Deaths.

At Jordan Bay, Co. Shelburne, April 22nd, 1884, Robbie. infant son of Capt. John and Arabella Thorbourne, aged 91 months.

At Folly Village, Londonderry, April 23rd, Edward Balcom, son of William and Mary J. McElhinney, aged 20 years. His health began to give way early in the winter. Though not apprehending any danger, yet at that time he was led to a serious consideration of the claims of God, and to a humble reliance upon Christ as his Saviour. The hope he was then enabled to entertain never left him. Through his sickness he was raised above all fear, and, while conscious of his sinfulness, he could rest upon the promises. His views of grace were exceedingly clear. His friends cherish in their memory many words descriptive of his views and emotions. Our brother and sister McElhinney have been greatly afflicted in the loss of three promising boys. One in '73, who died at Liverpool, G. B., one a little more than a year ago, and now the third has to be given up to him who only claims His own. Yet they are comforted by the precious hopes and consolations of the Gospel. The loved ones are not lost—only gone before to the better land. There will be happy reunions by and by. M. P. F.

A Mother in Israel has fallen in the wife of Deacon James McKeen, of St. Mary's. Our sister fell asleep in Christ on the 28th April, in the 69th year of her age, leaving a husband and eight children age, leaving a husband and eight children to mourn their loss; and yet she would not have them mourn; for looking lovingly upon them shortly before she died she said, "Weep not for me, but for yourselves." For nearly 40 years our sister was a consistent member of the little Baptist Church at St. Mary's, proving her love to her Master by making her home a resting place for God's laborers. To her belonged the reward promised to those who give the "cup of cold water to a disciple in the name of a disciple." Greatly will she be missed by husband. Greatly will she be missed by husband, children, friends and church, but we are assured that their loss is her gain. The writer was called from Antigonish to pay a last tribute of respect to the dead and speak a word to the living which we did from "The Master is come and calleth for thee," John xi. 28. May the Lord sustain the mourning ones, and may we all be ready when it is told us, "The Master is come and calleth for thee."—Com. by Rev. F. M. Young.

At New Albany, on the 27th inst., Deacon Harris Printis, in the 64th year of his age. Brother Printis made a pro-fession of his faith in Christ about forty fession of his faith in Christ about forty seven years ago, and was baptized by the late Rev. Thomas Delong. He adorned his profession by a godly walk. A marked characteristic of Brother Printis, was his attachment to God's house, he loved to speak of Christ, and to bow before God in prayer with his brethren. Truly he loved the gates of Zion well. Death hath no terror for him, the grave no gloom. His last illness was protracted, and borne with much patience and resignation to the divine will. His funeral was attended by a large company of friends and relatives. His pastor preached from the words, "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."—Com. by W. J. B. -Com. by W. J. B.

On the 15th inst, Minnie, eldest daughter of Bernard and Mary McGibbon, in the 14th year of her age.

At Great Village, May 13th, Julia Etta, daughter of Charles and Mary Ann Layton, aged 12 years.

At Blue Mountain, Kings County, April 2, Mr. William F. Morton, aged 78 years. Brother M. will be missed as the enthusiastic Superintendent of the Sabbath School.

May 10th, of consumption, aged 38 years, Anna C., daughter of the late Deacon Warren Longles of Paradise.

UNFERMENTED WINE.

Prepared for Sacramental and Dietetic By F. WRIGHT, Maunfacturing Chemist

Kensington High Street, London, W. "This WINE is guaranteed to be the uice of the finest grapes of the Cote d'or, Andalusia, and the Medoc. It is perfectly free from Alcohol, and is guaranteed to be Pure Grape Juice. It has stood the test of 22 years' continuous sale in every climate, and is now used in upwards of 1500 Churches of all denominations. The mode of manufacture is a slight modification of a wellknown ancient practice, and effectually pre-serves the grateful flavor and the rich nutri tious qualities unimpaired. It is therefore admirably adapted in cases of debility and fever, in which the stomach is too weak to digest other food. Children suffering from febrile ailments drink it with avidity, even
