THE

Literary Digest

Issued weekly. 32 pages. Illustrated It is ALL PERIODICALS IN ONE, and gives you in two hours each week the gist of every side of every question in controversy, with absolute impartiality It tells just what basy men and women want to know, and stops there. You can't trip a Literary Digest reader on facts.

CIRCULATION DOUBLED EVERY YEAR

REASON WHY:

It is of "immense assistance" (Senator Frye), and 'no similar publ'cation could take its place" (Senator Faulkner) It is "always read with great avidity" (Donald G. Mitchell), since it is "the most valuable pericdical of its kind" (President Faunce), it is "the best periodical of its class" (Joseph Cook), "invaluable" (ex-Governor Altgeld), ard "an absolute necessity" (Rev. Dr. E. P. Powell); hence "a time saver, a money-saver, and a worry-saver" (Edwin Markham).

BETTER THAN EVER DURING 1902.
