

DOCTORS BAFFLED

By the Case of Mrs. Harrison, of Orangeville.

SHE WAS COMPLETELY RUN DOWN—RACKED WITH PAINS IN THE BACK, HEAD AND LIMBS—AGAIN REJOICING IN GOOD HEALTH.

From the Sun, Orangeville, Ont.

Many cases are constantly being brought to light of persons being cured by that wonderful remedy—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—after doctors have failed to be of benefit.

To those who are weak, easily tired, nervous, or whose blood is out of condition, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills come as a blessing, curing when all other medicines fail and restoring those who give them a fair trial to a full measure of health and strength.

SLEEF-VANWART.—At the residence of the bride's father, on the 19th inst., by Rev. J. W. Clarke, George Vanward Slipp, of Hampstead, Queens Co., to Miss Phoebe E. Vanwart, of Evandale, Kings Co.

DEATHS.

SMITH.—Simeon Smith, aged 87 years.

PHILIPS.—At Ft'on Junction, June 7th, John Philips, aged 37. Funeral from late residence, under auspices of the Orange Order. Interment at Tracey. The deceased leaves a wife to mourn the sadness of a broken home.

TOMPKINS.—At Upper Kent, Carleton Co., on June 6th, 1900, after a short but painful illness, Mrs. Pearl Tompkins, beloved wife of Mr. Harold F. Tompkins, in the two eighth years of her age, leaving a sorrowing husband, an infant child, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The Lord comfort and sustain them under this heavy stroke of bereavement. Funeral sermon was preached by the writer, who was assisted in the services by Rev. J. S. Gregg, B. A., (Methodist).

MERRITT L. GREGG.

GAUNCE.—At Carsonville, K. Co. on June 6th, Christopher Gaunce passed peacefully to his rest after an illness of only a few days, at the ripe age of 85 years. Bro. Gaunce early in life professed faith in Christ, and was baptized and united with the Free Baptist Church at Hampstead; on changing his place of abode he united with the church at Upper Millstream, of which he continued a member until summer 1885, when he returned to Carsonville. Five sons, one daughter and four brothers survive him, and a number of grand-children, (one of whom is the missionary Miss Gaunce), and a number of great grand-children. He died trusting Jesus, and is with him. Interment took place at Carsonville burying ground. A large concourse of mourners and friends followed his remains to their final resting place, which testified of the esteem in which he was held. Services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. C. W. Hamilton (Methodist).

H. H. FERGUSON.

GAMBLIN.—At Apohaqui, K. Co. on June 17th, Mary, beloved wife of Isaac Gamblin passed peacefully to her rest, after a long illness, which was borne with christian fortitude, without a murmur or complaint. Sister Gamblin, early in life accepted Christ as her Saviour, and all through her protracted and painful illness realized the presence of Him who said, 'I am with you always, even to the end.' A calm, peaceful resignation to God's will was manifest to the end. As a church member she was a consistent one, a loving wife, and one who won golden opinions from all whose happy privilege it was to meet her, and her memory will long live in the hearts of all who knew her. Interment took place from the Apohaqui Free Baptist Church, which was suitably decorated for the occasion by her many friends. The remains rest beside those of her uncle (bro. Milard McLeod) whom she dearly loved, and with whom she lived from childhood. God comfort a sorrowing husband, father and brother who still survive her, and a great number of relatives one of whom, (sister Ruth McLeod) remained with her during her entire illness and cheerfully and tenderly ministered to her wants. Services were conducted by the writer, assisted by the Rev. B. H. Noble.
