EARS FOR THE MILLION!

Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil. Positively Restores the Hearing, and is the only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small WHITE SHARK, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as CARHARODON RONDELETTI. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous, and many so SEEMINGLY MIRACULOUS, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for OVER 300 YEARS NO DEAFNESS HAS EXISTED AMONG THE CHINESE PEOPLE. Sent charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

HEAR WHAT THE DEAF SAY! It has performed a miracle in my case. I have no unearthy noises in my head and hear much better. I have been greatly benefited. My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me.

"Its virtues are UNQUESTIONABLE and its CURATIVE CHARACTER ABSOLUTE, AS THE WRITER CAN PERSONALLY TESTIFY, BOTH FROM EXPERIENCE AND OBSERVATION. Write at once to HAYLOCK & JENNEY, 7 Dey St., New York, enclosing $1.00, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so."—EDITOR OF MERCANTILE REVIEW.

Deaths.

At Folly Village, Londonderry, Feb. 24th, Margaret, relict of the late Thos. Delaney, and daughter of the late John Weir, Esq., of Debert. She departed this life after a long illness. For complete particulars apply to the member of the Upper Londonderry Baptist Church. She held firmly to her own religious convictions, and yet cherished heart-felt affection for the people of God of every name. She ever bore with her the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, and commended the Christian life to all with whom she associated. She suffered much during the last years of her life, but without a murmur. Jesus was to her a reality—very near and all sufficient. It was the wish of our sister that nothing be said respecting her except that she trusted in Jesus the Author and finisher of her faith; and yet the writer felt that he could not well do less than add this tribute to the memory of one so worthy. She leaves two daughters and one son, Dr. Delaney of Halifax. The Rev. W. C. Dimock, her former pastor, and by whom she had been baptized, delivered a funeral address before a large and sympathizing audience from 1 Pet. 1. 7-9. From the "News" and "Courier."

In Santa Cruz, California, Feb. 3rd, 1883, Mrs. Aggie Ogilvie Webber, wife of Henry B. Webber, and niece of John Bruce, Esq., of this city. One short year ago Mrs. Webber was married at the residence of her uncle, Mr. Bruce, and left immediately for her California home. She left many friends in Boulder and in the country where she had taught school. Being of a naturally cheerful disposition, affectionate, charitable, just, she won for herself many friends. To those in sorrow or sickness Mrs. Webber was a specially kind friend. Her recent pastor in the letter announcing her death says: "A more beautiful character I never met. When told that she must die it was then permitted to us to witness such a triumph of the Christian over death as is seldom seen." To us who knew and loved her a great sorrow has come. To the lonely husband, parents and sisters, a great desolation. But knowing God only doeth well, we wait, knowing her to be at rest. Mrs. Webber leaves a baby boy four days old. E. A. P. O. At Debert River, Feb. 23rd, Mr. David Slack, aged 82 years.

At Lower Economy, Oct. 5th, 1882, after a long and severe illness, Mary Melissa, beloved wife of Charles W. McLellan. Sister McLellan was converted in connection with the Methodist body, being brought to Christ under the ministry of the Rev. John Reed, who labored at Five Islands at the time. She lived in connection with that society, of which she was a very worthy member for some time. After her marriage with Mr. McLellan, who lived close by the Baptist meeting house, she became identified with Baptist int-rests. Ministers, and Christian friends enjoyed her hospitality and cordial welcome which she extended to them. She was most deeply interested in the Sabbath School, and accepted her labors there in the conversion of the members of her class. She became impressed that she had not done her duty in reference to baptism, and that there was a "more excellent way" than she had as yet observed. She was baptized on the 22nd of Aug., 1875, by the writer—who was then pastor. Four of her Sabbath School class were baptized with her. Others of her class have been converted since, through her instrumental-ity. She often spoke of her baptism, and how much she enjoyed religion, after she was obedient. She bore her affliction with Christian fortitude and submission. She would say to her husband "I feel that the end will soon come." By whose trust is in Jesus, for I know He died for me," and then her countenance would brighten as though she was enjoying the sweetness of the better land. Thus lived and died this truly Christian woman, at the early age of 37. Through her whole Christian course she looked not back. May God abundantly comfort the afflicted husband and his sorrowing and aged parents.

Mrs. Webber was baptized by Rev. Alfred Chipman in the year 1865, and united with the Little River Baptist Church. Though her death was unexpected to us all, yet we cannot regret such a triumphant victory. May God grant us all such a triumph over the last enemy.

About five years before her death she professed faith in Christ and was received into the fellowship of the Baptist Church here, her adorning was that of a meek and quiet spirit.

At Lower Economy, Nov. 22nd, Samuel McLellan, leaving a wife and an only son. He was an esteemed member of the Baptist Church of Lower Economy.

At Providence, R. I., Dec. 15th, 1882, Evaline March, daughter of John and Elizabeth March, aged 26 years. She was baptized by Rev. A. B. Ingram with a number of others, and received into the Baptist Church of Lower Economy, during the first year of his labour with this church; and ever adorned her profession. Her body was brought home, and buried in the new burying ground at Five Islands on Christmas Day, her birthday.

DEAR SIRS:—"I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorbent Pads and Plasters.
