CHINA.

Through the past week the public feeling has alternated between a hope that the foreigners at Pekin might still be safe, and a great dread that the horrible rumors of torture and death would prove true. If half the fiendish deeds are done that are said to have been done, then the world has seldom known such a carnival of butchery. Take this instance which came by wire to the Czar on Saturday from his Admiral Alexieff's at Port Arthur. Tears coursed down his majesty's cheeks as he read the cablegram from Admiral Alexieff, at Port Arthur, confirming the horrible details of the assassination of M. DeGiers, the Russian Consul which merely in the form of rumor had already reached Russia. The admiral declares that the Russian envoy was dragged through the streets by the Boxers, insulted. beaten and tortured and then thrown into a great kettle and boiled to death er of British were captured Then his remains were thrown to the ost determined stand in dogs. While M. DeGiers was disposed of the fanatic mob danced around the office has issued casualty caldron. Madame DeGiers Admiral Alexieff's advices declare, suffered a there were killed, wounded fate worse than death, and was beaten 15 officers and 180 men; and tortured with sharp sticks until deaths, two men; died of life was extinct. in mass meeting in Shanghai to their fellow citizens at home

"Urge the government to send ade juate forces to act effectively in con cert with the others. At present the American forces are quite disproportionate to the interests involved. Our commercial interests in the northern province are paramount, and we consider it a humiliating policy to entrust to other powers the chief task, that of protecting Americans.

"And foreign outrages are multiplying daily. Officials and missionaries are massacred. The fate of the ministers and their families in Pekin is not known, but a general massacre is apprehended. Wholesale massacres of native Christians continue. The whole country is terrorized. Trade is paralyzed.

"The speedy restoration of order and retribution are duties pressing upon all civilized powers. The consequences of delay will be disastrous. Not only are foreign lives and property placed in jeopardy but the loss of influence will be incalculable.

"Give no credence to statements of the situation sent by the Chinese government to its ministers abroad. The present outrages are the result of the weak and vascillating policy of the powers in the past. We urge immediate energetic and concerted action." The Shanghai Cor. of the Daily Mail says-"I can positively assert that the Chinese authorities had the dreadful news from Pekin a week ago, and that Sheng knew the foreigners in Pekin were dead when he asked the American consul to cable Washington F. B Strong, of "F" Company a proposal to deliver the foreigners in sone of the party, is announced safety at Tien Tein on condition that the allies would suspend their operations to the north of Pekin '

The world has never had just such a spectacle as is now being enacted in China. An anachronism is striving to efface the present. A relic, buried beneath the dust of centuries is resisting the hand that would brush away the cobwebs of time. If it were not for the brutality of the Chinese one could almost sympathize with them a little in their struggle against the inevitable.

Such recollections will long live in the hearts of her many friends. Through her declining years she was kindly cared for by her aged husband and only son. Her grand daughter tenderly waited on her during the last few months of suffering. Capt. Norman Smith of Yarmouth, is the only surviving child. Her eldest son, Isaiah passed over the river a few years before her, where he has been waiting and watching for mother. The aged husband will be very lonely, but it will not be for long; soon he, too, will join the blood-washed throng. She had a host of friends by whom she was held dear her pastor being one of the number. Their home was always a quiet retreat for all of the ministers Her funeral was attended by Rev.
