THE MAGAZINES.

The December issue of Everybody's Magazine will certainly attract attention not only because of the interest of its instalment of "Frenzied Finance," but through the excellence of its general contents. Some of the best fiction writers before the public are represented within its covers. There are stories—and good ones too. "Is the World Growing Better?" is especially appropriate to the season of "Peace and Good Will." Another clever feature is Theodore Water's investigation of the beggars of New York. The instalment of "Frenzied Finance" is the most startling and specific yet given. The illustrated features of this number claim attention for their beauty and interest.

THE CHRISTMAS DELINEATOR.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, a chapter in the Composers' Series, relating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of F. Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elmore Elliott Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Magruder, L. Frank Baum, and Grace MacGowan Cooke, hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition, there are the regular departments of the magazine with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

Father—"You are very backward in your arithmetic. When I was your age I was doing cube root." Boy—"What's that?" Father—"What! You don't even know what it is. Dear me, that's terrible. Here, give me your pencil. Now, we'll take, say, 1, 2, 3, 4, and five the cube root. First you divide—no; you—let me see—um—yes no—well, never mind—after all, perhaps you're too young to understand it."

BUSINESS.

Those subscribers who have delayed their 1904 payments, and those, also, who owe for more than this year, will greatly oblige us by remitting now. They have not intended to keep back their subscriptions so long—they have just forgotten or "put it off." Because there is need of the money this month we are jogging their memory. We hope to hear from every one of them within a few days. Before the end of this month would be very gratifying.

Decide the Tea question for yourself. Pretty much all the advertised Teas claim to be "the best." Buy a half pound package sometime of each, and as long as you do not forget to try "VIM TEA" Baird & Peters are perfectly willing to await their turn, even if it be the last, so long as you try "VIM TEA." The chances are "VIM TEA" will have another regular customer.
