My Prayer.

If there be some weaker one, Give me strength to help him on; If a blinder soul there be, Let me guide him nearer Thee. Make my mortal dreams come true With the work I fain would do; Clothe with life my weak intent, Let me be the thing I meant; Let me find in Thy employ, Peace, that dearer is than joy; Out of self to love be led, And to heaven acclimated, Until all things sweet and good Seem my natural habitude. J. G. WHITTIER.

Convention.

It will be held with the society at Sus:ex Aug., 7-9. Of course all the societies will be represented. You must have at least one representative there even if the society has to stand the cost. You will all get good. Reduced rates are being arranged on the boats and the I. C R, be sure and take advantage of these. If you go by way of the C. P. R. the best you can do is to buy a return ticket.

The executive has arranged a very helpful programme and have -ndeavored to make the session the best yet.

The Society at Sussex is waiting to give us a warm welcome. Now will each society observe the following request.

Pray. Let much prayer be made to God that the Holy Spirit will be with us. That each speaker and each committee may be divinely directed.

2. Be sure and send your report Send one to secretary at once, be sure and do this, fill in what you can, don't fail to send it because you can't send full report. If you have done something and don't down nothing, give an approximate

3. Remember the Per Capita tax, of five cent per member, Send this and all other money you have to the Treasurer, Mr. T. A. Lindsay, to the secretary, or send it by delegates to the convention.

4. Send delegates to the convention; do not send them simply that they may have "a good time." But send them - (and may every delegate understand the purpose of the convention,) -that they may receive -retain and transmit a spiritual blessing and so conduct the business of the session as that great good may come of it.
