All the lumber, with the exception of one car, was saved.

It was some time before the track was cleared. Again early the same evening, through the opening of a wrong switch, a train that was shunting at the coke ovens, struck a car on which was placed a section of the Hotel Breton that was being removed to the pier. LITERARY NOTES

There is a good collection of light articles in the July Canadian Magazine. The only heavy article is a reproduction of Sir John Macdonald's speech in 1865 on Confederation. The Drama of Hiawatha, as performed by the Ojibway Indians near Sault Ste. Marie last year, is described and illustrated.

Twenty-five years ago, when "Elbow Room" and "Out of the Hurly-Burly" were the successes of the day, Max Adler suddenly ceased writing. For a quarter of a century he was proof against the blandishments of editors, but within a few weeks he has completed a new series of humorous stories. Tales of Old Turkey, which will appear in early numbers of The Saturday Evening Post, are dro' stories of the great characters in a high med country town. Local politics, school committee fights, church squabbles and women's clubs form the basis of some of the cleverest stories that have been written for many a day.

Armour professed faith in Christ forty-two years ago, and was baptized by the late Rev. E. McLeod. He was a member of the Free Baptist church at Taylor Village, N. B. for a number of years. When he removed to Nova Scotia he united with the Baptist church. He was a good man, and when death came he was ready to go, and has entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. His body was brought to Taylor Village, his former home, and the home of his son, Charles Armour, and there the funeral services were conducted by the writer. GIDEON SWIM.

LONG.—At Marysville on the 18th ult., after lingering with consumption, Nellie, daughter of John and Margaret Long, passed to her rest, aged 21 years and 8 months, leaving a father, mother, three sisters and one brother to mourn their loss. During her illness she was sustained by the hope of a home beyond, and died trusting in the Redeemer. The funeral services, which were largely attended, were conducted by Rev. Wm. Lawson assisted by Lic. Allen Hill-out. Sister Nellie was the Rebecca Sisterhood, of which she was a member, acted as pal bearers, and at the grave their service was read. She left a large circle of friends by whom she will be much missed.

CAMBER.—At the home of Thomas Witherby, Arthurette, on the 26th of June, of old age and general debility, John Camber aged 90 years. This aged brother gave his heart to Christ over a half century ago, under the ministry of the late Rev. Elijah Sisson, and is said to be the first candidate baptized by a Baptist clergyman on the Tobique River. He became a member of the Arthurette Free Baptist church at its organization and remained an honored and faithful member during the long years of his earthly pilgrimage. He looked forward with childlike pleasure to the meeting of the session of the First District to be held with the church in this place on the 29th of June, and anticipated great spiritual enjoyment in being permitted to participate in its service, as he was aware that his friends had kindly arranged for him to be present. But it was not so to be, just three days before the meeting convened, quietly, peacefully, trustfully, without a struggle, his life of nearly a century was ended and he passed to his rest. Funeral services at the house, and at the Church by the writer J. T. P.

LONG.—Ella, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Long, of Long Settlement, Car. Co. passed peacefully away on the 29th of May, 1901, after a lingering illness. Her age was 22 years. Seven years ago, she professed her faith in Christ, was baptized by the late Rev. G. F. Currie, and received into the membership of the Tracey Mills church. Hers was a good life, and she was respected and loved by all. Her faith held good and in her last moments she quoted from the 23rd Psalm. "Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil; for thou art with me." and requested the same to be spoken from on the occasion of her funeral. Owing to the illness of the pastor Rev. Wm. Deware the writer conducted the services, which were very largely attended. To the father, mother, brother and sisters and other relatives, we extend our sympathy and pray that God will support and comfort them in their sorrow. J. W. CLARKE.

REMARKABLE.

By the death of a woman in Wisconsin a series of remarkable facts has been brought to light about the manner of death of almost the entire family. Twenty-five years ago her father out his foot severely and was taken home and soon expired seated in a rocking-chair. Heart failure was the cause. Six weeks afterward his wife died of the same disease while seated in a rocking-chair. They were about sixty years old. When their oldest son had reached that age was taken sick, got out of bed to have his bedmade, was seated in a rocking-chair, and he died. When their oldest daughter was the same age she complained of not feeling well, and died in a few moments while seated in a rocking-chair. And now Mrs. Oliver, aged sixty, dies in a rocking-chair. This is the result merely of having a rocking-chair in the house. If there had been no rocker all the people would have died either in bed or in ordinary chairs. There is an old story of a man who asked a sea captain where his father died.

"Lost at sea," said the man. "Well, where did his father die?" "Laid at sea." "Then I should think you would be afraid to go to sea." "Well, where did your father die?" "Died in his bed." "Where did his father die?" "Died in his bed." "Then I should think you would be afraid to go to bed?" These people probably had a tendency to heart disease.

TWO WARNINGS.

Losing flesh is one and a hacking cough is another. If they come together the warning is a loud and hard one. Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work in just these cases. It prevents consumption.

For $25,000.—The whole island of New York was originally bought of the Indians for an equivalent of about twenty-five dollars. To-day New York has a population of about 3,500,000, which is exceeded by only one other city—London. Its wealth is enormous; its annual expenditures are more than twice those of the Republic of Mexico, and almost one-third as much as those of the German Empire with its population of 52,000,000. — July Ladies' Home Journal.
