have lost their lives... headed signals intended to deceive.
 In the war twenty years ago the Boers fired with intent upon British ambulances bearing the Geneva cross, and killed wounded and helpless British soldiers. They have not been in the habit of keeping faith with the native African tribes, and the evil habit has clung to them in dealing with British soldiers. Their conduct will recoil with serious consequences upon themselves.
 Writing of the relief of Ladysmith Winton Churchill says: "The operations of Lord Roberts were assisted by the fact that Gen. Buller kept 16,000 Boers occupied. It would be a cruel and unworthy thing to deprive the Natal army of their hard won laurels; and none would more vigorously repudiate such a suggestion than Lord Roberts himself."
 The Governor of New Zealand telegraphed the British Government as follows:
 "The people of New Zealand wish to express their endorsement of the position taken by the imperial government in declining to allow the intervention of any foreign power in the settlement with the Transvaal and the Free State, and in declining to assent to either state being independent.
 My government assures Her Majesty's government that New Zealand will support to the last the mother country, so far as it lies in her power in maintaining that position, which has been taken up irrespective of consequence." He adds that large numbers of men are volunteering and only await the opportunity to go to the front.
 For his signal bravery at the battle of Colenso the Queen conferred upon Lieut. Roberts, only son of Lord Roberts, the Victoria Cross, after his death—a very unusual proceeding.
 Her so doing marks the first instance in the history of the cross wherein it has been borne by father and son.
 A leading Berlin paper, in a striking article on the war, says: "The war has demonstrated the unanimity of feeling among the English. They are all standing together throughout good or evil portend, and command the admiration of the world. It has also shown in a most amazing way the strength of the imperialistic idea, having done so much in welding the colonies into a veritable empire." A despatch from Pretoria says that the Boer women are so enraged by the British victories that they are clamouring for the execution of the British officers who are prisoners, declaring that this is the only way to avenge the defeat the Boers have suffered.
 Winton Churchill, in his latest despatch to the London Post, says:
 "It is imperative to continue shipping troops to South Africa. The stream should never cease until the Boers surrender unconditionally. At the end of the war Great Britain will possess the finest army in her history." From Amsterdam there came a few days ago a piece of news which indicates that Mr. Kruger sees the shadow of this coming event. The news is that a consignment of valuables and effects belonging to President Kruger and other Transvaal officials reached Amsterdam from South Africa.
 The consignment was taken charge of by a clerk in the employ of Dr. Leyds, and was immediately transferred to the vaults of a bank which is generally understood to have President Kruger's interests in hand.

 DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.
 MILLSTREAM, K. Co. — Believing God had called into this ministry, and following the promptings of the Spirit, I felt it a duty and a privilege, like the disciples of old, to "forsake all and follow" Him. After having supplied at Norton for several Sabbaths and realizing there the marked impressions of the Holy Spirit, I decided to be obedient to the Heavenly call and engage in the work in which there is such a demand for devout labourers. I spent a week in Carleton Co. with brethren Clark and Fenwick, on the Sabbath of which I preached at Kent and Bath. After returning, I had a request to preach at Lower Millstream and Apohequi on the following Sabbath. I promised on that occasion to preach the following Sabbath at Upper Millstream, Snyder Mountain and Keirstead Mountain, which appointments I duly filled. The following week while assisting Rev. W. H. Perry in evangelistic services at Upper Hampstead, I received a call to the Millstream-Apohequi pastorate, which I accepted.

 Through the kindness and hospitality of the dear friends there I am now situated in the parsonage. Concerning the pastorate I may say that only kindness, hospitality and love have greeted me since coming amongst these good people. And as I mingle with the many godly, praying men and women of this church, in the prayer service, in their homes and elsewhere, I realize that God has had a particular care over me, in placing me amidst surroundings which must help and strengthen me.... On Thursday, 15th inst., I was also spiritually strengthened, as several pastors of this District, including Revs. G.
 Swin, A. J. Prosser, F. G. Francis, B. N. Nobles and G. F. Currie with a crowded house, from the various sections of this pastorate, met to extend words of welcome, counsel and love to me on the occasion of my installation as pastor. And as I listened to the eloquent and spiritual sermon, and the stirring words of christian admonition from the brethren I realized the help and strength that accompanied those words, just as Timothy did, as he read the loving admonitions and counsels of Paul. It is a source of great comfort to find the strong ready and willing to bear the infirmities of the weak.... I purpose in the near future, holding special service in all the churches on the pastorate.
 Pray for us that God's spirit and power may accompany the work, and that we may see souls saved, backsliders reclaimed, God's cause prosper and His name glorified. It has seemed to me since coming here, that I have had a continual feast of God's love and blessing.

 WESTFIELD, K. Co.—Special meetings are being held at this place. God is blessing us. Wanderers are coming to Father's house and sinners are being saved. Two young people have been converted and desire baptism.
 We are praying for a more abundant blessing. Meetings all last week.

 A Woman's Advice
 To Sufferers from Nervousness and Headaches.
 MRS. ROBINS, OF PORT COLBORNE, TELLS HOW SHE FOUND A CURE AND ASSERTS
 THE BELIEF THAT THE SAME REMEDY WILL CURE OTHER SUFFERERS.
 Mrs. Daniel Robins, of Port Colborne, Ont., is one of those who believe that when a remedy for disease has been found, it is the duty of the person benefited to make it known, in order that other sufferers may also find the road to renewed health. Mrs.
 Robins says: "In the spring of 1897 my health gave way and I became completely prostrated. Nervousness palpitation were the chief symptoms.
 The nervous trouble was so severe as to border almost upon St. Vitus' dance.
 The least exertion, such as going up stairs for example, would leave me almost breathless, and my heart would palpitate violently. My appetite was very fickle and I was much reduced in flesh. The usual remedies were tried, but did not help me, and eventually I became so weak that I was unable to perform my household duties, and the headaches I suffered from at times made me feel as though my head would burst. I was feeling very discouraged when a cure in a case much resembling mine through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills came to my notice and I decided to give them a trial. After using two boxes I found so much relief that I was greatly rejoiced to know that I had found a medicine that would cure me. I continued using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills until I had taken eight or nine boxes, when I considered my cure complete. The palpitation of the heart, nervousness and headaches had disappeared; my appetite was again good, and I had gained in weight nicely. I regard myself as completely restored and I would urge other women suffering as I did to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and I am sure they will have equally good reason to sound their praise.
 There are thousands of women throughout the country who suffer as Mrs. Robins did, who are pale, subject to headaches, heart palpitation and dizziness, who drag along frequently feeling that life is a burden.
 To all such we would say give Dr.
 Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. These pills make rich, red blood strengthen the nerves, bring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks, and make the feeble and despondent feel that life is once more worth living. The genuine are sold only in boxes, the wrapper bearing the full name "D. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." May be had from all dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the

 ABOUT THE LABEL.
 The address label serves several important purposes.
 It is a receipt for your subscription remittance, for publishers could hardly undertake to send an individual receipt to each subscriber.
 This little label is a fitting reminder each week to any whose subscriptions have expired. Let us ask that you look at the label after reading these lines and if you find that you have overlooked the matter of remittance that you remit without delay. A healthy paper is one in which the subscriptions are paid up in advance. If you have been just a little forgetful in this matter may it have your prompt attention now.
 WHY ONE COULDN'T PAY.
 The following story from an exchange may move some delaying subscribers to do what they ought to have done long ago—and, probably, intended to do, but neglected: A minister wished to ascertain what influence the hard times had upon his congregation, and said at the close of his sermon:
 "I would ask every one who still is able to pay his debts to rise from his seat."
 The whole congregation arose, with the exception of one man.
 The preacher then asked that all those who were unable to meet their bills should rise.
 Thereupon the afore-mentioned solitary individual got up, a hungry-looking, poorly-clad man whose features revealed the terrible struggles of one fighting hopelessly against the vicissitudes of this world. The minister regarded him attentively, yet kindly.
 "How is it my friend," he said, "that you are the only one among all these people who cannot pay his debts?"
 "Sir," answered the man, hesitatingly, "I publish a religious newspaper, and my brothers who rose just now are all subscribers, and—"
 But the minister interrupted him hastily, "Let us pray," he said.

 Feed your nerves, also, on pure blood if you would have them strong. Men and women who are nervous are so because their nerves are starved. When they make their blood rich and pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla their nervousness disappears.

She died the same month and the same day of the month that her husband died, twenty-four years ago. Sister Larlee professed religion about 40 years ago, was baptized by Rev. G. W. Orser and joined the Free Baptist church at Perth, and as long as her strength permitted was a faithful worker in the cause. She was a woman of an excellent spirit, and was highly esteemed in the community, and by all to whom she was known. Many of the Lord's servants may say, as Paul said of Phebe, "She was succor of many, and of myself also." Her funeral was largely attended although the day was extremely cold and stormy and the roads very bad. The church was filled to its utmost capacity. The services at the house and church were by the writer. J. NOBLE.
