[For THE HIGHWAY.] THE LORD OUR LEADER.

He will lead His people on, Throughout life's various stages, As He has done in all the ages; He will lead His people on.

And He blesses them without measure. And He still leads His people on.

In the dark as well as light, Resolved, That this Alliance do here- For with God there is no night,

> He will supply all their need, For His word is truth indeed! None do lack who trust Him fully, For He still leads His people on.

In the dark, and cloudy day, He always finds a way; And, as the shepherd goes before: Yes, He leads His people on.

He will lead His people on, Until they reach the other shore, Where all is bright forever more He will ever lead them on.

THE ANCHOR CHAIN.

The cable parted and the noble ship Beaten by wind and wave; Was dashed in pieces on the rocks, And filled an ocean grave.

But the anchor held, and it comes to me As o'er the scene I think, That the ship was lost with all her crew By the break of a rusty link.

For each anchor chain be it small or great, Do we ere pause and think? Is not as strong as the largest strand But weak as the frailest link.

And now dear heart I would ask of you Is your anchor chain all right? President or Vice-President, or in their | Have you looked to see if in all its length It is free from a flaw tonight.

The anchor chain of our hearts is love And guard it we must with care, Lest our lives be wrecked and our lights

By the break of the weak spot there. 'Tis an awful thing in the midnight rain When the ship rides all forlorn, To hear the snap of the anchor chain And know all hope is gone.

But a deeper woe fills each human heart When they hear the cry of pain And know some life has gone adrift By the break of its anchor chain. Written for the HIGHWAY by S. C.

[For THE HIGHWAY.] THE SHELF BEHIND THE DOOR

As sung by Bro. G. B. Story of Moncton, at our Camp Meeting, July, 1898.

When first I came to Jesus, With my load of guilt and sin; I asked His forgiveness, And He freely took me in.

He cleansed my soul from idols, He filled my heart with joy, And gave me peace and happiness

The devil can't destroy. E'er since I got this peace of mind, And felt myself secure, After some discussion the following Old Belzebub he came along And whispered in my ear:

Those idols that you love so well You need not give them o'er; That's in behind the door.

CHORUS.

The shelf behind the door, The shelf behind the door; Tear it down and throw it out, Don't use it any more; Temperance—Sisters Alice N. Good- For Jesus wants His temple clean From ceiling to the floor; That's in behind the door.

> There are lots of people of today Who profess to love the Lord, They say they are doing all His will And trusting in His word; But yet they're always grumbling, Do you know the reason why? Because they got some idols They are keeping on the sly. Some love the filthy weed you know, And some the social glass,

Some go to the gambling dens, Some idolize their dress; And e'er they get their heart put right, They give the contest o'er, They put them on the little shelf That's in behind the door.

Ye hypocrites and pharisees, Just mind what you're about, The time is surely coming

When your sin will find you out, And when you go to judgment And stand before God's throne, He'll point you to that little shelf That's in behind the door. Oh! how the army chariot

Would go sweeping through the land, Oh! how the army soldiers Would fight at God's command, Oh! how the words of Jesus Would sound from shore to shore,

Only for that little shelf, That's in behind the door.
