WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.—A new edition of Webster's International Dictionary, published by C. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass., has recently been issued, printed from new and corrected plates. It might be supposed that former editions contained about all the words in the language, but this latest edition has 25,000 new words, phrases and definitions. It has, also, a new and thoroughly revised Biographical Dictionary and Gazetteer of the World, bringing these valuable departments fully up to date. "The Best Practical Dictionary," is what this great work has been called, and the latest edition fully justifies the name.

YEAR BOOKS.—We have received a copy of the Minutes of the 39th session of the Nova Scotia Free Baptist Conference, held August 24-29 last. It contains, besides the report printed in the INTELLIGENCER immediately after the session, lists of contributions to missions, etc.

The New Brunswick Conference Year Book is now being sent out. Pastors and churches will be interested in the announcement on page 13.
