the sight of that beast coming madly down the road with all the terrible consequences such a state of affairs would produce. Knowing too well the fatal results that would follow he was fixed to the ground with terror. My son was so overpowered with the sight that like myself he could not move but Mr. Harry Clay sprang forward and seized the reins of the horse and caused the horse for a moment to swerve, and then the little bruised and dust covered body fell helpless on the grass at my side; and may God preserve your readers from such a task as the witnessing such a scene and the carrying such tidings to fond and loving parents. All the medical skill in the village was soon on hand, to render all the aid in their power, but it was of no avail, his Spirit had gone to God who gave it. He was a most promising lad in his eleventh year, and his sudden and melancholy death has cast a deep gloom over all the village, for he was beloved by all who knew him, and the whole community have shown the most intense sympathy with the sorrow-stricken parents in their irreparable affliction.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McKensie, Presbyterian, at the house, and by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Episcopalian, at the cemetery.
Yours very truly,
EDWIN CLAY, M. D.

The Rev. J. C. Edgell, formerly military chaplain in Halifax, has recently given an interesting statement of his having become a total abstainer while he lived here, in consequence of a soldier having been discovered dead outside of the Garrison Church occasioned by drink. He had never regretted the step he had taken which was twenty years ago.

POPULARITY.—Why they are popular. The reason that National Pills are so universally popular is because they are certain in their action, mild and painless in their operation, and never leave the bowels constipated. They are sugar-coated and contain no mineral poison.

On Thursday last a party, residents of FreeTown, consisting of about thirty-three persons, were enjoying themselves at a pleasure picnic at Barbara Weir, and, after a luncheon, eight of them went out sailing in a small flat boat, which capsized as soon as they reached deep water, and precipitated them into the river. Two of them a son of Mr. Arbing and a daughter of Mr. Charles Reeves, clung to the boat and were afterwards rescued in an almost lifeless condition, but have since revived. All the others sank to the bottom to rise no more. They were David Reeves and his sister, son and daughter of Charles Reeves; a daughter and daughter-in-law of Mr. Arbing, Sr.; Miss George, daughter of James George, and Miss Drummond, daughter of James Drummond.

A WONDERFUL CHANGE.—Rev. W. E. Gifford, while pastor of M. E. Church, Bothwell, suffered from chronic dyspepsia so badly as to render life almost a burden. Three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.
No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs none so trifling with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 67 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
HOBACK FAIRBROTHER,
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. It was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY,
159 West 123rd St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.
"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."
JOSEPH WALKER,
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
E. BRADGON,
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.
No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
