

Kalispell, Montana, Sept. 6, 1903.

Dear Mr. Kerr,—I have been in Montana nearly three years, and now have charge of the office of the Missoula Mercantile Co. (capital $850,000). We employ 61 men, and have ten men in our office. . . I have found the training I got in your college practical in every way, and your system of book-keeping is exactly the same as we use in this company.

Harry C. Keith, the manager of this business . . . is also a graduate of your college. Several other men who went to your college are at the top of the ladder in this company.

THE OLDEST.—The oldest religious paper in the world is the Christian Observer, a Presbyterian paper published in Louisville, Ky. It has completed ninety years of continuous publication. It is as good as it is old. May it live till the end of time, doing good.
