WOODSTOCK, N. B., OCT. 15, 1904.

The only scriptural union is to be partakers of like precious faith which progresses like precious experience.

"Awake unto righteousness and sin not," Paul cried. But the modern popular preacher assures his congregation that they cannot get free from it, so they need not be disturbed.

The Quarterly Meeting to be held at Hartland will convene January 5th, 1905. Not June as stated in our last issue.

MUZZLING.

"Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn." Yes; but a great many people would like to muzzle the preacher who speaks against modern methods of church financing.

SYMPATHIES VS. SINS.

The eyes fill with tears when you stir people's sympathies, the eyes fill with fire if you touch their pet sin.

PLAN OF PURCHASE APPROVED.

We are receiving many letters approving the plan to purchase "Balmoral Farm," and these expressions are accompanied by pledges or cash.

SISTER MORGAN'S PHOTOS.

Sister Morgan's photos are going rapidly. We will hold our offer of one free to "New Subscribers" and for renewals until the 30th, or we will send one to any address for 25 cents in stamps.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. Z. B. Grass says in a recent letter, "God is giving us much victory on this field, Sunday, 2nd instant, was a day of much power."

The Hartland Mission Band held two excellent missionary meetings at Hartland and at Peel. The program was excellent, being instructive as well as deeply entertaining.

The Missionary Societies of Hartland and Victoria Corner held successful public missionary meetings recently. The interest is increasing.

There is to be a Holiness Convention in the Reformed Baptist church at Woodstock beginning November 16th, continuing ten days. Rev. E. A. Ferguson, of Mount Vernon, Ill., will be the preacher.

Rev. G. B. Macdonald will preach his farewell sermon in the Reformed Baptist church next Sunday afternoon. —Southampton locals "Dispatch."

Rev. J. Gravinor preached in the Free Baptist church at Southampton Sunday evening, 9th instant. —"Dispatch."

A Holiness Convention began at Lower Brighton on the 14th to continue until Sunday evening, 23rd instant. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, B. A., and others.

We publish in another column a private letter from Sister Sanders which will be interesting to all.

Rev. J. H. Coy and wife go to Calais today to reside and take the pastoral care of the church at that place.

Sister Ida Morgan is getting around among the churches energetically. She has recently visited Peniac, Marysville, Mount Hope, Fredericton and St. John, having successful meetings in each place and has now gone to Moncton, Lutz Mountain, Amherst, Oxford and Westchester, N. S., and expects to go to Grand Manan as soon as she returns from Nova Scotia, probably about the 19th instant.

Rev. G. B. and M. S. Trafton will hold a ten days Holiness Convention at Robie, Maine, October 21-30. The brethren always have victory in that community, which is the brightest spot religiously in Aroostook County.

Sister Morgan is doing good work among the churches. A good home missionary will be a good foreign missionary.

Rev. M. S. Trafton baptized three and gave them the hand of fellowship Sunday, 2nd instant. The interest in the regular meetings keeps good, congregations increasing, two professed salvation last Sunday night.

Sister Ida Morgan held an excellent missionary meeting in St. John the 7th. The people gave her a collection of twenty-one dollars.

The Provincial Sunday School convention held in the Reformed Baptist church at Woodstock, on the 11th, 12th and 13th inst., gave evidence of a widespread interest in New Brunswick by a very large delegation.

Many good things were said by the various speakers. Prof. E. O. Excell had charge of the musical part of the convention in which he proved himself an expert. Mr. W. C. Pearce, of Illinois, gave an excellent address on Tuesday evening, subject, "Christ Illustrating the Truth." Christ's purposes in illustrating: 1st, To reveal the truth. 2nd, To perpetuate the truth. The sources from which he drew his illustrations. 1st, He drew from the different forms of life. He drew from the home life. He drew heavily from nature; he spoke of the flowers of the field. He drew from commercial life. He also drew from the Old Testament Scriptures.

Mrs. Bryner gave an interesting statistical address in connection with the international S. S. work. There was a large number of the most prominent Sunday school workers of the province present.

OBITUARY.

Died at Nortondale, York County, September 24th, Mrs. Ella Maud Thompson Cox, beloved wife of John Cox, aged 37 years, leaving a father and mother James and Lydia Thompson, and one brother Arthur, of Fredericton, and two sisters Mrs. Malcolm, of Vancouver, and Mrs. E. A. Moore, of Seattle, Washington, and a sorrow stricken husband, and three small children, to mourn their loss, of a kind and affectionate wife and mother.

We extend to the bereaved our sympathy and prayers. The funeral service was conducted by the writer at her home. G. B. TRAFTON.

DIED.

At Beals, Maine, October 7th, in the early morning, of heart disease, Margaret, beloved wife of Mr. Timothy Wallace, aged 67.

Sister Wallace was always a kind, affectionate, industrious woman, and well thought of by the community generally. It was our privilege since coming here to visit her frequently, and we endeavored to press upon her the importance of being ready to meet the Lord in peace.

She leaves behind a sad and sorrowful husband, a brother and sister; also a large number of nephews and nieces, among whom are Messrs. John A., F. Willis, and Chas. H. Beal, and many other relatives, all of whom will miss the cheerful presence and patient spirit of the departed one.

Her funeral was held on Sunday at 2.30 in the Reformed Baptist church, and was attended by a large and sympathetic congregation. Suitable singing was selected, and an appropriate sermon was preached by the writer from Psalms 47:14. Rev. Mr. Brewster, Adventist, was also in attendance and assisted in the services. The remains were laid to rest in the Beals Island cemetery. May God comfort and bring peace to the hearts of all the mourning ones. A. L. B.

At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. P. J. Trafton, Woodstock, N. B., on Monday, Sept. 19th, Mr. John R. Hamilton, of paralysis, in the 61st year of his age. Mr. Hamilton lived and did business in Woodstock a number of years ago, afterwards removed to Lynn, Mass., and then to Richmond, Carleton Co., N. B., whence having lost his house and shop by fire, he removed to Woodstock, where being stricken with paralysis he lingered for eight weeks.

GOOD WORDS FOR THE HIGHWAY.

A sister writes:—"Enclosed please find one dollar to renew my subscription for your valuable paper. I would not think of letting my subscription run out, for it is next to the Bible to my heart."

Another writes:—"I like the 'HIGHWAY' very much, its words are very precious, so plain and helpful that I do not want to do without it. I pray that the holiness cause may spread all over the land."

Billy Bray says: "Soon after my conversion, I was very happy in my work, and could leap and dance for joy under ground as well as on the surface. My comrades used to tell me that dancing, shouting, and making so much 'do' was not religion. But I was born in the fire and could not live in the smoke. They said there was no need to leap and dance, and make so much noise, for the Lord was not deaf, and He knows our hearts. And I would reply, 'But you must know that the devil is not deaf either, and yet his servants make a great noise. The devil would rather see us doubting, than hear us shouting.'" —Sel.

MEMORIAL EXTENSION FUND. Dear Friends of Holiness Missions, —We thank God for his abundant blessings upon our work. We feel to praise God for the strong worker we have in Sister Ida Morgan, whom we are soon to send to join Brother and Sister Sanders. We also feel to praise God that he has prompted so many to give to the fund for purchasing the cart and oxen for our station, and yet I fear there are too many who may feel that this is a matter of little importance. Now as I have stated before this was an urgent request from our missionaries and therefore is a pressing need, the more apparent as their spring is now fast approaching and farm work, if any is to be done, must be done soon. They also spoke of a plough, but comparing prices we as a board decided they better buy at Durban.
