Deaths.

At Gate's Mountain, Annapolis Co., on the 22nd iast., Robert Gregory, aged 27

At Sonora, 31st of May, 1884, in the 47th year of his age, Capt. David Dickson. He united with the First Baptist Church in St. Mary's, about eleven years ago. He followed the sea. When at home he was found in the house of God when he could get there, filling his place in the church with which he was connected. Our brother was a good man—one had only to be acquainted with him to love him. In his death the wife has lost a kind husband and the children an affectionate father, the church a worthy member and the neighbourhood a kind neighbour. He has left a widow and seven children to mourn their loss. May our heavenly Father sustain the afflicted widow and her children in their sad bereavement. At the funeral there was a large gathering. It was a solemn time. The text on the occasion was "Oh death where is thy sting, oh grave where is thy victory. But thanks be to God which year, and now is just the time to subscribe. giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Cor. xv. 55-57 verse.— Com. by Rev. H. Eagles.

ST. NICHOLAS

- FOR-YOUNG FOLKS.

ATTRACTIONS FOR 1884-5.

No printed periodical can take the place of parent, pastor, or school-teacher; but a good magazine can supplement their work and influence to a wonderful degree. In view of this, it is not extravagant to say that—in-stead of "Can we afford to take or. Nichohold in English-speaking countries, to day, should be "Can we afford not to take Sr. NICHOLAS?"

The magazine, during its eleven happy years of existence, under the editorial charge of

Mary Mapes Dodge,

has grown familiar to hundreds of thousands of young readers; and their interest and intelligent enjoyment have constantly inspired the editor and publishers to fresh effort. To-day, its strength is in its wholesome growth, its sympathy with young life, its hearty recognition of the movement of events, and its steadily increasing literary and pictoral resources. The following are some of the good things already secured for future numbers of St. NICHOLAS.
