

PARLIAMENT

MONDAY.—Mr. Fisher announced that the Canadian exhibit at the Pan-American exposition would be closed on Sunday.

The premier announced that the government had been invited to send a representative to England to confer with the imperial authorities in reference to the change in the constitution of the judicial committee of the privy council. No appointment has yet been made.

TUESDAY.—The bill to amend the act to restrict importation and employment of alien labor, was then taken up. The bill had three primary objects: 1st, to allow the penalty to be inflicted for breaches of the law to be largely left to the discretion of the judge by fixing the minimum fines of $50 and $1,000 respectively; 2nd, to take the responsibility of prosecution from the attorney general and place it on the shoulders of the attorneys general of the provinces, judges to be competent to try an action for $1,000; 3rd, to prevent employers for advertising abroad for labor. The premier said manufacturers had approached the government and asked that the bill be not made too stringent in its character. The government were prepared to accept any amendment with that end in view.

Mr. Borden, Halifax, saw no reason for making provincial attorneys general responsible for the enforcement of the act.

The debate was adjourned until some future day.

The house went into supply on the public works estimates.

WEDNESDAY.—The house was poorly attended to-day, owing to the departure of members for home.

The Canadian Lloyds and Eastern Savings and Loan Company bills were considered.

G. M. WILSON.

YARMOUTH, N. S.—The Yarmouth church celebrated its twenty-seventh anniversary last Sunday. A sketch of the church's history and letters from absent members were read, and offerings were received towards payment of the church debt.

FREDERICTON, N. B.—Last Sunday four converts were baptized, making thirty-nine since the special meetings began. Several new members received the hand of fellowship in the evening service. The special meetings are now closed.

WM. DE WARE.

FROM REV. J. N. BARNES.—It was just one month last evening since we began the special meetings at Rusagornis, and in that short time much good has been done. The few that were holding on and praying for better days have been much encouraged by a reinforcement of some twenty-five gifts that have been sent, some of them for years, they are now engaged in active service again. The Lord has, indeed, come to bless His people. This is a revival in the right direction. Also, we are glad that some precious souls have been won to Christ, and will, later, follow their Lord in baptism. It was thought best by the brethren to defer baptism on account of the bad condition of the roads, and because some of the people are away on the stream. The church and the pastor are much encouraged in their work. After a few days rest I shall (D. V.) begin special work at the Mouth of Oronecto. I am glad that so many of the brethren are being blessed in their work. "Let all the people praise Him!"

J. N. BARNES.

April 5th, 1901.

MINISTERS.—Rev. A. J. Prosser, pastor at Campo Bello, held special meetings two weeks, but had to discontinue them on account of the prevalence of la grippe.

Rev. John Henderson, who has been in New England nearly all winter, writes that he has had a most pleasant time. He tells of his visit to Rev. J. A. Robertson and family in Boston, to Rev. F. A. Currier in Lowell, and of meeting friends in Providence and other places, all of whom were very attentive. He expects to be home this week.

Licentiate Wm. O. Keirstead, who is at school in New Hampton, N. H., writes that he is getting along very well. He has been preaching every Sunday, but for the remainder of the term, owing to pressure of school work, he will preach only part of the time.

Rev. A. H. McLeod baptized eight converts at Grand Harbour recently.

PUTMAN'S CORN EXTRACTOR

Doesn't lay a man up for a week but quietly and surely goes on doing its work, and nothing is known of the operation till the corn is shelled. Plenty of substitutes do this. Some of them are dangerous, no danger from Putman's except to the corn. At all druggists.

New Brunswick Conference. Moderator, Rev. W. H. Perry Hibernia, Q. Co. Recording Secretary, D. McLeod Vice Esq., Woodstock. Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Dr. McLeod, Fredericton. Treasurer, James Patterson, Esq., St. John.

N. B. LEGISLATURE

MONDAY.—Mr. Hazen's notice of motion to affirm the principle of one man one vote was called up. The principle prevails, he said, in all the great progressive colonies. He was glad to see that the government had accepted this principle and had introduced a bill which would practically accomplish all he asked in his motion. He failed, however, to see any good reason why St. John should be excepted from the operation of the bill.

Mr. Pugsley moved the House into committee to consider the bill relating to succession duties. The government has decided not to reduce the sum at which the succession duty applies, but to leave it at $50,000. The attorney general's fee is to be fixed by a judge of the supreme court, not to exceed 5 per cent.

Mr. Hazen said the legislation is sought for the purpose of adding to the salary of the Attorney General who asks the House to allow him to take out of the revenues received from succession duties about $2,000 a year, whereas we have paid less than $1,700 for the whole of the past six years.

The bill was agreed to.

The bill to enable the city of St. John to supply light, heat, and power was considered in committee and was agreed to.

The bill to increase the salary of the Commissioner for Agriculture from $1,200 to $1,700 was agreed to.

The bill to permit Rev. Mr. Mullin, of Stanley, to solemnize marriage was rejected.

TUESDAY.—The report of the special committee on the claims of Amelia Morton and others against the province reported that no liabilities attached the province.

The bill relating to district courts was agreed to with the provision that it will not go into operation until the next session of the Legislature.

The one man one vote was agreed to.

The bill to allow St. John ratepayers whose taxes had not been paid to vote in civic elections, was withdrawn after discussion.

WEDNESDAY.—The bill amending the liquor license act makes the term of the license commissioners three years, another section abolishes the bottlers' licenses. The clause abolishing beer licenses was withdrawn.

Mr. Tweedie moved and Mr. Hazen seconded an address to King Edward VII.

At 12 o'clock the Lieutenant Governor prorogued the House.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

DENOMINATIONAL NOTICES

At a recent meeting the Executive of the New Brunswick General Conference authorized the Treasurer of Con-

"We always fry ours in Cottolene."

Our Meat, Fish, Oysters, Sarcotoga Chips, Eggs, Doughnuts, Vegetables, etc.

Like most other people, our folks formerly used lard for all such purposes. When it disagreed with any of the family (which it often did) we said it was "too rich." We finally tried and not one of us has had an attack of "richness" since. We further found that, unlike lard, Cottolene had no unpleasant odor when cooking, and lastly Mother's favorite and conservative cooking authority came out and gave it a big recommendation which clinched the matter. So that's why we always fry ours in Cottolene.

Cottolene

Sold in 5 and 10 lb. pails, by all grocers. Made only by THE N. E. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Wellington and Ann Streets, MONTREAL.

DEATHS.

SMITH.—At Salisbury, W. Co., March 29th, Peter Smith, aged 47 years, leaving a widow, one brother and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Brother Smith was confined to his house for five months before he died, suffering the ravages of cancer, which he endured with christian patience. Seven years ago he professed faith in Christ, was baptized and united with the second North River Free Baptist church. He lived a consistent christian life, and in death rejoiced in the fellowship of Jesus.

COATES.—At Graves Settlement, March 31st, David S. Coates, aged 36 years, leaving a wife and three little girls, three brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. His death was very sudden, having been laid up only about two weeks, and is a shock to the whole community, by whom he was much respected. Bro. Coates had never made a profession of religion, but in his illness, sought and found forgiveness and died trusting in his Redeemer. Funeral services April 2nd, conducted by the writer, and attended by the whole sympathizing community.

R. W. FERGUSON.

GIBBERSON.—At Path, N. B., on the 26th of March, Florence Edna, the eldest daughter of Holland S. and Ruth A. Giberson, of Red Rapids Bridge, Vic. Co., in the sixteenth year of her age. Her death occurred here at the home of her grandfather, Mr. David Giberson, where she has been confined by a severe disease for several weeks. She was loved by all who knew her. She died trusting in Jesus. May the relatives and friends be comforted by the assurance that she is "with Christ which is far better." Funeral services conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lockhart.

A HOME CURE.

Consumptives Need not Leave Their Own Homes to be Cured.

The Slocum System

Of Treatment is Offered you Absolutely Free.

A consideration not to be overlooked—the treatment of consumptives is the expense in quest of health. Some of our educated men are now advising their clients to go long distances in the hope of change of air will do them good. A case of solemn nonsense is being said, and then, about change of climate, and its use on the patient. "Stick to low lands," says one. "Go the mountains," says another. How is a poor perplexed sufferer with sore lungs, to decide among different authorities? The fact is, he die of consumption in all climates, if he recover from it too, in all climates, they are treated properly. The only effective cure for the disease is to kill the germ that produce it. This is accomplished under the Slocum system of treatment. The disease must have nothing to feed on. That is the principle underlying the Slocum system. You can do it at your home.

POSITIVELY FREE.

For your sick friends can have a FREE course of treatment. Simply write to THE S. S. SLOCUM MEDICAL CO., Limited, 179 King St. West, Toronto, giving post office and express office address, and free medicine (The Slocum Cure) will be sent.

Reasons in Canada, sending Slocum's free offer in Canadian papers will please send for samples to Toronto laboratories.
