THE MAGAZINES.

The September St. Nicholas brings interesting chapters in the two serials. "Kibun Daizin, or From Shark-Boy to Merchant Prince" is the story of a Japanese boy. The illustrations for these stories are good. "Brittany, the Land of the Sardine," "A Citizen of the Deep," "A Goose Hunt by Steamer," and others are interesting. The departments, Nature and Science, Books and Reading, the Letter-Box and the Riddle-Box, are full of interest.

In the September number of Lippincott's Magazine "The Deep Waters of the Proud" is the title of a story of a young man who, with the whole world at his feet, hears from his physicians that he is going blind. There are several short stories. "Rome at Easter," is the description of a visit from the Queen to an artist.

In the September number of The Century the opening article is the first illustrated account in English of the canonization of Saint Seraphim, the Russian popular saint, at Sarov last August, in which the Czar and Czarina took part. It gives an interesting view of the Russian peasant. Other articles are "Japan's Highest Volcano," "The Nelicatar of Arctic Alaska," "Hidden Egypt," "Round-the-World at the World's Fair," "The Locusts of Natal," etc. The poems are in keeping with the spirit of the number.

The present critical situation in Tibet, Manchuria, and Japan is presented in three articles in The Missionary Review of the World for September. These are only a few of the splendid articles in this number of the Review. Others take up South America, South Africa, The Work for Negroes in America, The Belgians and the Kongo Atrocities, Malaysia, China, etc. Published monthly by Funk & Wagnalls Company, 44-60 East 23rd Street, cor. 4th Avenue, New York.
