Does this illustrate your experience? And are you worried for fear you are soon to be bald?

Then cease worrying, for help is at hand. You need something that will put new life into the hair bulbs.

You need a hair food.

It brings health to the hair, and the falling ceases.

It always restores color to gray hair. You need not look at thirty as if you were fifty, for your gray hair may have again all the dark, rich color of youth.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I am a barber by trade and have had a great deal to do with your Hair Vigor. I have found that it will do everything that you claim for it. It has given me the most complete satisfaction in my business." HENRY J. GEORGE,
Malch 22, 1899. Kansas City Mo. March 22, 1899. Kansas City, Mo.

Write the Doctor. If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it.

Address, Dr. J. C. AYER,

Quarter First. Lesson 7, Feb', 17, 1961 THE LORD'S SUPPER -

Matthew 26: 17 30 GOLDEN TEXT.—This do in re membrance of me —Lake 22:19.

HISTORICAL SETTING.

Time -Thursday afternoon and evening, April 6, A. D. 30. Place. - An upper room in Jeru-(Possibly the home of Mary the m ther of Mark, and where the Holy Spirit was poured out on Pentecost. - Professor Gilbert.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE PASSOVER MEAL - Vs. 17 19. The first day ... of un'eavened bread. That is, of the Passover festival, during which only unleavened bread was us d. The first great day of the Passover, which lasted a week, be gan at sunset on the evening after the 14th (Toursday). The Passover was celeb ated on the night of the full moon, the 15th of Nisan, beginning at sunset of the previous

On Thursday the disciples asked Jesus where they were to make the necessary preparations for keeping the feast. A room was needed and unleavened bread, bitter herbs, wine, and a paschal lamb, which must be slain in the temple between three and five o'clock and cooked in a priva e house.

ASSEMBLING IN THE UPPER ROOM. -V .20. When . . . even was come. Jesus must have started late in the afternoon, and reached the upper room about sunset. In that large, upper room Jesus spent his last quiet hours with his disciples. It may have been in the home of Mary the mother of Mark. He sat down, R. V., " was sitting." They reclined on couches arranged on three sides of a low table, resting on the left arm, so that the right was free. Their feet were extended away from the table, and were not under it; as with us.

THE STRIFE TO BE FIRST.—Luke 22: 24. This contention is recorded only in Luke. The strife pro bably began when the disciples were assembling in the upper room and about to take their places at the table. There arose a contention among the disciples as to who should be the greatest, probably with reference to the place of nearness to Jesus, with an outlook toward the highest places in the new kingdom which was soon to begin. Also, because no one was willing to take upon himself the duty of washing the travel soiled feet of the company. But, except in Judas' case, we may be sure that the best of motives were mingled with the unworthy ones, and that they want ed to be near him whom they loved, and to be most useful in the work of the kingdom.

JESUS WASHES HIS DISCIPLES FEET, - John 13: 1-20; Luke 22: 24-30. Just after all were seated We have a very erroneous idea of the meaning of this action if we imagine that it was performed for an example to humanity. It was simply a humb'e service that ought to have been done by the disciples, but which they neglected to do Washing the feet on entering a house was an act of respect to the company and of re'reshment to the traveller. The disciples sat down to the meal without having their feet washed, the disciples should have done it for one another, since they had no servants to do it for thom. Jesus gave them time to come to a better mind. Then he performed the service himself No wonder that the conscience smitten disciples were amazed.

A Lesson of Humble Service. The washing of the disc ples' feet was saying in the language of action that the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and that the law of his kingdom was the law of helpfulness. We are to imitate not the form, but the spirit of Christ. To go through a ceremonial of washing each others feet as on Thursday in Holy Week in Rome the Pope washes the feet of a few aged paupers, after due private preparation, is not to do as Chr st did. Jesus did not institute a rite, but showed us the true spirit. He that does the humblest service in order to relieve the wants of others, or cleanse their souls from sin; he that forgets himself and seeks no honor, but only to serve and to help,-he does to them as Christ did to the disciples. Transfigured Service. Love to God and love to men, transfigure the commonest service. Much that a mother does for her child, is very lowly service, that would be hard hut for love.
