THE MAGAZINES.

The Methodist Magazine for November is rich in illustrated articles, among them: "The British House of Commons," "The Keswick Movement," and "Picturesque Ireland." "A Typical Canadian Camp-Meeting," by Dr. Sutherland, is a vivid picture of an old-time scene. "Our First Martyr in China" is a story of tragic interest. A strong new serial is begun, and the November and December numbers, containing the opening chapters, are offered free to new subscribers. Toronto: William Briggs. $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

The great difference between The Canadian Magazine, on the one hand, and the other leading magazines sold in this country, is the national character of the contributions and contributors. The Canadian Magazine discusses questions of importance to the people of this country, while its stories and poems reflect Canadian life and incident. The November number, for example, discusses only Canadian topics, and every contributor is a Canadian. The character sketch of the month deals with Geo. E. Drummond, the president-elect of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. The Dominion Superintendent of Forestry writes of "The Approaching Timber Famine," and advocates a national forestry policy which will preserve our timber. James Hannay deals with the British failure at Plattsburg in 1814, while E. B. Biggar tells something about the significance of the Centenary of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

PERU.—In Peru the problem of religious liberty is yet unsolved. That country, says the Presbyterian Witness, is one of the last strongholds of mediavalism. The small section of Protestants are struggling for the rights of conscience. It is a pity that for this little band there is no word of sympathy offered so far as we have seen by the dignitaries or by the press of the R. C. church in the United States or Canada. One of their organs, The Western Watchman, of St. Louis, advises the Peruvian Government that it is a part of enlightened statesmanship to protect the religious unity of the people and prevent the preaching of non-Catholic doctrines by foreigners. Instead of enacting laws making the public exercise of non-Catholic religion possible, they should, says The Watchman, take effective measures to suppress it.

CURED OF ASTHMA.

THE REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF A NOVA SCOTIA MAN.

He had Suffered for Years and often had to sit Night after Night at an Open Window gasping for Breath.

Mr. Thomas Johnson is well known in the vicinity of Hemford, N. S. He has taught school at Lunenburg county for more than thirteen years, and his reputation as a teacher is deservedly high. It is known that Mr. Johnson has been a severe sufferer from asthma—and as he has found a cure for the trouble, a reporter thought the facts of his case would prove interesting to similar sufferers. "One evening," said Mr. Johnson, "while lighting my pipe I inhaled the sulphur from the match. The fumes appeared to penetrate every portion of my lungs, and nearly strangled me. It was more than an hour before I recovered from the effects of this mishap, and I believe that that was the starting point of the trouble that has made my life so frequently miserable since. At all events, a few days later I had my first attack of asthma. Following this the attacks became more and more frequent, sometimes continuing for a week or more at a time. When these attacks came on I dare not lie down, and many a long, cold winter night I have passed at an open window gasping for breath. I was treated by two of the best doctors in the county, but derived no benefit. Then I began trying the remedies usually advertised as a cure for this trouble, but with no better results. I was continually growing worse, and life was becoming a burden. About a year ago my wife was using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was deriving so much benefit from them that one day she said to me, 'Why don't you try these pills, they might do you good, and they certainly can't do you harm.' To please my wife I began taking the pills, but only occasionally at first but inside of a few weeks I felt that I was improving in many ways. Then I began to use the pills in earnest, and soon found that breathing was becoming easier, the spasms came less frequently, and I could go about out of doors without danger of bringing the trouble on as was formerly the case. I took twelve boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in all, and after the improvement began every box added to it until all signs of the trouble had disappeared, and I have not since had any recurrence of it. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved me from a life of misery, and I am glad to make this public acknowledgment."

The above strong evidence proves that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not an ordinary medicine, and that they cure when other medicines fail. Every pill makes new, rich red blood, and thus enables the system to resist the inroads of disease and works a cure. Only the genuine pills can do this, however, and the purchaser should see that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is printed on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent post-paid at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
