years, a native of Ireland.

Mr. Ebenezer Huntington, of West Cornwallis, departed this life on the 13th of December- He was born in Horton, Jan. 16th, 1811, was baptized in 1836 by the late Rev. Wm. Chipman, and united with the 2nd Cornwallis Church. Shortly afterward he removed to St. John and united with the Church in that city. After remaining there a few years he returned to Cornwallis where he again united with the church, and remained a member up to the time of his death. He leaves a widow, one son and three daugh-ters, to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. Bro. H. held firmly to the grand doctrines of the Cross, and main-tained the worship of God in his house. His last illness was marked by great patience and resignation, "I have not a shadow of a doubt" was among his last utterances, "Those who knew him best admired him most." The funeral was largely attended and a sermon was preached by the writer from Heb. vi. 12.

Bridgewater, N. S. Ida A. Crowe, of Bass River, Colchester Co, eldest daughter of the late Douglas Crowe, aged 24 years. She professed faith in Christ in Boston, and united with the First Baptist Church at Charlston, Mass. She spent a year and six months in Colorado for the benefit of her health with her mother. In May, 1883, she came home to die. Her confidence in God was unshaken. Her faith firm, and the promises sweet to her soul. She fell asleep in Jesus, 4th Dec., and was followed to the grave by a large company of friends. Her mother, sister and three brothers miss her as also her aged grand-parents by whom she was dearly loved. They hope to meet her "beyond the river," and mourn not as those without hope, "Bless' ed are the dead who die in the Lord."— restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O. July 3, 1882 : "Last fall my hair commence falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1 '0: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time-procureth. I have used Aven's Hair Vigor, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, ora-tors, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public.'

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elin St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, It cal of its value.

Kensington High Street, London, W. "This WINE is guaranteed to be the uice of the finest grapes of the Cote d'or, Andalusia, and the Medoc. It is perfectly free from Alcohol, and is guaranteed to be Pure Grape Juice. It has stood the test of 22 years' continuous sale in every climate, and is now used in upwards of 1500 Churches of all denominations. The mode of manufacture is a signt modification of a wellknown ancient practice, and effectually pre serves the grateful flavor and the rich nutri tious qualities unimpaired. It is therefore admirably adapted in cases of debility and tever, in which the stomach is too weak to digest other tood. Children suffering from febrile ailments drink it with avidity, even
