SECOND DISTRICT MEETING. - The annual meeting of the Second District was held at Lower Brighton, C. Co. It began Friday, 14th inst., at 2.30 p. m. Friday was devoted to Sunday school work—hearing reports from the schools and considering questions connected with the work. A half-hour devotional service preceded each meeting. Rev. J. W. Clarke, Chairman of the Dis trict, presided, and, in the absence of the Clerk, Rev. J. B Daggett was clerk pro tem. Reports were received from nineteen schools. The reports were given to a committee to sum-

Rev. M. L. Gregg gave an address on the "Model School." It was interesting and instructive. A number of the brethren took part in the discussion which followed and it was a profitable

In the evening meeting bro. Daggett, for the committee, presented a summary of the Sabbath schools reported. It stated that the reports show encouraging features, one of which is that the schools are responding to the call for reports and statistics much better than formerly. The enrolment of pupils in the schools reported is 913, with 90 teachers; the money reported is $184.40, which the committee said is much less than the actual amount because some of the larger schools failed to siy, what money they had spent in their work. The committee recommended great care in the selection of books for the libraries-that their religious character should be beyond question, that their doctrinal teachings be in accord with our denominational beliefs, and that they, also, be patriotic.—The report brought out a good discussion and was adopted ..... Rev. M. L. Gregg was invited to a seat.

Rev. A. W. Currie gave an excellent address on the "Relation of the Sun. class of employes. Through day school to the church." It was very suggestive. Following it were several brief speeches ..... Thanks were voted to brethren Gregg and Currie for their addresses. The rain on Friday interferred some what with the attendance, but the meetings were good, and did good.

SATURDAY .- There was prayer meeting at 9. a. m., led by Rev. T. O. DeWitt—a good meeting. At 10.30 a. m. the conference meeting of the session began. The pastor, Rev. J B. Daggett, had charge of the meeting, assisted in the opening exercises by the Chairman of the District, Rev. J W. Clarke. It was a refreshing meeting, in which many christians spoke of their faith in Christ, and of precious experiences of His presence and love.

At 2.30 p. m. a business meeting was held, Rev. J. W. Clarke in the chair; the Clerk of the District, bro. W. J. Owens, was, also, present. Prayer by Rev. L. A. Ferwick. Reports from the churches were read, made for him. and were referred to a committeebrethren Dunn, DeWitt, Nevers and West-to summarize. Other committees were, also, appointed.....In accordance with notice given last year, Ray. J. B. Daggett moved to change the time of holding the annual meetman syndicate has been ing to an earlier day in the week. The question was pretty thoroughly discussed, those favonrable to the proposed change taking the ground that it would be better to avoid so great crowds as now gather on the Sunday at the grave of the late Rev. Wm. some waking up to the of District Meeting, and to enable the of temperance reform in pastors to return to their churches for chased by contributions of the churches adland. An effort is being Sunday; those opposed to the change St. John's, to close the liquor arguing that it is good to have as many at 6 p. m., and open them at people together as possible, and that Also to have all the liquor if the meeting does not include dyzed, and to debar girls oc- Sunday much of its interests and use fulness would be lost. The motion did not carry, the meeting being nearly evenly divided in the vote. Bro. Daggett gave notice that he would move it again next year. At 8 p. m. there was a missionary meeting, under the auspices of the District W. M. Society. [The Society had held its business meeting in the afternoon.] Mrs. C. Holmes, President of the Society, & Eupied the chair, by Rev. J. Noble. Mrs. Dr. Secord, Sec.-Treas. of the Society, presented the report. It showed the receipts this year considerably larger than in ald tells that a congregational any previous year. The report and Port Morris lost both the the other features of the meeting will, doubtless, te published later in theW. M. department of the Intelligencer.

SUNDAY .- The services on Sunday

August as date for the Seventh District | DeWitt preached in the Reformed Meeting. In consideration of the Baptist church at 10.30; Dr. McLeod at Hartland at 7.30; and Licentiate Rideout in Woodstock morning and evening. In the afternoon service, the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants. The congregations at all The change has been made in notice | the Sunday meetings were large, and there was a good interest.

> Monday at 8 a. m. business was resumed. Prayer by Rev. H. Hartt. After roll call and the reading of minutes, the Chairman for the ensuing This token showed the feeling of year was elected. Rev. L. A. Fenwick was the choice of the meeting, with had with him in his work, and he Rev. H. Hartt as assistant.....The church at Lindsay, by its delegate, bro. Cheney, invited the District Meeting to hold the next annual session there. The invitation was accepted..... The following delegates to Conference were appointed: brethren C. Vanwart, H. Briggs, T. M. Jones, F. A. Page and S. Foster: substitutes -brethren F. B. Dunn, W. McGee, W. Jamieson and H. London.

By a change in the regulations of the Board of Education the annual school meeting is held on the third Saturday in June. This conflicting with the time of holding the District Meeting, 1t was voted that the next annual session of the District be on the Friday preceding the fourth Saturday in June, at 10.30 a. m..... The committee on church reports, by bro. F. B. Dunn, presented a summary of statistics, showing that twenty-four churches had sent reports, their membership being 1759, that 33 were baptized during the year, the net increase being 19. Twenty Sunday Schools were reported; during the year there had been 770 preaching services, 252 conferences, and 1292 prayer meetings. The committee suggested that next year the clerks of churches be more careful to give all churches. Will the clerks of the the information asked for in the report | churches see that their reports are form; and that the observance of the Lord's Supper be with more regularity. The report was fully and wisely dis cussed by both ministers and laymen. We have not for a long time heard so good a discussion of the condition of be filled out and signed by the clerk of the cause, and we believe good will the District, and on presentation of come of it.....Brethren Dunn, Daggett and Currie were elected members of the District Executive. The Executive was appointed a committee to arrange the programme for next year's session, announcing it in the INTELLIGENCER several weeks before the time of the session..... A vote of thanks to the church and people of Lower Brighton for their hospitality was heartily adopted.....Revs. J W. Clarke, and J. B. Daggett and deacon White spoke of the INTELLI-GENCER, and urged its claims on the people.....The business was completed about noon. The ministers present during the session were,-Revs. J. Noble, DeWitt, McLeod, Hartt, Clarke, Currie, Daggett, Fenwick and Gregg, and licentiate Rideout. It was good to find bro. Noble so well, and his words of counsel were helpful. All regretted the absence of Rev. J Perry, and especially the accident that prevented his presence, and he was not forgotten in the prayers of the brethren. A special offering was, also,

On Friday, June 21st, about a dozen of the people of Tracey Station met at the parsonage and presented Mrs. Hartley with a baby carriage. Again a pleasant evening was spent between pastor and people, and the goodly feeling already existing still further strengthened. While we feel to thank the friends for the substantial gifts they have left us, still more do we thank them for those kindly motives which prompted such action, and we lift up both heart and voice in praise unto Him from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, as we realize more and more that we are indeed workers together.
