To him the Bible was a precious book. loved it and rested on its truths. knew that he was a helpless sinner. He saw Jesus Christ to be his complete Saviour. To him the name of Jesus was above every other name. He was upright in character, zealous in good works, strong in faith. During the last few months of his life he seemed to be especially supported by the power of God. No one who saw and conversed with him could doubt but that underneath and round about him were the everlasting arms. Daily and hourly he

At the age of 11 years he become deeply impressed on account of his lost state, but soon found peace in believing in Jesus Christ. Fourteen years elapsed before he publicly dedicated himself to Christ. In the year of 1823 he was baptized by Father Ainsley and united with the Baptist Church in Clements. His life was in agreement with his profession. The church convinced of his piety and glowing love for Christ and un-wavering attachment for truth, chose him for one of her standard bearers, which position he held over forty-three years, with honor to himself and profit to the church and glorifying to God. Brother Chute was a diligent student of the Bible-it was his delight. He was warm hearted in his religious exercises and "benevolent to the claims of the gospel. He loved the church and until old age and impaired health prevented, he was a constant attendant on the means of grace. He came to death without a murmur or a fear "having a desire to depart and be with Christ." The fragrance of that useful and pious life will be apparent in the Clements Baptist Church for years to come. As we review the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. He spoke of death as being only a step out of the body into the immediate presence of Christ. Only a step into the open air Out of a tent already luminous

With light that shines through its tansparent walls.

Assured of the divine presence he was ever ready with words of comfort for his brethren, ever ready to exhort the unsaved to seek an interest in the blood of Christ. He will be missed by his beloved partner who has been for many years an humble believer in Christ. He will be missed by his family, by the church, by his pastor who ever received only words of comfort and cheer from him, and who never saw his seat vacant in the house of God. But our loss is his gain. He has entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. Through his Redeemer we may also overcome and enter in.

When Christ ascended triumphantly from star to star

He left the gates of heaven ajar. I had a vision in the night, And saw him standing at the door

Of his Father's mansion vast and splen-

And beckoning to me from afar. Yea and not only to me but to all who believe on his name. To such the separation of death is only for a moment. Ere long they shall meet to dwell together forever. Let us then forgetting these things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ J. C. S. Jesus.

Address, DE. SWAYNE & Son, Philadel

Some months ago I was troubled with scrofulous sores (ulcers) on my legs. The limbs were badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy I tried failed, until I used AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, of which I have now taken three bottles with the result that the sores are healed, and my general health greatly improved. I feel very grateful for the good your medicine has done me.

Yours respectfully, MRS. ANN O'BRIAN." 148 Sullivan St., New York, June 24, 1882.

All persons interested are invited to call on Mrs. O'Brian; also upon the Rev. Z. P. Wilds of 78 East 54th Street, New York City, who will take pleasure in testifying to the wonderful efficacy of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, not only in the cure of this lady, but in his own case and many others within his knowledge.

The well-known writer on the Boston Herald, B. W. BALL, of Rochester, N.H., writes, June 7, 1882:

"Having suffered severely for some years with Eczema, and having failed to find relief from other remedies, I have made use, during the past three months, of AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, which has effected a complete cure. I consider it a magnificent remedy for all blood diseases."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

stimulates and regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, renews and strengthens the vital forces, and speedily cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gont, Catarrh, General Debility, and all diseases arising from an impoverished or corrupted condition of the blood, and a weakened vitality.

It is incomparably the cheapest blood medieine, on account of its concentrated strength, and great power over disease.
