

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

PETITCODIAC-CORN HILL PASTORATE. I am sure it delights the heart of every one to read the encouraging things reported by the pastors in the denominational news columns of the INTELLIGENCER. "The harvest truly is great."

salvation, when I told him how I had been moved in my mind on the subject, said, "Why, you are converted. I said no I am not. And after days and months and years of trouble and anxiety I received the spiritual life, the heavenly calling, the divine nature the love of God given to me as a free gift, Christ in me the hope of glory. And I had learned from the Scripture how I was, to retain and keep in the love of God, for I had read the Bible so that I knew every part of it so far as word was concerned. I do not know of anything I believe now that I did not believe then, but I was not an experienced christian. I saw plainly that I must deny myself and take up the cross, and crucify the old nature and mortify mortify what the Apostle calls the flesh, and destroy the old man with his deeds. It became quite easy, as I was taken up with my own salvation and the salvation of the old man with his deeds. It became quite easy, as I was taken up with my own salvation and the salvation of the old man with his deeds. It became quite easy, as I was taken up with my own salvation and the salvation of the old man with his deeds."

FOR EVERY MOTHER. A MANITOBA MOTHER GIVES PRACTICAL ADVICE ON THE CARE OF BABIES. It is well known that nearly all infant troubles spring from a disordered stomach. Indigestion in a child will cause at first peevishness and sleeplessness, but other more serious troubles will follow fast, such as colic or cramps, constipation in some cases, diarrhoea in others, with fatal results in many cases. The mother who neglects having constantly at hand the means for treating these ills takes an awful risk. Mrs. R. L. McMillan, Logoch, Man., is one mother who is particularly well fitted to give advice on the care of babies. Her standard medicine for the minor ailments of her little ones is Baby's Own Tablets, and she says: "They are the best medicine I have ever used for infant ailments. I have given them to my baby for indigestion and stomach trouble and they are prompt and thorough in making a cure. No mother should be a single day without the Tablets in the house."

B., on Feb. 18th Mary, wife of David Giberson, aged 56 years. Sister Giberson, was only ill a few hours, but the messenger did not find her unprepared. About twenty years ago she professed faith in Christ and united with the church and continued a faithful witness for Him. The husband two sons and three daughters survive. L. A. F. BARKER.—At Bath, N. B. on Feb. 25th Step on Barker, aged 68 years. Bro. Barker had been for years a great sufferer, being confined to the house a part of nearly every winter with asthma. While he suffered much he did not complain. Bro. Barker was converted under the labors of Father Noble and united with the church at Bath. His life was consistent with his profession. He leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. L. A. F. GRAY.—At the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Whitfield Shaw, on the 26th of March Deacon James Gray, 86 years and five months old, leaves one son, three daughters two brothers, three sisters, several grandchildren, with other relatives and numerous friends to mourn their loss. The cause of his death, as a ready stated in the INTELLIGENCER, was injuries received in falling from a wagon. He lived five days after the accident. Brother Gray professed religion when he was about 16 years old was baptized by his uncle, Elder Ezekiel Sipprell, and joined the Free Baptist church in Lower Brighton and remained a member until middle life. Such had been his life that he was unanimously appointed deacon. When a church was organized in the place where he lived he joined there, and was chosen the senior deacon, which office he filled to the satisfaction of church and community till death. Brother Gray was a christian wherever he was at home or abroad, in the house of God and out of it. In his earlier years, indeed till he was quite an old man, he used to run rafts down the river. Before steam boats came into use the men used to walk back, some times quite a number together. Among them would often be some very wild men, especially if they had been drinking whiskey. At such times brother Gray would let his "light shine" in his quietness or gentle reproof, as he thought best; and by even the wickedest he was respected. He loved his church and his pastor, whoever he might be, and if division took place, which sometimes was the case, and came very close to him, he always stood by his brethren. His funeral was attended by the writer, assisted by brethren Perry and Daggett. J. NOBLE.

MINISTERS.—Rev. F. S. Hartley was in the city a few days ago, and called at the INTELLIGENCER office. He reports church work at Fredericton Junction moving along very well. Rev. W. C. Kierstead, M. A. has been awarded a Fellowship for 1902-1903 in the University of Chicago. Rev. F. A. Currier M. A., pastor of Woodstock church, is spending a few days at Upper Gagetown and vicinity. Rev. Dr. Hartley, got a little cold and was not quite so well during the last week, and had to remain in the house. Rev. L. A. Fenwick has just begun special meetings at Beechwood, C. Co. The outlook is good. Licentiate W. O. Kierstead writes: "I like my work here (St. John West) very much. The people are very kind to me." Rev. E. S. Parker will be at Beaver Harbour next Saturday and Sunday. MONCTON, N. B.—I baptized a young woman at the close of the morning service, March 16th, and in the evening two young women united with the church. There are others who have accepted Christ, and we hope they will be willing to obey their Lord. The spiritual condition of the church in Moncton is good. All the services are largely attended. An increase of fifteen in the church membership is very encouraging. The Lord help us to be faithful. The church property at Lutz Mountain has recently been transferred to Conference, and trustees appointed. Quite extensive repairs will be made on the church building soon. I expect (D. V.) to hold a few special meetings at Dover as soon as the roads settle. I have not been able to get to Taylor Village regularly during the winter, the storms and bad roads have prevented me doing so; but I will go there as often as I can. I would suggest that our ministers and churches pray to God for a missionary to represent us in India; if we believe that our prayers will be answered, God will give us the persons for whom we pray. GIDEON SWIM. March 29th.

A SURE CURE FOR CONSTIPATION There is no such thing, Scott's Emulsion comes the nearest to it, but even that will not cure advanced cases, but taken in time it will cure this disease.
