THE NEW VICE-ROYALTY.—The following is a full list of the vice Regal party, who occupied all the staterooms on the port side of the Circassian coming out: The Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne.

The Earl of Kerry, their eldest son. Lord Charles Fitzmaurice, the Ladies Evelyn and Beatrice Fitzmaurice, their youngest children, governess, and their tutor, Mr. A. J. Gilpin.

Lady Florence Anson. Hon. Henry Anson and Mr. H. Streetfield, aides-de-camp. Sixteen in all, with servants.

Lord Kerry and Lord Charles Fitzmaurice are very nice boys, about 10 and 11 respectively. Lord and Lady Lansdowne have charming manners and are exceedingly pleasant.

Lord Lansdowne is about five feet nine inches in height, very slight and dark with pointed features. The children very much resemble him. Lady Lansdowne is also slight and graceful in appearance, with a most pleasant expression. She is an excellent musician and with Lady Florence and her son, and Mr. Gilpin, gave much pleasure to the passengers during the voyage.

Quebec had a brilliant gathering to meet the new Governor-General. The following picture is given of the swearing in of His Excellency. On landing they were received by a guard of honor from "A" Battery, under the command of Capt. Drury. A brilliant staff, headed by General Luard, were also present to receive the party. The escort was furnished by the Queen's Own Canadian Hussars, under command of Lieut. Colonel F. W. Gray. Lord Lansdowne drove up from the Queen's Wharf in an open carriage, and was frequently applauded by the crowd along the streets. He wore the Governor-General's uniform.

Lady Lansdowne sat beside her husband in the carriage, and following them were Lord Melgard, Military Secretary, and Lady Florence Anson. Her Ladyship wore a rich combination dress of black and red velvet, almost entirely concealed beneath an elaborate dolman of figured black satin. On arrival at the departmental buildings, the new Vice-Regal party was received by a guard of honor of the Garrison Artillery. Lord and Lady Lansdowne entered the buildings at the St. Eustache Street entrance preceded by the members of their staff, and took the places assigned for them on the right of the throne. Lord Lorne, who had been waiting some little time, stepped on to the dais in front of the throne to receive the distinguished party. As he did so they made their feet, remaining so through the ceremony, which passed off without any unusual event. During the ceremony the library of the Government Buildings was filled with the brilliant assemblage. The walls were hung with bunting and the throne covered with crimson cloth and surmounted by a canopy. Behind the single seat placed upon the dais were the crests and mottoes of the Lorne and Lansdowne families. In the centre of the room was placed a long table at which there sat the Federal Cabinet Ministers, all being in Windsor gold lace uniforms with the exception of Hon. John Carling and Hon. Frank Smith.

At the front of the table sat John J. McGehe, Esq., Clerk of the Privy Council, having the great seal of the Dominion of Canada and the Bible to be used on the inaugural ceremony. On either side of the dais was placed a row of chairs, those on the right being occupied by Lieut. Governor Robitaille and party, and those on the left by the Judges of the supreme court. Sir Wm. Ritchie, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Judges Henry, Fournier and Gwynne were all present, wearing rich robes of scarlet and ermine. The seats set apart for Senators were occupied by Hon. Senators Masson, Pelletier and Baillargeon. Below the Privy Council were three or four rows of seats, the first of which were occupied by Ministers of the Local Government. Many other gentlemen were present, and a fair sprinkling of ladies, but owing to the limited space the invitations were very select and limited to about one hundred. At the conclusion of the ceremony the party proceeded to Music Hall, when the Corporation address was presented, to which His Excellency replied. They soon afterwards left by special train for Ottawa.

They arrived at Ottawa at 6.30 p. m. A guard of honor, was furnished by the Governor General's Foot Guards and an escort by the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, were in attendance. On alighting from the train three rousing cheers from the numerous crowds present greeted them, showing how warm was the welcome extended by all classes, creeds and nationalities. Their Excellencies were then introduced to Mayor St. Jean and Aldermen, and after a few minutes drove rapidly to Rideau Hall. When the Vice-Regal party arrived at Rideau Hall, the Marchioness was the first to alight, and standing at the main entrance received her liege lord with a kiss as he entered the portals of their new home.

The Parliament grounds and buildings, as well as many private residences and shops, were brilliantly illuminated, and at the entrance to Major's Park there was a display of fireworks.

The Princess Louise has sent her photograph with autograph to the officers of the Ottawa Dragoon Guards, with kindly letters of farewell.

Lord Bury, who was commissioner of Indian Affairs in Canada under Lord Elgin, is at Ottawa, and he says he is astonished at the progress of the country. Forty years ago he came to where Ottawa now is in a canoe. There was nothing but the wildwoods and a few Indian trappers. It is like enchantment to him to look at Ottawa now.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needed for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dizziness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
