An Advocate of Scriptural Holiness.

THE ORGAN OF THE Reformed Baptists of Canada.

Published Semi-Monthly at Woodstock, N. B., by a Committee of the Alliance.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS: Rev. S. A. Baker, Rev. M. S. Trafton, B. N. Goodspeed, Esq., Rev. A. L. Bubar. H. C. Archer, Financial Agent.

Subscription Price: PER YEAR, in advance, FOUR MONTHS, one trial subscription,... NE SAMPLE COPY,....

For Distribution:

If you wish your paper discontinued, write us to that effect, But bear in mind that all arrearages must be paid before this can be done.

If you change your residence please drop us card asking us to change your address on paper. In doing this do not fail to give the old address as well as the new one. As we cannot find your address on the books unless your post office address. Should your paper fail to reach you, let us I now at once, and we will inquire into the reason.

We expect our ministers, agents, and friends to push ahead the circulation of THE HIGHWAY. DISPATCH PRINT, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All correspondence for THE HIGHWAY should be addressed to the DISPATCH, Woodstock, to H. C. Archer, Meductic, N. B.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., JAN. 15, 1903.

"A STANDARD BEARER FAINTETH."

ISA. 10:18.

HIGHWAY and fellow-laborer in the ranks and press on together. church and ministry, within the inner Truly, "a standard bearer fainteth." great danger. circle of our hearts affections.

his own.

He was a true christian, always loyal to the cause of truth and righteousness. The years that have passel in his ministry were always full of might best honor God and raise a monutoil and arduous labor for the spiri-ment to his memory, and I feel that God tual prosperity of all that came with- has given to me a proper plan. in his personal influence; but those interest and unfailing attention that for Him under our name. our beloved brother always gave to any and every work that meant the spiritual uplifting and enlightenment about one thousand dollars. to the very last.

his spiritual consciousness by the Station." Word of God and stirring his soul by this and that he may prepare our hearts the Spirit's power, was to utter and for the response. proclaim those convictions with a positiveness, fearlessness and aggressiveness that often startled the attenaroused the opposition of the self-$1.00. centered and self-seeking.

He was no time-server. Once he obedience. became clearly and scripturally certain. The perfect obedient soul be-sof mourning friends of the town, Lo-sition of unbelievers, both within and rejoiced and weeping with those that of the righteousness and spiritual lieves spontaneously.

benefit of a movement, he would move out in the full tide of his convictions and hew his way through every obfear and bridging the chasms of doubt, to sure and certain triumph.

cause of Holiness; even when indentiling, Dec. 31st, 1902. fication with this cause meant the rehe has nobly stood the test of the churches on the island. thought of a truly loyal people; and to that people he clung, and side by ed Baptist ministry did he nobly champion the interests and cause and work of holiness throughout the coun-

But he has now fallen, though even to the last step of the journey did his voice ring out the full notes of the Gospel he loved so well. Often weary has been his arm, often tired has been N. B. All letters containing money, addressed his brain, but never for one moment did his heart falter in his devotement and sacrifice to the cause of holiness.

He has gone on ahead, we follow after. With us that remain behind there is a loss that is felt,—a vacancy rests from his labors.

A MEMORIAL FUND.

heart has been engaged as to how we

and a small chapel. This will require

Let us all pray for God's blessing upon

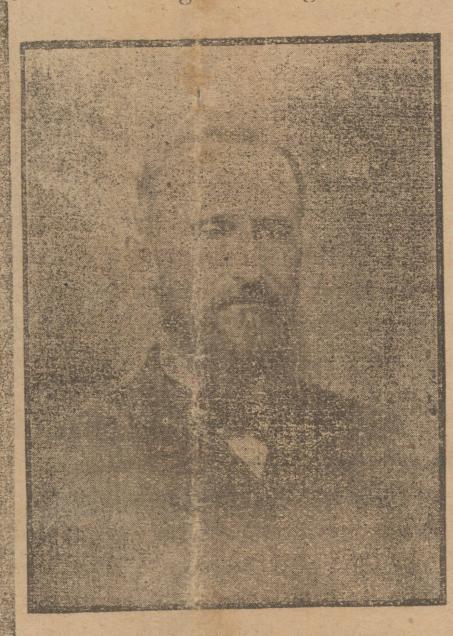

M. S. TRAFTON.

TABERNACLE FUNDS.

God requires entire and perfect stacle, tunnelling the mountains of cord the death of our friend, brother here to await the resurrection of the sex Free Baptist circuit, where he and co-labourer Rev. G. W. Mac-liust. and march on as a victorious leader Donald, whose death took place in St. John at the residence of Mr. John parentage at Southern Head, Grand preaching at Apohaqui, Penobsquis It was this quality of faith and Hornbrook, 50 King Square, the pres-Manan Island, July 25th, 1835, and and Sussex, and having success in his spiritual genuineness of character that ent home of his daughter, Mis Ger-in his early days, like some of the work. During all this period the agitook him, heart and soul, over to the trude Macdonald, on Wednesday morn- Apostles, was a fisherman. He was tation in regard to sanctification, in-

Bro. Macdonald had been failing in and also of heart disease. wer Brighton, Hartland, etc., com-without the church, till at last he was wept. His loss will be felt the keenpletely filling the church. His re- disfellowshipped by his denomination. mains were laid beside those of his Bro. Macdonald leaving Woodstock It becomes our painful duty to re-wife and children in the cemetery received a unanimous call to the Sus-converted during a revival under Rev. creased in the denomination and the Bro. Macdonald arrived in St. John J. N. Barnes, Free Baptist minister, opposition to it became stronger till proach of Jesus, to become of no re- on Christmas eve to spend the holi- and was baptized Aug. 9th, 1862, and it culminated in the withdrawal of putation, the denial of a place of days with his children, Harry and united with the Seal Cove Free Bap- fellowship from not only Bro. Macworship and, as a climax of evil, to be Gertrude, having come from Grand tist church, and he had the honor of donald, but of Revs. W. Kinghorn, B. disfellowshipped as a christian minis-Manan, where he had been visiting hauling the first stick of timber to Colpitts, G. B. Trafton and G. T. ter and to be branded as a heretic, his other son, Rev. Geo. B. Macdonald, build the church edifice, that is now Hartley, which resolution was adoptunworthy of christian confidence. But pastor of the Reformed Baptist standing and being used for worship, ed by the General Conference held at a few miles from his old home.

his character and has given him again health for over a year and on this ac- of his Master to become a fisher of As a consequence it was in November a large place in the affections and count was obliged to resign the Hart-men. He at once obeyed, and at the of this year that the present Reform-General Conference held at Coverdale, ed Baptist denomination was organiz-Albert Co., on July 3rd, 1865, he re- ed at Woodstock. ceived conference license to preach Bro. Macdonald now became pastor the Gospel, and was ordained as a of the first church here which he held Free Baptist minister at the Mouth of for about two years, when he removthe Oromocto, Sunbury Co., July 22, ed to St. John and became pastor of 1866.

Russiagornis and Oromocto. From he desired a change of work and was thence he removed to Tracy Mills, chosen as denominational Evangelist Carleton Co., in the latter part of July, 1894. He held this position till 1876, preaching at Williamstown, 1896, when he became pastor of the and surrounding districts, where he mouth County, N. S., till July, 1899.

had much success. 1873, held at Waterville, Carleton Co., the pastoral oversight of the church he came to the town of Woodstock, for one year. In July, 1900, he rein our ranks that for the present land circuit last October. He went to where he became the pastor of the moved to Hartland and became pastor It is with the thrilling conscious- causes inward pain and a rush of Grand Manan thinking the change Free Baptist church. Rev. Joseph T. of the Waterville, Victoria Corner, ness of a great and painful loss that tears. At the moment we are blinded and rest would assist in his recovery; Parsons, the corresponding secretary Lower Brighton and Hartland Rewe place on record this "memorial tri- by our great sorrow. Our hearts are but such was not God's will. While of Conference, in his annual report formed Baptist churches, preaching bute" to the grand moral worth and stunned by the blow. His companion- visiting George he was at times very read at the Conference of October, also at Peel. He continued on this loyal unchanging friendship that ship,—his counsel, Oh! how we shall ill and feared heart failure, but as 1874, held at Tracey's Mills, Sunbury circuit till October last when, as I have brought our late beloved brother, the miss him. Words fail here to express physicians assured him that they Co., thus reports Bro. MacDonald's mentioned, he was compelled to re-Rev. G. W. Macdonald, editor of the our loss. Yes, we must close up our could not discover any serious heart work of that year: "God has abun- sign through ill health. trouble he was not considered in any dantly blessed the labors of his ser- Bro. Macdonald had thus spent over evant, and placed upon the contract twenty-three years of his ministerial Dut he fell at his part To the Be- On his arrival at St. John he was between pastor and people the unmis- life as a Free Papiist minister, hold-It was our privilege to have formed formed Baptist church and her doc- no better, and his children were anxi- takable seal of his approval. Du igning severa important pastories and his acquaintance some twenty-five trines he gave the most loyal and full ous yet his case was not considered the past winter one of the most pow positions among them, as he was years ago, long before the present allegiance of his heart. The church critical. But about four o'clock Wed-gerful revivals with which Woodstock chosen moderator of Conference for the oppressed and made their cause among us will not be easily filled. He thought to be quietly sleeping, but and had mercy on his afflicted. As President of our Alliance, not being A. L. B. lafter a time noticed a peculiar ashen the result of this revival 43 were bap-lelected till the year 1891, yet he had hue on his countenance, and then call-tized and 74 added to the church, and the position several times. He was ed his sister Gertrude, when they con- a prosperous Sabbath school organiz- also elected twice as editor of the Since the death of Bro. Macdonald my cluded that father was dead. At once ed." During the eleven years he was Highway, which post he held for six a physician was called but the end pastor of this church the Lord contin- years and a half, though he was not had come—he had quietly passed ued to bless his labours, and there was its first editor. He was also one of away to his eternal home in sleep. He not a year that some were not added the most prominent and the ablest As a people we have placed missionaries had died, the physician said, of a di-to the church, hence the church in-minister of the denomination. years, toilsome and burdened with in South Africa and they are looking to lated heart, for which there was no creased by scores during his ministry. He leaves two sons, Harry H. Macwork as they were, did not in any God to very soon open to them a field cure. Mrs. Macdonald died a little here. It was here also in January, donald, Insurance Agent of St. John perceptible degree, lessen the deep where they will take up permanent work over a year ago in a similar manner, 1882, that Rev. Aaron Hartt came to and Rev. Geo. B. Macdonald of Grand assist Bro. Macdonald in special meet- Manan; also one daughter, Miss Ger-Once they are located the next thing There was a funeral service held ings, and preached the doctrine of entrude Macdonald, official stenographer must be a home, i.e, a home for themselves that evening led by Rev. Geo. M. tire and instantaneous sanctification of St. John, to mourn the loss of a Campbell, of the Centenary Methodist as a second definite work of grace very kind and indulgent father. Also of the christian church. This he did By the next issue I will submit the church, at the residence of Mr. Horn-subsequent to conversion, as the priva host of near friends and acquaintplan which I trust will be used of God to brook. And then on Thursday, Jan. ilege and need of every believer. Bro. ances in both New Brunswick, Nova He was a courageous, aggressive, enable us to raise this amount for the 1st, the body was conveyed by the Macdonald did not offer any opposi- Scotia and United States. Bro. Macchristian minister. With him,—grand, building of our pioneer mission station in express train to Woodstock, accompation, but began to pray and search donald was a self-made man of more noble warrior of God's army that he South Africa, to bear some such name nied by the sorrowing children, and the Scriptures and denominational than ordinary ability and a great was,—to have conviction born into as "The Macdonald Memorial Mission placed in the Reformed Baptist church, standard (Butler's Theology) to see reader of good books, magazines and where a special service was held in whether these things were so. As a papers—he kept abreast of the times. the afternoon led by Rev. B. Colpitts, result he became a seeker for the ever He was an excellent preacher, and a in which Revs. J. H. Coy and W. B. blessed experience of a pure heart, clear headed, convincing and interest-Wiggins and Stephen B. Appleby, K. filled with the Holy Spirit, and on ing speaker and a strong debater,—a C., and Mr. R. B. Jones took part. March 19th, 1882, was wholly sancti-man of strong will and decided opin-There were present also, Revs. A. H. fied. A day never to be forgotten by ions, which he did not fear to express tion of his hearers and sometimes Mrs. Wm. Everett, Riverside Tabernacle, Trafton, Reformed Baptist; Z. L. Fash, our brother. At once he became a when the proper time came, an op-Baptist; Geo. A. Ross, Methodist, and strong advocate of this great grace poser of all evil, an advocate of all Elders McFadgen and Woodworth, which resulted in the sanctification of good. He was a true and sympathe-Adventists, and a large representation many believers, and the strong oppo-tic friend, rejoicing with those that spent four happy years in labour Bro. Macdonald was born of Scotch among a kind and hospitable people, Blissville, Sunbury Co., Oct. 16th, A few years after he heard the call 1888, by a vote of 55 yeas to 6 nays.

the Reformed Baptist church there, His first circuit was Gagetown and so continued for three years, when Knoxford, Bridgewater, Tracy Mills, Reformed Baptist churches in Yar-He then went to assist the Reformed After the Conference of October, Baptist church at Calais, Me., taking holiness movement had assumed any shall miss him much. The Highway nesday morning he awoke and talked was experienced un- the year 1874-75. And in 1879 he agitation, or found expression in any and its committee shall miss his in-labout an article on Grand Manan, der his labours, the beneficial effects was unamiously elected as Corresponddefinite form. We had heard him, on spiration and fearless advocacy of which Harry was reading from a of which eternity alone will disclose. ing Secretary of Conference, which different occasions, in emphatic denun Bible truth. He wielded a strong magazine, as he watched by his fath-Meetings were continued day and position he held for nearly 10 years, ciation of the drink-triffic and kindred and trenchant pen. He made his in-er's bedside, and after a time said he evening for six weeks; scores were or till he was disfellowshipped in Oct. evils, and we felt then what we have fluence felt upon the public mind. thought he could sleep some more moved upon by the spirit of God to 1888. He occupied a good place in the since proved, that his strong clarion Twice was he chosen editor of High-Harry fixed his pillows, and Bro. seek salvation, and many were enabl-denomination, and wielded considervoice, thrilling with notes of warning way, filling that responsible position Macdonald remarking that the rear-ged to rejoice in his pardoning love. able influence, being considered one against the common enemies of man's satisfactorily to all. Thrice was he ranged pillows rested him, for which Backsliders confessed their wander of their ablest ministers. In the Respiritual elevation, was stirred by a elected President of Alliance, always he expressed his gratitude, fell asleep ings of heart and returned to the formed Baptist denomination he also heart, true, noble and loyal,—a heart discharging his duties impartially and again. Harry being anxious, contin-fold, and the church rejoiced that the held an influential and important posithat instinctively went to the side of honorably. We feel that his place ued to watch his father, whom he Lord had again comforted his people, tion. Though he was not the first