Weeding Your Garden.

A young girl sat at the window, not tired or scorched by the heat of summer. The mind must be at peace to thoroughly enjoy nature. A friend of the y ung girl's mother, coming out of the house, lo ked at the face so drawn by unhappiness. She stopped and said:

> KEEP YOUR TOP COOL -It is reported of Artemus Ward that he once offered his flask of whiskey to the driver of the stage on the top of which he was riding through a mountainous sec ion. The stagedriver refused the flisk in most decided tones. Said he:-

I don't drink; I won't drink; I don't like to see any one else drink. I am of the opinion of those mountai .s-keep your top cool! They've got snow and I've got brains; that's all the d fference.

There is a great deal of wisdom in his remark, Keep your top cool. Without a sound brain man is not of much use in the world. Alcohol, whether in beer, cider, inflames it and renders it unfit for use. Be like the honest stage driver, and resolve to keep the top cool.
