Deaths.

William Graves departed this life on Sabbath morning, Dec. 7th, 1884, in the 69th year of his age. He was born in Chester in 1815 and was married to Catherine Fader in 1836. Soon after they moved to St. Margarets Bay where the greater part of their married life was spent. Here their children were born, except the youngest—and here both hus. except the youngest-and here both husband and wife found the Saviour precious to their souls. Mrs. Graves was the first toown her divine Redeemer, experiencing much opposition from her husband, but she never swerved from her husband, but she never swerved from her purpose and cheerfully confessed her faith in the Lord Jesus Christ in baptism. Her prompt obedience—faithful testimony and consistent walk so impressed the mind of her husband with the reality of the religion of Jesus that he has see the religion of Jesus that he became deeply concerned for the welfare of his soul. This he kept to himself—often going apart to pray. His heart was rebellious, his will stubborn—but God's grace is adapted to every sinner's case and it was not long before he was made "willing in the day of His power." The will was subdued and the heart melted within him-and he rejoiced in a Saviour's love. He was baptized at Black Point by the Rev. T. H. Porter, Senr., whose memory is revered by a great number around the shores of this beautiful Bay. Five years afterward the family moved into the city of Halifax, and he united with the North Baptist Church with whose fellowship he remained until his death. Our departed brother had not the adventered of this beautiful Bay. Five years afterward the family moved into the city of Halifax, and he united with the North Baptist Church with whose fellowship he remained until his death. Our departed brother had not the adventered of this beautiful Bay. Our departed brother had not the city of Halifax, and he united with the North Baptist Church with whose fellowship he remained until his death. Our departed brother had not the city of Halifax, and he united with the North Baptist Church with the North B brother had not the advantages of an education, the lack of which he felt keenly. But he 'knew whom he believed' and was ever ready to give a reason for the hope he cherished in the crucified One. He was not perfect and had faults, but he maintained a consistent Christian character to the end. He was a man of strong convictions and very decided in his opinion. He loved to repeat "Through floods and flames if Jesus leads,

I'll follow where he goes; Hinder me not shall be my cry, Though earth and hell oppose and he meant every word of it. I believe he would have gone to the stake rather than deny his Lord. His testimony of the value of the Christian religion was very impressive. He knew death was coming but it brought no fears, his foot was on the Rock—and his faith was strong. He warned and exhorted all who came to see him, to seek the Lord at once. He was especially anxious for the conversion of his children—and they will not be likely to forget his dving message. Our brother has gone and has left behind to mourn his loss a sorrowing wife—a widow indeed and ten children. The church has lost a true and trusted member, his place is vacant in the home and in the house of prayer; but he still lives, not only in the memory of loving friends but with Him who said 'I am the Resurrection and the Life.' May the God of all grace sanctify this dispensation of His Providence to the good of well His Providence to the good of us all .-

In these sketches an effort is made to hit off not only the facial expression, but the general figure as well, each subject being given in some characteristic pose. Wherever possible the drawing will be made from life, so as to ensure accuracy in these respects. At the same time a staid matter-of-fact portrait is not aimed at, but that far more attractive and unique at, but that far more attractive and unique thing—a CARICATURE embracing a LIFE.

NESS. Each portrait is accompanied by a brief biographical notice written in a spirit to correspond with the picture.

When we call upon Canadians to ENCOURAGE this enterprise we are after all not asking them to no anything vast. They already have in GRIP abundant value for $2 per annum and as has been value for $2 per annum, and as has been already stated the GALLERY, WHICH ALONE IS WORTH MORETHAN THE AMOUNT of subscription, is a free gift. All we request therefore is that those who are not already upon our list shall subscribe for Grip. We decline to argue as to whether $2 per year can be spent in any better way intellectually. There is no question to argue. question to argue. The intelligent citizen of Canada who has that amount per year to invest for his mental pleasure may safely take our word on this point, he will certainly find nothing to buy for the money which will be so satisfactory as a receipt for a subscription to Corre
