THE KING VACCINATED. - The Lon don Mail of a recent date speaking of the precautions being taken against smallpox, says,-"The King h mse f was vaccinated before he went to Sandringham, but his arm has not been very inflamed The Duchess of Con. naught has been vaccinated no less than three times, as the first and second time there was scarcely any result ; while the third time was so successful that she is only now recovering from rather a bad arm. More people are being vaccinated than ever before, and it is quite the exception now to meet any one who has not undergone the inconvenient operation. Moreover, so deep-seated is the conviction that this is a very necessary precaution that a number of wellknown peop'e have been vaccinated more than once.

POLITICAL NEWS .- Hon. J. B. Snowball has been appointed Governor of New Brunswick. He will be sworn in in a few days. Mr. Snowball was a member of the Commons for Northumberland Co., and for several years has been a member of the Senate.

These two years of christian work among the Free Baptist of this Island have greatly brought us together. This is as it should be. We have a noble young people in all these congregations. Would to God they were all in the church and holding daily communion with their heavenly Father. In looking over my field of work, as I often see it when at my desk, as well as when making calls, I feel how unprepared I am for this great work. Nevertheless this apology does not disengage me from my object, nor does it lessen their esteem and respect for their pastor.

The excellent reputation which Mr. Weddall has established as a business man will be maintained by the new firm, and the many friends of both partners will wish them steadily increasing success.

THE WORLD RELIGIOUSLY.

Every year the Allgemeine Zeitung of Munich publishes a carefully prepared estimate of the religious - tatistics of the world. According to the estimate for the present year, there are in Europe 384 500,000 Caristi ans, 6,600,-000 Mohammedans, 6.500,000 Jews. Ia all America there are 126,400,000 Christians ; the Jews and heathen are not given. In Asia there re 12,600. 000 Christians, 100,500.000 Mohammedans, 200,000 Jews and 667,800,000 pagans. In Africa are 4 400,000 Christians, 36,000,000 Moslems. 400 -000 Jews, and 19,000,000 heathen. And in Oce-nica are 9,700,000 Christians, 24.700,000 Moslems, and 4 400,000 heathen. In the whole world there are 240,000,000 Catholics. 163,300,000 Protestants, and 98,300. 000 Greeks, or a total of 501,000,000 Coristians in a population of 1,544,-509,000. It is a striking fact that Protestants are increasing in numbers faster than Catholics. In English speaking lands Ireland alone has a maj rity of Catholics. The wealthiest Catholic Church is that of France.

The census figures report Rhode Island the most deusely populated of all the states, notwithstanding that others have the large cities. Massachusetts stands second.
