Fearful of treachery, he advanced part of small boys against the larger cautiously, but all the while that voice continued singing over and over again, O, how I love Jesus !

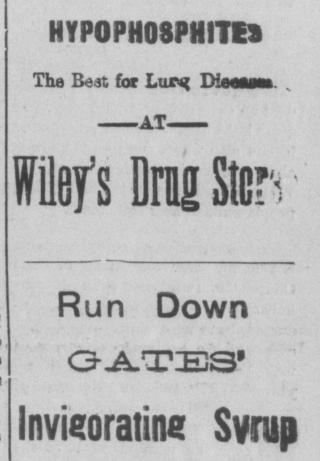

After crawling for more than an hour, Ord discovered that the singer was an Indian. Covering him with his carbine, he rushed at him, ordering him to surrender. The Apache threw up both hands and made the sign of peace, continuing something because he fears God or to sing, O, how I love Jesus !

The lieutenant took the Indian back to the camp, where it was learned through the interpreter that he had been sent out by one of the for things of G :d he feels the deep-
