Halfax, N. S., January 9, 1884. PRINCIPAL GRANT ON DENOM INATIONAL COLLEGES.

The College Question is again under discussion, in Ontario, but under somewhat different circumstances from what it has formerly been in Nova Scotia. There, they have the University at Toronto, a magnificent institution, built and largely endowed by the state. Another difference also exists therethe Rev. George Grant, D. D., who is the Principal of Queen's College-a Presbyterian Denominational Institution at Kingston-comes forward as the advocate of State support to Denominational Colleges, whereas he was one of the principal opponents of the grants to any but Dalhousie when in

Rev. George Grant of eight or ten years ago, minister of St. Matthew's Church, and one of the governors of Dalhousie College, Halifax, and Principal Grant of Queen's College were one and the same person, but so it is-He seems to have been so well instructed by those he was strenuously opposing, when here, that he has given three addresses on the subject, and his friends were so well satisfied with the requested their publication. We have them before us. He must surely smile when he reads them and thinks of the past, and recalls the ground he then took-maintaining that Dalhousie College alone ought to have legislative support, because it was a State institution whereas we contended that it was to all intents and purposes a Presbyterian Institution, and was no more entitled to legislative aid than the other colleges of the Province. It is evident that it makes a great difference whose ox it was that was gored, as to what shall be the penalty. Circumstances do indeed often alter cases, and perhaps it is that in the wealthy province of Ontario, where they have abundance of money in their coffers, Dr. G. thinks it an excellent opportunity of getting a portion for the institution over which he so ably presides.

Public men do sometimes change, but when they make such a change as to become the advocates of a course they once fought so valiantly against, it is a curious commentary on the mutations of all earthly things-men in particular. If however he should give, as explanation, that he has received further light on the subject, and that he has now taken this stand in the way of progress, we then have nothing Had my critic read my address, he further to reply. But we must give our readers Dr. Grant's own words to substantiate what we have said, or they will hardly believe that there is such a

It appears then, if we understand the case correctly, that the Toronto University, erected and sustained by the Legislature, has made application for a large grant of public money; notwithstanding that it is so largely endowed it needs more, - an additional grant sufficient to sustain three or four more professors. And the Vice-Chancellor patience." thinks that the government should give all it wants. Principal Grant argues that the Denominational Colleges have stronger claims on the public funds of the Province than the Toronto Univer- addresses, Mr. G. says: sity has. He says:-

that believes in it and is willing to following this excellent example, my friend Mr. Mulock proposes that the Government of this province should give to may be required by it; that is, that the friends of other colleges who have for what seemed to them good and sut- of the people.' ficient reasons, brought their favourite colleges to such a standard as to compel universal recognition, should now be forced by law to give more money to extend, they may think nee llessly, an institution which, however excellent, may not commend itself to them as embodying the highest university ideal. A proposal so manifestly unjust cannot be seriously considered. It was evidently made in ignorance of the facts of the case. The chief reason assigned was that the various denominations support Queen's Victoria, Trinity, and the other colleges, and therefore that the Province should support University College. I would like to ask what the Province amounts to apart from all the denomin-exactly the same reasons, by the Presby the Baptists.

"All honor to that Church for starting | equal consideration. Queen's. It did so because, after repeated efforts, it failed in its attempts to make what is now Toronto University broad enough for more denominations

The first of Dr. Grant's addresses was given " at Convocation on University day."

Again at the opening of the Theological Department of Queen's College in November, Principal Grant speak on the subject and contends that-

"The State may aid every well equipped college that is admittedly doing good work, work that the Province ready; or the various Colleges must appeal to the public generally, and their friends in particular, for the additional One would hardly believe that the funds they may require from time to Ontario. Why, then, if public support is to be given, should it be limited to one? Would it not be in true accord with our High School system to have at least two or three Colleges in suitable centres? And if voluntary effort has already established these, would it not be wise and economical on the part of the Legislature to recognize and stimulate that voluntary effort?" "A college may have been forced into existence by soundness of his arguments, that they the unjust attitude of the State; it it may be completely unsectarian so far as its Arts and Science courses are concerned; it may be situated in an appropriate centre; it may be open to both sexes and thus to all, instead of half the population; it may have as many protessors as University College, or twice as many, and yet it has only to be snobbishly styled "denominational" to be ruled out of court. Is it not about time for men of candour to cease pretending to be frightened by this bogy? What the country needs is not phrases but facts, It needs more than one college."

The Province has done a great deal for University College, and some of us think that it is in order now that the persons and places that have benefitted most should do a little. The Province has given half a million for buildings, and a million for endowment. My friends call you that little? I wish we had as much: And we have done something. How much have you done?

I quite agree with "A Toronto Graduate," that " higher education cannot safely and advantageously be left to denominational effort.

"A critic gravely informs us that while University College cannot get contributions, Queen's "has been able to get all the money it needed." This will be pleasant news to some of its friends, who perhaps are getting just a little tired-such is the weakness of the flesh -of giving without ceasing. I am sorry to dispel so pleasing an illusion. would have learned that we had just appointed two Professors without having secured an endowment for the chairs, and in previous addresses I pointed out that we need now, and need very badly at least a quarter of a million of dollars. In a few years after we get that, we shall need another quarter of a million. All that I can promise is that the money shall be well spent. University College and Queen's may well sympathise with each other, for both are in need, but our need is the greater. But I believe that both of us shall get all that we really require, if we only go the right way about it, and exercise a little

Then again on the 8th of December, and after rehearsing some things he said before, and referring to those who have offered criticism on his former

"When the State is satisfied that the Each institution has a constituency work (in denominational Colleges) is required, that it is the complement of the prove its faith by its works. In-tead of public school system, that it is unsectarian, that it is in the public interest, in red granite, freestone, and marble that it can be inspected and tested, and that there is adequate con-University College all the money that | trol so far as its money is concerned, then the State acts wisely if it gets its work done economically, by utilising voluntarily and at a great sacrifice, and and stimulating the voluntary liberality

Those who contended against Rev. George Grant-at least those of them who are now living-will be somewhat amused to see how he has utilized the arguments they then used, and instead of battling against them as he then did, they will perhaps be surprised to observe how he has turned them and made them serve his present purpose.

It may not be out of place for us here to say what we have before said, that whilst we have maintained that a State University cannot supply what is required by Baptists in the way of Higher Education, on this account we | Wm. McNab.

It appears that Queen's College at believe that an institution governed by Kingston was established for almost a denomination is the most effective, and that it is only when aid is given byterians, as Acadia was at Wolfville from the public funds to other Collegiate Institutions Baptists have demanded

> THE meetings of the Week of Prayer are being held as usual in Halitax, On Sunday afternoon the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall was presided over by Mr. J. S. McLean. Rev. A. MacArthur gave an address on Prayer giving illustrations of answers being given to prayer, from the Old Testament and the New, and from the experience of Christians in different ages.

The Monday morning meeting at past 9 was conducted by Mr. S. L. would have to do if it was not done al- Shannon who offered a few opening remarks on the subject assigned to the day. After which prayer was offered by Rev. Messrs. MacArthur, Dr. Burns, Avery, Manning, Pickles and "More than One College is needed in others. Although the weather was very severe, 5 below zero, yet a large company was present, well filling the large room. It was an auspicious beginning of the week.

In the evening there were three meetings in different parts of the city, Granville St. Baptist, St. John, Presbyterian, and Charles St. Methodist. The one in Granville Street Church was quite large, remarks were made may have been the first in the country by the chairman Rev. Mr. MacArthur, of a newspaper is not well sustained by Dr. Burns, Mr. D. Yesterday morning Mr. E. D. King presided over a very large crowded and deeply interesting assembly in the Y. M. C. A. Hall.

At Dartmouth united meetings are being held every evening. They commenced in the Methodist Church, Rev. E. J. Grant presiding. The meeting was large and full of interest. On Tuesday in the Baptist Church, and on Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church, after which the same course will be observed on the following days,

Our brother in a private note adds: " I fancy you must find it very difficult at times, and especially so just now, to decide on what, and what not, to publish. I suppose some will praise and some will blame. I think that the words of Paul, Brethren pray for us should be often remembered by Christians on behalf of Editors, for one I will try not to forget them, yourself in particular."

MR. A. J. WALKER has a fine new some handsomely finished monuments (see advertizement.) The Kentville branch of the business is managed by Mr. J. F. Hanson, one of the members of the firm. The work done by this firm has taken prizes in every exhibition where they have competed. The senior member of the firm Mr. Walker has carried on the business ever since 1857, and has, we believe, given great satisfaction to his customers.

Sons of Temperance Year Book, 1883 forms a thick pamphlet of 199 pages, shewing the history of the Order in Nova Scotia for the past year, and its present standing. The order appears to be in a flourishing condition. Rev. R. Alder Temple the Grand Scribe is a painstaking officer. The preparation of the tabulated information is a work that demands and has evidently received much patient persevering labor. This book of the Order is got up in a very neat style by Mr.

THE Baptist Missionary Magazine, January, 1884, contains a fine photograph of the members of the Che Kiang and Kiang-su Baptist Association. It contains about as many natives as American missionaries and their wives, and some of single lady missionaries.

The Magazine has also a full list of the missionaries now working under the American Baptist Missionary Union (about 200) with their present address. Among these we find the names of several with whom some of our readers are familiar, as they went from these prov-

"How to use our Lesson Helps' is the suggestive title of a tract issued by our Publication Society. The new graded series prepared for 1884 is certain to be exceedingly popular, a they are so arranged and adapted that any given school can use all of them together, and manifestly to great advantage. Send to Philadelphia, or any of its Branch Houses, and "How to use, etc.," will be sent free.

The Boston Watchman says :-The idea of a miscellaneous headship experience. The New York Sun, alluding to the differences of opinion between the three editors of the New York Evening Post which has led to the retirement of Mr. Carl Schurz, remarks: " A newspaper must have one responsible editor, and only one, who shall conduct the debates as to its policy in the secret chambers of his own interior consciousness."

A preacher recently said that the more learned the congregation, the less learning the congregation asked for, but for that inner life, that wonderous spiritual mystic power which made the whole world kin. The Christian Intelligencer says :- "The real work of every denomination is performed by a minority, and it will be found that of this minority nearly every family reads the denominational newspapers."

SPRINGFIELD.—There is not much new in my field, the Nictaux and Atlantic Railroad is progressing slowly, I hope surely. When it is completed Albany, Springfield and East Dalhousie will be largely benefited, being on the line of the road.

Spiritual matters are also progressing slowly, yet I hope surely, the promise is "They who go forth weeping, bearing precious seed shall doubtless return bearing their sheaves with them."

During the summer we have had baptisms, a sister Cuthbertson at Springfield, and sister Ingram Oaks, of St. Stephen, N. B., at New Albany Sister Oaks was at New Albany with her husband on a vist. The Master showed her the way and she followed Him, and united with the Albany Church of which Brother Oaks is

I am now in the new parsonage at Springfield. It is a commodious house -a credit to the churches and community. There are twenty-three acres of land connected with it, and that in the heart of the community only a few steps from the church. By the way Mr. Editor I must say that our meeting house in Springfield has been repaired and a new organ put into it show room at Truro, where he keeps during the last year, and paid for too. We are looking forward to the commencement of the New Year, hoping God will bless united effort and that we shall see the place of his feet made glorious; Zion the joy and gladness of many hearts.

My address now will be Springfield, Annapolis County, N. S. W. J. BLAKENY. December 29th, 1883.

The production of the Dartmouth Rope Works was just double in 1883 what it was in 1882. An average of 120 hands have been employed and some $30,000 have been paid out for wages. About 120 tons of cordage, etc., have been manufactured, valued at $300,000 -which was over 60 per cent. in excess of the production of 1882. A new building, 70 by 45, has been erected for the manufacture of reaper twine, for binding grain.

The Local Legislature will probably be summoned to meet on or about the 21st of February.

On Monday of last week the barn of Mr. Roland Ross, Milford, was burned. Several tons of hay and a horse and cow were also burned.

The Free Baptist Church at Session Hill, one mile from Yarmouth town, was totally destroyed by fire on New Year's Day. The sale of the Spring Hill Mines to the Cumberland Coal & Railway Co., as arranged by Messrs. Leckie & Hedley last summer, was consummated on Wednesday by the payment of the re-maining six hundred thousand dollars through the Bank of Montreal.

Some say "Consumption can't be cured." Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, proved by forty years' experience, will cure this disease when not already advanced beyond the reach of medical aid. Even then its use affords very great relief, and insures refreshing sleep

BAPTIST BOOK AND TRACT SOCIETY .-New Year, 1884. - We have much pleasure in thanking our brethren and friends who have so nobly assisted us with their money toward Capital and Colportage Funds, and have favored us with their valued orders during the year 1883. We solicit still further your support and hearty cooperation. Our aim shall be to fill all orders entrusted to us with promptness and despatch, always seiling at the lowest figures for CASH, allowing discounts where possible, and giving good value for your money. It will be gratifying to ministers and superintendents to know that the BAPTIST BOOK ROOM, Halifax, can supply their wants. In ordering Lesson Helps, Periodicals, Libraries, &c., for and during the year please remember your own Society before sending to Philadelphia; the price and quality are exactly the same. We are pleased to know that many Sabbath Schools, hitherto closed during the winter season, are being kept open for the first time and we heartily, wish them success, and will send any poor schools thus making the effort, (upon receipt of stamps to pay postage), a few tracts, papers, cards, &c., free. We wish you all A HAPPY NEW YEAR

There was a terrible Railroad disaster in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway on Monday of last week, arising from a collision. Twenty two were killed outright by the injuries and being scalded. The telegram on Friday said that twenty seven persons had died in all and three more cases were regarded as hopeless. Thirty seven employees of the Toronto Bolt Works were on board.

Engineer Jeffrey, of the freight train that collided with the suburban, lies dangerously ill at his lodgings. It was previously stated that he jumped from the engine before the collision, but this he denies, remembers nothing till he found himself amongst the snow with blood flowing from a terrible scalp wound. Dizzy and faint, he could not bear to look upon the wreck and started to get medical attendance. He states that not having been over the road before he asked for a pilot and got Barber. All went well till they got to Hamilton. There he was informed that No. 1 express would be the first train he would meet, but no mention was made of the suburban, and Barber never told him of
