

CIRCULATION NOTES.

See on page seven the announcement concerning the INTELLIGENCER'S Jubilee year. Notice particularly what is said about—(1) New Features; (2) The Premium offer; (3) Now is the Time.

More are added to our list this week. We are glad to have them. More are coming.

A thousand new subscribers—more would be better, but, at least, a thousand—is the celebration of its Jubilee year which will please the INTELLIGENCER. There are more than that many families in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, not now receiving it, into which it should go regularly. Pastors and other friends of the INTELLIGENCER are asked to help secure its introduction into a thousand more homes.

We are thankful for the practical interest many friends of the INTELLIGENCER take in it—not only saying good words about it, but soliciting new subscribers, and often successfully.

We wish that every present subscriber might get a new one. Just try it.

It is very important that all arrears of subscriptions be paid now. The small balances due amount to a considerable sum, which we need to pay the printers, paper-makers and others whose work enters into the making of the INTELLIGENCER. Our friends who are addressed in this note will do us a great kindness by paying up now. Send along your subscription for 1902 at the same time.

We will be glad if the pastors who have not done so recently will say a few words to their people about the INTELLIGENCER. A suggestion about prompt payment of renewals will help. And a word of solicitation may get a number of new subscribers. We are very anxious to have new names from every congregation.

A good number of orders for the INTELLIGENCER'S Premium have been received. We expect in a few days to begin to fill the orders. The pictures will be sent on the "first come first served" plan.

We hope to have to supply several thousands. The sooner your order is in, the sooner it will be filled.

Do not overlook the conditions on which the Premium is given.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

LOWER MILLSTREAM, K. C.—It is a joy I write of the season of rejoicing we have lately experienced in church at Lower Millstream.

Monday, Nov. 18th, special services were begun. My brother, R. Ferguson, of Petitediac, and Rev. H. Nobles of Sussex, assisted in work; the first named continued for me seven evenings, and Bro. Leod, for two evenings. God helped me to help us, and a number have been added for Jesus. On the 27th Nov. brother left to assume again the duties of his own pastorate, and may be blessing of God rest on him, as it has in past, in leading precious souls to Jesus. Good congregations greeted each meeting was blessed. One marked feature of the meetings was the cheerful willingness of the Christians to be faithful witnesses for Jesus, and in their faithfulness God rewarded them by leading loved ones to Him. We thank God for what we have already experienced, but we are trusting and trusting that many more are "almost persuaded," may be fully persuaded to be true followers of Christ, and be willing to follow Him the way. Since the meetings mentioned about twenty have manifested desire to be the Lord's. On Sunday the 1st six converts followed their calling in the ordinance of baptism. The public meetings will be continued the next week, with the prayer that all who have started may be able to sing in the arms of Jesus. Pray that all in the community may know Him, "whom to know aright is eternal life." My prayer is that our reference pastors and people may be led to unitedly labour and pray that precious souls may be born into the Kingdom of Christ, and that this may be the best year of the many good years in our denominational history.

H. H. FERGUSON.

MINISTERS.—Rev. C. F. Cooper has become pastor of the Canning, N. S. church.

Rev. S. J. Perry is encouraged in his work. There is a hopeful interest in the Westfield church.

Rev. E. S. Parker spent a few days on Deer Island. He preached at the Fair Haven and Albert's Cove Sunday 1st inst.

Dr. Hartley has been quite well since the 18th ult. At the close of the Sunday evening service that day he was suddenly attacked with heart trouble, and since then has been confined to his room and has suffered a great deal. On Thursday last he felt somewhat better and was able to write a note. We trust he may soon be able to take up his work again, and that many prayers will be made.

TRANSFERRING SERVICE.—In spite of the unpleasant weather a good congregation met in Tracey's Mills, C. church on the evening of the 4th (4th) inst. The order of service was as follows:—

Love your enemy! Forgive him now; because he may die. Forgive him because he and you may both live for many years. Forgive him, that you may be like Christ.—United Presbyterian.

STARVING CHILDREN.

Thousands of well-fed children are starving, simply because their food is not of the right kind. They are thin, pale, and delicate. Scott's Emulsion will change all this. It gives vim and vigor, flesh and force.

MARRIAGES

WRIGHT-BARTLETT.—At Berwick, Kings Co., N. B., Dec. 3rd, by Rev. H. H. Ferguson, Ernest W. Wright, and Sarah J. Bartlett, both of Studholm, Kings Co.

DEATHS

GILMORE.—At the home of her parents, in Marysville, on the 28th November, Alice Maude, aged 6 years and 7 months, elder daughter of Jas. and Clara Gilmore. She bore her long sickness patiently, and will be much missed among her many friends. Alice was a bright girl and a general favorite among all who knew her. The funeral service which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. A. A. Rideout. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends in this affliction.

MORTON.—At Rockingham, Yarmouth Co., N. S., November 11th, Hannah Mort n, in her eighty-second year. At the same place November 19th, her husband, John H. Morton, in his ninety-second year. Four daughters survive them. For about forty-three years both had been professed followers of Jesus and members of the Free Baptist church. With the love of Jesus in their hearts, strong attachment for each other, kindly relations with all, and exceptionally good health to within a few days of their decease, their lives were blessed and a blessing.

DAVID PATTERSON.

MILLER.—At Royalton, Carleton Co., N. B., on the 6th inst. of diabetes, Mr. Jarvis R. Miller, aged 77 years. Bro. Miller was converted at the age of 21, in some meetings held by neighbors in his father's home in Royalton. He attributes his conversion to the teaching and prayers of his mother. About four years afterward he was baptized by the late Rev. Chas. McMullin, and united with the Free Baptist at Tracy's Mills, and remained a member until his death. He was a firm believer in the Word of God and always sought to maintain a Christian life. During the last months of his illness he often talked to the writer of his hope, in God and his firm faith in the promises. It was always a pleasure to visit him. He leaves an aged and sorrowing widow and seven sons, besides three brothers and two sisters and a very large number of relatives. His body was laid to rest on the 8th inst., in the Ref. Baptist burying ground, and a very large and respectful congregation gathered in the church, where an appropriate service was held by the writer, assisted by the Rev. M. L. Gregg. May the God of all comfort, comfort the hearts of those who mourn.

A. L. BUZAR.

AKERLY.—At Narrows, Queens Co., November 30th, Mrs. Bordman Akerly, aged 43 years. A husband, one son, two brothers and two sisters mourn their loss. Sister Akerly was baptized about 20 years ago by Rev. A. Taylor and united with the Free Baptist church at Tracy Mills, Carleton Co. Two years ago she had her membership transferred from Tracy Mills church to the Free Baptist church at Narrows, Queens county, of which she has been a faithful member. There was probably, not one who was a more faithful attendant at the prayer meeting, nor one whose voice was heard oftener in christian testimony.

H. A. BONNELL.

EAGLES.—Adelaide Street, St. John (North) on Nov. 16th, Harriett, beloved wife of Rainsford Eagles, aged 50 years, leaving a sorrowing husband and one daughter to mourn the loss of a kind wife and mother. She also leaves three sister and one brother. She was a true christian, one who had the evidence in her heart of a Saviour's love, and who manifested it before the world. Those who knew her best, knew that she was a sincere christian. By her death the church loses another worker for the Master.

"We always fry ours in Cottolene." Our Meat, Fish, Oysters, Sarcotoga Chips, Eggs, Doughnuts, Vegetables, etc.

Like most other people, our folks formerly used lard for all such purposes. When it disagreed with any of the family (which it often did) we said it was "too rich." We finally tried Cottolene and not one of us has had an attack of "richness" since. We further found that, unlike lard, Cottolene had no unpleasant odor when cooking, and lastly Mother's favorite and conservative cooking authority came out and gave it a big recommendation which clinched the matter. So that's why we always fry ours in Cottolene.

ST. NICHOLAS For Young Folks.

Are there any boys or girls in your home? If so, do you want them to grow up familiar with the best literature and art, and with all their best impulses quickened? There is a way to do it, at an expense of less than one cent a day,—a way to have in your home the greatest educational influence of our time.

"St. Nicholas for Young Folks" is the medium—a magazine absolutely unequalled in the literature of the world. It is recommended by educators everywhere,—it contains only the very best and most helpful and entertaining literature, and it is illustrated by the greatest of American illustrators.

some new features are to be introduced into this famous periodical—one is the printing of long stories complete in a single number,—no serials. A splendid group of stories by the best living writers for young folks has been gathered for this purpose.

Nature Study

is now a great feature of St. Nicholas. The young readers ask questions and they are answered in a department called "Nature and Science." Private schools take the magazine for this alone. The "St. Nicholas League" is an organization of St. Nicholas readers wherein prizes are offered for the best pictures, stories, poems, etc. $3.00 a year. November and December numbers free to new subscribers who begin with January. November begins the volume.

A beautiful pamphlet (in colors) describing St. Nicholas sent free to any address. Get it for the boys and girls. Address.
