CORRESPONDENCE.

BEALS, ME., Oct. 12, 1903. Dear HIGHWAY, - We thought we might report some of our movements and what we, by the grace of God, are doing here on this beautiful island. Since coming here, and even before, we have been much in prayer as to how we might best serve this people and glorify God in the building up of their faith. And we truly believe God has marvellously answered our united prayers. Confidences have been restored, faith in God has been inspired, enthusiasm in the work has been created, the pastor has been greatly cheered and encouraged and a bright and hopeful outlook in the work of the church has been quickly brought about. We have only been here four weeks, but marvellous re rults have been accomplished in that short time. Upon inquiry we found a heavy debt against the church, and they were discouraged over it, not because they were unwilling or unable to pay it, but because they had no one to go ahead and throw himself into the work of removing this burden. We soon found a large hearted sympathy among the people, and that they would stand by us in our under people took hold of the matter with will-. Above we have a block of 100 squares. ing hearts and open pocketbooks, we find praise God. He has been with us in this Any individual can take as many of noble work and marvellous things have taken place. Our total indebteaness Oct. 1st was $451.43, which included and old bill of running expenses of $23.87. The Band of Willing Workers in connection men and a true friend of our church and ing. people, to make us a present, and so he came to one of our business meetings and made us the gift of $127.56. Our church was glad and heartily thanked him for his free and generous gift. A committee was then appointed of Bro. D. Hilyard, and Sisters D. C. Beal and Eli Beal to push the matter through to a speedy com pletion. In less than a week they paid into the treasurer's hands $92.55, thus reducing the debt in about ten days from $451.43 down to $140.62. A further reduction of the debt has with in three days bought it down to less than $100.00. God has marvellously blessed our efforts in the work, and a remarkable revival of church-debt paying has taken place. A number of of us have taken hold of this matter in prayer to God, and we are expecting in less than a month to see Chas. Appleby, Woodstock, .... 2.00 ly out. To God be all the glory. And in addition to all this a friend has offered the church all the paint necessary to paint the whole church building on the outside. And besides all this the ladies have put | ple. in a new Carpet for the platform and a new lamp for the pulpit. For all these they are holding on to God, prayers and expect this week to get somewhat for these dear ones that they may not settled. We have received many kindnesses from the people here. Dear Highway, -This writing finds us at our son-in-law's home at Hartland, myself somewhat weak in body, but well in my soul, praise the Lord. In coming home we are very glad to find the dear saints happy in the Lord, and united in holding up by prayer and giving. Our beloved pastor, Bro. S. A. Baker, and wife, both are untiring in there efforts to advance Christ's Kingdom on this circuit. We appreciate very much their coming, old Gospel truth, Holiness unto the Lord. soul's will be saved, the Lord grant it, to him be the glory.

We are sorry to part with one of the young members of our church of late, but we are confident of her being a great blessing in her new association. While we regret the absence of so many of our church, yet we rejoice in the the thought as they have entered new fields they will shine for God, and help spread scriptural holiness. For this we pray.

We appreciate the Highway very much and are always helped in reading it. If possible it seems to be getting better all the time. Glad to hear from Bro. G. B. McDonald in a late issue, and would that more of the ministers, brethren and sisters, would write often for it. I know it would greatly encourage and help the editor. I know whereof I speak, as the late Editor Bro. G. W. Macdonald boarded at our home for two years or more, while fulfilling the duties as editor.

I see the need of doing more in his service and will by his help.

Yours saved,

Thus ended a day of great victory. Some souls were converted, others claimed to have been sanctified and a number requested the prayers of God's people. These people have a zeal according to knowledge. They are preparing to build a new church and have the foundation all ready. They now worship in a hall owned by Bro. John Belyea, a mem ber of the church. They have also a good, thriving Sabbath school. Our special work is to continue at Moncton. Several have been reclaimed, and others are seeking salvation. A number of the young people have requested our prayers, and a few of them have made a full consecration of themselves to God. Our church at the Mountain is inyoung people who have been saved in our creasing in strength. We have some faithful ones there, and they are praying down the blessing of God from the skies. Many have said, "Pray for us." We are expecting to have special meetings there soon. I wish to acknowledge a very timely gift from the church and congregation at Moncton of $32. Will you all pray for us in this large field.

At the home of her parents, Upper Queensbury, August 27th, Lucretia Thornton, aged 22 years, daughter of Lemuel and Mary Thornton. The deceased although possessed of an amiable disposition and of a thoughtful turn of mind by which she was endeared to family and friends had not openly professed faith in Christ yet in her sickness which I am trusting God that he will bring extended through some ten weeks, she was thoughtful and prayed much, and J. Burpee; Hartland, Bro. W. McFarland; God was pleased to hear and answer and Victoria, Bro. J.
