

ON THE ISLANDS.

The month of December was spent with the churches on Deer Island. Four churches comprise this excellent pastorate: Lambert's Cove, Northern Harbour, Fair Haven and Chocolate Cove. It is to be regretted that no man is at present available to take charge of these churches, where the possibilities for extending the Lord's kingdom are so great. It is indeed a field "white already to harvest."

whose I am and whom I am trying to serve. A. J. PROSSER. Jan. 7th, 1902. DEER ISLAND, N. B.—Bro. W. J. Doucette writes that he has been on Deer Island since August last. He has conducted meetings as opportunity offered at Northern Harbour, and with encouraging results. A Sabbath school has been established. The school had a successful concert at Christmas. An organ has been purchased. There are, he thinks, signs of spiritual blessing.

BROWN'S FLAT, K. CO.—A Christmas tree and concert was held in the Free Baptist church at this place on New Year's Eve. The programme as follows: Chorus, Beautiful Christmas morning, by six girls. Recitation, Welcome, by Maudie Short. Recitation, by Etta Crabbe. Dialogue, by Pearl Brown, Milton Gorham and Stanley Short. Solo, by Mrs. Wm. Brown. Recitation, by Pearl Campbell. Recitation, by Helen Gorham. Recitation, by Lillian Williamson. Duet, by May Short and Pearl Campbell. Recitation, by Winnie Wallace. Recitation, by May Short. Chorus, Ring Merry Bells, by six girls. Recitation, by Mary Perry. Recitation, by Alice Short. Solo, by Mrs. Wm. Brown. Chorus, Pennies, Dimes and Nickles, by four children. Recitation, by Blaine Perry.

Santa Claus then appeared, much to the amusement of the children, and distributed the presents which were numerous. All pronounced it a decided success. The Methodists hung bags of candy on the tree for their children. Much credit is due the ladies who had the matter in charge. Closed by singing the National Anthem. S. J. PERRY.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—About one hundred and twenty five of the kind friends from various portions of the pastorate, assembled at the parsonage at Lr. Millstream, on the evening of Jan. 4th, to make the pastor a donation. While the friends were being fed by the good things provided by the ladies, Bro. Zebu' on Gauce, who was appointed Chairman for the evening, and bro. Hazen Folkins, Secretary, were busily engaged in recording names and receiving contributions from the many who seemed to realize the truthfulness of God's word that, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." After contributions had ceased the Chairman, in an appropriate and feeling address presented the gift, $61 10, which I gratefully received and acknowledged. After brief addresses by bro. D. Fenwick, F. Fenwick, J. Reicker, G. Stewart, H. F. lkins and D. Parks. Mrs. C. W. Weyman presented the organist of the Lr. Millstream church (Miss Bertie McAuley) with a purse, which was gratefully acknowledged. H. H. FERGUSON. Jan. 10th, 1902.

CARLETON COUNTY FREE BAPTIST PREACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Several of the Free Baptist ministers of Carleton Co. met at the home of Rev. G. W. Foster on Monday, the 6th inst. After greetings and fellowship, dinner was announced. Sister Foster had certainly prepared for the good appetites which the beautiful frosty morning and long drive had given us. Father Perry gave thanks. After dinner Rev. J. B. Daggett called the brethren to order and Rev. G. W. Foster was elected chairman of the meeting, and Rev. M. L. Gregg was appointed Secretary. Bro. Foster feelingly spoke words of welcome to his brethren, and told how he had looked forward to this meeting with much pleasurable anticipation. Bro. Daggett spoke of a similar organization in the Sixth District when he was pastor there. Bro. Gregg spoke of how he had taken it upon himself to call the brethren together, and how bro. Foster had kindly invited us to meet in our first meeting at his home, and how heartily the brethren had responded to the call. The meetings, he believes, will be productive of mutual helpfulness. Rev. J. B. Daggett then moved resolutions, which after some amendments, were adopted as follows: "RESOLVED:—(1) That this meeting be known as 'The Carleton County Free Baptist Preachers' Institute.' (2) That its object be the promotion of fraternal fellowship, and a general consideration of our work and methods. (3) The membership shall consist of the F. B. Ministers of the First and Second Districts. Moved by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, A. B. "That meetings be on the first Monday of each month at 2 p. m. Carried.

A motion was carried, "That the next meeting be held at the Free Baptist Parsonage, Tracey's Mills. The meeting then took up the question of how the preaching service which immediately follows the Sunday school can be made most effective. This was followed by a discussion on the subject, "Should Preaching and Testimony be united, or distinct and separate?" Outline for next meeting is as follows: 1. Devotional exercises. 2. Informal discussion of "Our Work." 3. Paper on "Relation of the church to Political Citizenship," by Rev. L. A. Fenwick, A. B. 4. Outline of Doctrinal Sermon, by Rev. John Perry. New Business. 5. Closing.

DEATHS

McLAUGHLIN.—At North Head, Grand Manan Dec 31st, Mrs. Maggie McLaughlin, widow of the late Capt. Daniel McLaughlin, in the 64th year of her age. Mrs. McLaughlin was baptized about 34 years ago by Rev. J. T. Parsons. Hers was a noble christian life;—her words and works testified to her true love for Christ and his church. PRICE.—Oct. 29th of consumption, at Post Oak, Texas, U. S., Ford O. Price M. D. aged 30 years, third son of Deacon Oswald N. and B. P. Price, of Havelock, Kings Co. N. B., leaving the sorrowing parents, four brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. Dr. Price was converted at the age of 13 years, was a teacher in this Province for several years, then took a course of study at Pietou N. S. Academy after which he took a course at Bowdoin (Me) Medical College, graduating from there with honors about five years ago. But close application to study, combined with a frail constitution, had broken his health, and he sought its recovery at H t Springs, Ark., where he practised for some time, after which he tied the drier climate of Arizona, and thence he removed to Post Oak, Texas, always getting weaker, yet always hoping for recovery. There he built up a lucrative practice, when death claimed him at the early age of 30 years. From letters received from ministers and others at Post Oak, the parents and brothers and sisters have the consolation of knowing that he died surrounded by eve y care and comfort, and with his trust stayed on the "solid rock" Christ Jesus the Lord. We pray God to bring home to their hearts the blessedness of the thought that Heaven is as close to Texas as New Brunswick, for the Saviour has said:—"Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."
