Bird-Shot For Tiger.

No use to hunt tigers with bird-shot. It doesn't hurt the tiger any and it's awfully risky for you.

Consumption is a tiger among diseases. It is stealthy—but once started it rapidly eats up the flesh and destroys the life. No use to go hunting it with ordinary food and medicine. That's only bird-shot. It still advances. Good heavy charges of Scott's Emulsion will stop the advance. The disease feels that.

Scott's Emulsion makes the body strong to resist. It soothes and toughens the lungs and sustains the strength until the disease wears itself out.

has cast the shadow of a great gloom over the whole community where she lived. She had been in ill health, for some time, but it was not supposed her case was so serious. But her physician recommended that Dr. Atherton be called in to see her. After a short consultation between the two physicians it was decided to at once remove her to the Hospital. This was a difficult and painful experience for her, for she suffered greatly on the road to the station. It was on Saturday she was taken to the Hospital, and Sunday morning, the 8th inst., she was operated on for cancer of the bowels. It was seen at once that she could not long survive. At 9.20 p. m. of the same day the change came, and she peacefully and resignedly passed into eternal rest. Her husband and her mother were by her side until the last. On leaving her home she gave such instructions to her daughter and husband and two adopted sons as implied that she did not expect to survive the operation, and, therefore, would not see them again in this world. Our sister was in the 39th year of her age. She was baptized in early girlhood by Rev. S. E. Currie and united with the Free Baptist Church at Upper Hainesville, York Co. She was a good woman, and of quiet habits. A sorrowing husband, one daughter one son and two adopted sons, her father and mother brothers and sisters, and numerous other relations and friends survive her. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. J. Barnes, in the Upper Hainesville F. B. Church in the presence of an unusually large assembly of people. Rev. M. Gaskin, evangelist, was present and took part in the services.

J. J. Barnes.

SHAW.—At the residence of his nephew Nathaniel Suow, South Wakefield, C. Co. the 7th June, Cyrus M. Shaw, aged 80 years. Bro. Shaw was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and strength of character. For years he was foreman for Hon. Charles Perley, who did a large lumber business at Springhill. He was converted many years ago, and was baptized by the Rev. E. Sippell. As a Christian he had the humility and affection of a little child; he loved his Bible and the companionship of the good; he had faith in the atonement of his Saviour, and believe that through His merit he would enter into eternal life. His father was Elisha Shaw, of Wakefield, one of the sturdy pioneers of the Province. He was one of seventeen children. The funeral service was held at Victoria Corner, and he was buried where so many of his kindred sleep. Revs. J. Perry, J. B. Daggett, C. T. Phillips and the pastor, Licentiate Wilson, took part in services, bro. Phillips preaching from Psalm 17:1.
