

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

part of the second year to correct and adjust. This first year has been no exception to the rule. But with the mistakes and failings, I believe we know and understand each other better and are nearer together than we were a year ago, and are in a better position to help each other. We shall seek to forget the things which are behind, and press on to the mark of the prize of a year of good service for our Master and His kingdom in this the second year.

The churches of the pastorate are very low spiritually, and yet far from dead. There is no small degree of life, which, when aroused, proves itself to have much power, as has been demonstrated by the attack of the churches upon the liquor traffic. Early in the year, matters had come to such a pass that the state was intolerable; war was declared, and vigorously waged; and had it not been for the interference of the government and its tools a most complete victory would have been won. As it is, the business has been taught a lesson, and has a wholesome fear of the Christian men and women of the community; and if any rum is sold in our midst today it is under the shadow and cloud and in the midst of fear and trembling. Some day soon the church hopes to make an end of the thing here.

Early in the spring we began to direct our attention towards building a parsonage. It was generally admitted to be a great necessity, but it was deemed almost an impossibility. A few took hold of the project with vim and energy, and the majority soon began to get interested, with the result that today they have a building that is a credit not only to the pastorate, but to the denomination as well. True, there is some debt, but the greater part of the cost is paid and the debt can and will soon be wiped out. The people have been trying their strength and have learned that they are capable of much more than they had thought. I have never seen so large a work begun and carried on so smoothly, with so little friction, as this; they have worked as one man, with one thought. This year I purpose giving more attention to evangelistic work than in the past, and we are hoping to see many come to Christ and unite with the churches. We have a splendid company of young people who should be giving their lives and service to the Lord; we hope to see them soon wearing the yoke and bearing the burden.

On every hand one hears words of loving sympathy for the editor of the INTELLIGENCER, because of the accident which has laid him aside for a time from his regular duties, and all hope for a speedy restoration.

A MUSICAL EDUCATOR.—No instrument or invention of modern times has ever approached the Berliner Gramophone in the faithful reproduction of vocal and instrumental music. It stands without a peer—furnishes entertainment for young and old and cultivates a refined and intelligent taste for music.

IN EVERY HOME.—No matter how far removed from cities and musical centres, no member of the family need be ignorant of the masterpieces of the musical world, old or new. New records are constantly being added to the great catalogue of selections which includes everything worth hearing in music or song.

AT MERELY NOMINAL COST.—It would cost a fortune, and not even in a lifetime could one hear, in the original, all the selections which famous artists, bands and orchestras have made solely for the Berliner Gramophone, yet you can hear them all on the Gramophone in your own home at any time for a trifling cost, and hear them rendered with a degree of perfection and fidelity impossible of attainment by the average performer.

HOW TO GET ONE. EASY PAYMENT PLAN. Fill out the Coupon and send it to us with one dollar, and we will ship the Gramophone to you. Enclose two dollars extra if you want spun brass horn. Send your order for extra records at the same time and save extra expressage. Almost any vocal or instrumental music you wish can be had—or we'll send complete list of records.

The Gramophone arrived in perfect order. All are surprised and pleased with it. You will doubtless receive many orders from this part of the country.

Rev. B. Kiernan, Quyon, Que.

Your records are ahead of any I ever heard.

Rev. D. Matte, Hospice St. Joseph, Que.

The Gramophone I bought of you a few months ago is giving entire satisfaction, and is admired and praised by all who have heard it.

Rev. J. Vaillancourt, Levis, Que.

The Gramophone is still giving satisfaction. It is difficult for a talking machine to reproduce a song or music more distinctly than mine.

Rev. Pere A. Carion, Kamloops, B. C.

Permit me to tell you that I am perfectly satisfied with the Gramophone I bought of you. It is a source of endless amusement to the children of our school as well. I do not think anything more perfect could be invented.

The records are still in good condition, although they have been used hundreds of times.

OF OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

—A new church of the Disciples at Nauwigewauk, K. Co., was dedicated last Sunday.

—The Grafton St. Methodist Church, Halifax, has employed a deaconess to assist the pastor in the work of the church. Centenary church, St. John, has applied for one to the Training Home, Toronto.

—The Rev. H. N. Parry, who recently assumed the pastorate of the Baptist church in Gaspereaux, N. S. died very suddenly Wednesday morning of heart failure.

FIFTY YEARS.—Rev. J. M. McLeod, (Presbyterian) formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I., but now of Vancouver, B. C., a few days ago celebrated the completion of fifty years in the active ministry. Mr. McLeod has been an able preacher, and a strong man all round. He is yet in vigorous health.

The Standard Oil Co. again raises the price of kerosene and adds $10,000,000 a year to its revenue. Within three years the price of oil has increased from eight and one-half to thirteen and one-half cents a gallon. Other productions of the company have been correspondingly increased in price. Rockefeller must be thinking of giving another million dollars to his pet university. Since a tenth of his income goes to the Lord, he probably thinks that takes off the curse of stealing from the other nine-tenths. He seems to be about the biggest "pick pocket" out of prison. It might be a means of grace to him if he would make a careful study of Habakkuk 2:5-7, and Isaiah 5:8.—Free Baptist.
