He has decided on a plan for the employment of natives in the work of the mines. He proposes to abolish flogging and rigidly to control the liquor traffic among the blacks. The high commissioner admits this latter to be a tremendous undertaking, but says: "While I realize the difficulties I also feel that we are bound to overcome them. The whole credit of the administration is at stake. am confident that His Majesty's Government will support our view, that no trouble or expense should be spared in carrying out a policy which if successful means a momentous triumph for civilization in this part of the world." These words are well spoken. The suppression of the liquor traffic would be indeed a "momentous triumph for civilization."

SOUTH AFRICA.

Lord Kitchener reports numerous captures by the British forces in South Africa. A number of leading men have of late been captured.

Recent reports of risings in Cape Colony and Natal were not well grounded. Order is restored in large districts of both the new colonies, and the great mining industries are again active.

Many attempts were made to break through the line on February 7, the line of outposts being attacked at various places. But very few escaped, and dead Boers were picked up in the morning near Heilbron. "I did not get exact details of the Boer casualities," continued Lord Kitchener, "but as far as I had ascertained they consist of 283 in killed, wounded and prisoners, as well as about 700 horses and many cattle. Our casualities are only ten."

RESTLESS LITTLE ONES

PEEVISHNESS AND SLEEPLESSNESS A SURE SIGN THAT BABY IS UNWELL.

When babies are restless, cross, or peevish it is the surest possible sign of illness. Well babies sleep soundly and are cheerful and | layful when awake. When baby is cross too many mothers give so-called "soothing" medicines, which contain opiates that deaden but do not remove the trouble. What is wanted is a medicine that will go right to the root of the trouble and make baby sleep well, eat well and be cheerful in a natural way. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets, which are sold under an absolute guarantee that they c ntain neither opiates nor otther harm-drugs.
